OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT

Events Along the Susquehanna-Items of Interest in and Around the Home-Things to Pick Up in the Intellectual-Intelligence's Reporter

The river has been rising steadily since the late heavy rains.

A family picnic was held at Wild Cat Falls to-day by a number of Columbia families.

The wreck on the Port Deposit railroad occurred on Monday at 3 p. m. instead of at 3 a. m.

The blockade of the Pennsylvania railroad falls has been broken at last.

John Struck, charged with wife beating, was last evening bound over by 'Squire Grier to answer the charge at court.

Forty-one excursionists went from this place to Reading to-day to see the colored 'Old Fellers' again.

A boat wren was badly injured Tuesday afternoon by a fall received on the towpath at the outlet.

Yesterday was pay day at the St. Charles and Henry Clay furnaces. Its effect was felt by the merchants last evening.

Mr. F. S. Hoover was yesterday with Almerley's in this part of the county. He expects to exhibit it at the York county fair.

A club is being organized by a number of young men. It will be called a 'Reading Club.' No club room has been secured yet.

Mr. C. C. Kaufman has just taken out insurance papers on the Keely store works building for Bachman & Ferry, builders of the works.

One of Hedecoker's teams ran into a wagon owned by Mrs. Nelson Williams, a colored woman, this morning, and tore off a wheel. The accident occurred in front of Bennett's store, on Locust street.

A horse became frightened at a bicyclist's performance in Wrightsville, yesterday, and jumped down an embankment. The wagon was broken to splinters, but, strange to say, the horse was but little injured.

Lewis Hanson, a canal boatman, had his arm badly fractured yesterday afternoon, while pulling on a flat line, that, after a short time, broke, and the wagon was precipitated to the ground. Strange to say, he received but few bruises.

Robert Irvin fell from a thirty foot ladder last evening, while cleaning the spouting of his residence. The ladder broke into three pieces at his feet, and he was precipitated to the ground. Strange to say, he received but a few bruises.

A serious accident has occurred to Miss Maggie Hughes, who returned to her home near Christiansa on Monday, after a visit to relatives here. She was being driven from the railroad station to her home, the horse ran off. Miss Hughes was thrown from the buggy and received serious injuries.

A drunken tramp was dragged from the R. & C. railroad crossing yesterday afternoon to the Centinella hotel, a distance of upwards of a block, while attempting to jump a Pennsylvania railroad freight train. The great wonder is that he was not killed, as his legs dragged along the rails and touched the wheels. He was finally rescued from his dangerous position.

Won the Prize. The Rev. B. Leighton, editor of the Child's Treasury, a semi-monthly paper published by the Reformed church publication board of Pennsylvania, has awarded the prize for the best printed letter to Oscar M. Lowrie, a 3 year old son of Mr. Henry Lowrie, of this place. The letter was printed in Roman capitals. The prize is a handsome book called 'Baby Wags.'

A young man who is in the habit of getting drunk and being disorderly while in that condition, was arrested by the Squire Young yesterday afternoon on Fourth street, last evening. Jim was roughly handled. This morning he regained his self-respect by punning his late victor.

Mrs. George W. Haldean has returned from Philadelphia. Mrs. Edward Brady, on Front street, is entertaining Mrs. John Bonner, of Baltimore.

Miss Fannie Martin, of Harrisburg, is a guest of friends on Walnut street.

Mr. Robert B. Risk, of the editorial staff of the Lancaster Examiner, was in town last evening.

Miss Lavinia Kaferty, who has been the guest of the Misses Annie and May Carter, returned to her home in Philadelphia yesterday afternoon.

Mr. George W. Haldean entertained a number of his friends at his residence on Walnut street last evening. The occasion was a delightful one to all present.

Another pleasant social was held at the residence of Mr. Charles Liphart, on Walnut street, last evening. It was given in honor of the guests with a number of well rendered selections.

Nominated for the Legislature. Mr. Edward McGovern, who was yesterday nominated for the Legislature by the Democrats of Bradford county, is a young gentleman of ability and popularity. He is certain to poll more than his party vote. He is a frequent and favorite visitor to this city, where his many friends observe with pleasure this token of the esteem and regard in which he is held by the Democracy of his home county. The notice is a son of John McGovern, esq., of Overton, whose daughter is the wife of Peter McConey, esq., of this city.

Safe. This afternoon a horse attached to Groff & Westheffer's business wagon, was in charge of the youngest son of P. W. Gorch, ran off. The boy fell forward upon the shafts and managed to keep from being run over by holding to the harness.

The driver was running furiously down North Queen street, when the boy ran out and seized it by the head, stopping it and rescuing the boy from his perilous position.

