Another large one is below the armory. . F. Gramm, of Chestnut Hill, brought co this place to-day two pair of beautiful game fowls, which he has sent to parties in Philadelphia.

A new front is being put in Samuel Swa:tz's residence on Locust street. The large room formerly used as a parlor is now being converted into a store. It will be for rent when finished.

It is reported that there is the prospect of the establishment of a glass works here, providing the ground for the erection of the works can be purchased cheaply. A farmer who was returning home from market this morning was nearly thrown from his wagon by the horse taking fright on Chestnut street and running away. The frightened animal was finally stopped before any damage was done. Attractions Ahead.

Janauschek is booked for the opera house here, November 11th. The following number of shows have already been booked by agents: October, 2; November, 9; December, 9; January, 5; February, 2; March, 2. There will be no lack of entertainments this winter.

An Early Morning Fight. A fight occurred on Cherry street, between Fourth and Fifth streets, early this morning between two men, one of them being a plasterer, who also has a little grocery store. The affair was caused by the assailant refusing to work out a bill which he owed at the store. The other accused him of wishing to cheat him out of his money. The fight ended by the storekeeper sitting down on top of the debtor, but the latter would do no work. A Lady's Heroic Act.

track at Snyder's corner, yesterday, by horror stricken te render help. Mrs. Simmons laid down a baby which she was carrying to perform the act of a heroine. Too much praise cannot be given her. Disorderly Darks.

John Wesley Cooper, colored, was arranged before 'Squire Young last evening, charged by James Green also colored with assault and battery, and drunk and dis-orderly conduct. The trouble occurred on Friday last. Cooper was held in bail on the assault and battery case, but was discharged on the other.

Joseph Cole, colored, was sent to the Lancaster prison again this morning, for being drunk and disorderly, on Locust street, yesterday about 6 p. m. Joe makes use of very bad language when drunk. This time he received a permit to board at the Lancaster "castle" for 30 days. Wreck on the River Road.

A wreck was caused on the Port Deposit railroad, about two miles below McCall's ferry this morning at 3 a. m. by a large tree falling from the hillside across the track. Eugine No. 534 and 12 freight cars were wrecked. Seven cars were thrown over the river bank. No person was injured. The place at which the accident occurred is a dangerous one, there being but little ground between the river and the hills. At 4 a. m. to day the Columbia wreckers were sent to the scene of the accident. They opened the road for travel and returned at 8:30 a. m. Horough Personals.

porter for the Lancaster New Era, left this afternoon for Philadelphia, where he will work at his trade of sign painting. May success be with him. He leaves a host of friends to regret his departure from their midst.

Charged With a Grave Offense. Henry Stoltz was arrested in Marietta last night by Officer Herr, on the charge of assault with intent to ravish a little daughter of M. M. Rutt, of German street. The defendant formerly worked at baking in this city, and the crime is alleged to have occurred in August. He was committed for a hearing before Alderman Me-Conomy.

Accident. Yesterday afternoon Tillman Stump, a of his age. He was a brother of the late Peter G. Eberman, and in the Quarryville railroad, at Graeff's Landing, was severely cut in the leg by a fellow workman whose axe glanced from a piece of timber he was cutting and struck Mr. Stump on the right leg between the ankle and knee, cutting through to the bone. The wound is painful but not dangerous.

blander Buit. H. C. Brubaker, esq., for Jacob H. Hoober, has brought a suit for slander against Peter C. Eckert, of Bareville, Upper Leacock township. This morning the sheriff arrested the defendant on a writ of capias, and he gave bail in the sum of $5,000. It is charged that the defendant publicly accused the plaintiff of having acted dishonestly in business transactions with Thomas Brubaker. Too Liberal. o INTELL entirely too liberal yesterday when he said that Recorder Good would receive "ten cents a line" for recording the big mortgage of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad to the Pennsylvania insurance company. The legal fee is one cent for ten words—and that is all the recorder expects to get.

COURT occedings in Common Pleas-Interesting Trials for the Respective Rights of Kents and Property.

BEFORE JUDGE LIVINGSTON. George Ramsay vs. James M. McCamaut appeal by defendant from the judgment of Samuel J. Henderson, esq. The plaintiff resides in Salisbury township and during the years of 1879 and 1880 he occupied property, which he rented from Joseph Haines. There was a store room in the building and this, together with the cellar and second story room, was rented to the defendant by Ramsay. He (McCamant) paid his rent for 1879 but failed to do so between April 1st, 1880 and 1881. This suit is brought to recover the rent, compensation for board furnished the defendaut, feed for his horse, and rent of a small shed. The whole claim as plaintiff alleged was due him was $261.