Sale of Horses. Samuel Hoes & Co., auctioneers, sold on Monday, for Grossman & Co., the Merrimac horse, 17 head of Canada horses at an average price of $217.50.

Some Fun. The Humane association advertises some novel features for their picnic tomorrow, including a bag race, hog chase and dancing contest.

Amusements. 'Key Solomon.'—Those people who witness Mr. Curtis' 'Swirl of Fovon', last seen in the city, will find the play in which Mr. Frank Bush, the famous delineator, is to appear on Friday evening next at Fulton opera house. The piece was written for Mr. Bush, and with reference to his peculiar line of talent, which he has witnessed in his specialties. The company is said to be a good one, being under the management of H. B. Mann, formerly of Mann's opera company, who played at the theatre, and who is the father of the play that is to be given here on Saturday night. It is constructed of good materials and based upon an interesting plot.

Mayor's Court. The mayor had but a single disorderly attend to this morning, and was discharged on payment of costs.

MARKET.

The News From Around Georgetown.

Miss Maggie Hughes was severely injured on Sunday, the 9th inst., by jumping from a wagon. The horse she was driving took fright and began to back.

The M. E. Sunday school celebration came off on Saturday the 9th and was well attended. The festival will not end the school about $50.

Mr. W. Hoy, of Sadsbury township, has grown a cucumber of a long green variety with no political affiliation, that carries ten or twelve long, thin, pointed spines; Length from butt to stem over outside, 17 1/2 inches; length directly through, 15 1/2; girth at thickest part 1 3/4; weight, 4 lbs.

E. P. Moore has a curiosity of another kind—a pepper, one side of which has dried in the form of a perfect face; the eyes, nose and mouth being plainly seen, and it looks like Don—kind of sourd you know, and pepperish. We believe it is Beaver's side of the pepper that is dried up, the resemblance to Don, indicating the cause of its drying up.

The hail storm of Friday night very nicely missed the immediate vicinity of Georgetown and almost missed the township. A few lots, however, in the southern and eastern sections were somewhat damaged. The wind on Sunday night, the 10th, and Monday the 11th, tossed it around, but did no permanent damage.

Mr. Charles Heston, formerly of the Gap, now telegraph operator in New York city, and Miss Edith Denney, daughter of Mr. S. Denney, esq., of Strasburg, were married at the residence of the groom's mother, on Monday evening last, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. W. L. Ledwith. After spending a pleasant evening among their friends, the couple left for Philadelphia, the 9:30 p. m. o'clock train for Philadelphia, where they will spend some time there they will go to New York where they will make their home. We heartily congratulate them, and hope this union will be a blessing and a joy.

A settled rain commenced falling Monday afternoon, continued all day and night, and at the time of writing is gradually falling. Considerable corn in this neighborhood has been badly beaten down by the rain. The streams are very high, overflowing their banks in many places.

Mrs. Jos. D. Hannon has four trophy tomatoes that weigh eleven pounds. These beat Joseph Baker's in weight.

Mr. Alfred Sanford is suffering from malaria fever.

WOLSELEY'S VICTORY.

TEL-EL-KEBIR TAKEN WITH A RUSH. The British Fleet an Early Morning Attack on Arab's Entrenchments. The Egyptian Fleet and British Fleet.

ALEXANDRIA, Sept. 13.—The khedive has received a telegram saying the British attack on Tel-El-Kebir commenced at half past 4 o'clock this morning.

LONDON, Sept. 13.—Despatches from Alexandria say that Tel-El-Kebir was carried this morning, the British capturing forty guns and a large number of prisoners. Arabi's force appears to be quite broken up and demoralized, and is flying toward the desert with cavalry in pursuit.

Two Thousand Egyptian Slaves. The Exchange telegraph company has received the following:

KASSASIN, Sept. 13.—At the capture of Tel-El-Kebir the Egyptian loss is estimated at 2,000 men. Our loss is probably 200, including many officers. The Highland brigade bore the brunt of the action.

The British Attack. Router's telegram company has the following: KASSASIN, Sept. 13, 5:30 a. m.—The attack on Tel-El-Kebir began at 4:45 o'clock this morning. The main attack was directed against the enemy's extreme left flank, four miles north of the railway.

The heavy artillery and infantry fire is now proceeding. The British troops are advancing rapidly and are evidently nearing the enemy's flank. The British armored train with the 40 pounder Krupp gun, which was captured at Kassasin, in the gathings has just come into action.

The fire of the enemy opposite the extreme right of the British is nearly silenced. Captured by a Rush.

A dispatch to the Central News says, the Egyptians opened fire upon the British within about a mile of Tel-El-Kebir. The place appears to have been finally captured by a rush. The