The defense admitted owing the plaintiff, but claimed that his bill was too high. They allege that in the spring of 1880, when plaintiff went to Mr. Haines to re-rent his property, he asked the defendant's father to go with him to use his influence to induce Mr. Haines to rent the property to him (Ramsay) for $100 cheaper than in the year 1879. Old Mr. McCamant did go along and they succeeded in getting the reduction. The defense claim that on account of these services by the defendant's father, it was agreed that the bargain should remain the same between the plaintiff and defendant during the second year as the first. The defense lived in the building with that understanding, and the first they knew that an increase was wanted was when they came to settle. The defendent several times effered to pay the plaintiff the sum of $153, which he claims was all he owed.

Previous to the calling of witnesses in the case, the defense made a tender of the amount which they admit owing. It was refused by the plaintiff. On trial.

BEFORE JUDGE PATTERSON. John W. Zimmerman vs. Solomon Les ley, contestant, and Eli Gehman, tenant, action of ejectment to recover a tract of land in Martindale, Earl township, containing about 40 perches with a frame house thereon. The plaintiff alleges that the property is unlawfully held by the defendants as the right of possession is in him. The claim of title was proven from 1792 through the several transfers to George B. Heil, under whom both parties claim title. From the testimony of the plaintiff it appeared that in the fail of 1879 Heil sold this property, which was deeded to plaintiff in April, 1880, he having $600 in the pur-chase of the land and building of the house. In May, 1880, Solomon Lesley who held a judgment against Rudolph W. Zimmerman for $117.10 took this property in execution and sold through the sheriff, the interest of Rudolph Zimmerman only, which Solomon Lesley purchased. The plaintiff contended that Rudolph Zimmerman, not having at that time attained any interest in the estate, the defendants are in unlawful possession, hence the suit. The defense then proceeded to show by A old man named Michael Troy was the evidence of J. C. Martin, esq., and the pulled from the Pennsylvania railroad sheriff's deed that in 1880, Rudolph sold a property for $800 and purchased this one; Mrs. Amos Simmons, just as a freight en- lat the time of the purchase toward which gine was about to strike him. A number plaintiff loaned Rudolph $600 the deed was of men were standing near but seemed too made to John W. Zimmerman, in order to Household Panacea" should be in every socure his loan, the latter entering into an agreement at the time that if Rudolph repaid him the $600 on April 1st, 1880, plaintiff would sell and convey the estate to him, that, however, this deed had not been recorded and therefore was to be considered as an unrecorded mortgage, and no notice to the world, at the time of the sale by the sheriff, which fact voided its claim. When the sherif sold the interest of Rudolph Zimmerman in the property in May, 1880, no one else had any interest in it, and as it was purchased by Solomon Lesley for $380 at that sale and transferred to him by sheriff's deed, he had a clear title therein, and was now in lawful possession. After some rebutting testimony and the answer to the points of law submitted by counsel, the court sustained the plaintiff and under their instruction a verdict in favor of the plaintiff was taken, on con tition that the judgment be released on the payment by defendant of $652 with interest from date, and costs of suit, said payment to be made January 1st 1883. By the verdict the plaintiff gets possession of the property and retains it until this amount is paid. J. L. Beardslee, surviving partner of the firm of J. L. Beardslee & Co., of New York vs. John B. Lebkicker. This case was compromised by the parties them-selves and a verdict was taken in favor of the plaintiff for $1,074.40.

A New Bridge. Mr. John Foreman, builder of the new bridge that crosses the Conestoga at Gracif's landing on the line of the Quarryville railroad, has the work so far completed that he expects the cars to pass over it this evening. The bridge is of the style known as a "box bridge," and is of two spans. It is made of heavier timbers and is much stronger than the old one. For a few days past passenger trains have run north and south to the Conestoga, at which point passengers and their baggage have crossed the creek on the county road bridge at that point. The carriage of through freight, which has been tempo-rarily suspended, will be resumed as soon as the bridge is completed.

"Hang Out the Banners." The Independent Republicans of this city are the first in the field with their campaign banner, which was to-day flung to the breeze from their headquarters in Bitner's warehouse, North Queen above Chesnut street. The flag belongs to Mr. S S. Spencer, and is the same one that that gentleman unfurled in 1861, when the first Lancaster soldier's left for the seat of war. Attached to it is a piece of canvas bearing "Independent Republican Head Quarters." Obituary. Henry F. Eberman died yesterday at the county hospital, in the 84th year his younger days was a man of con-siderable influence.
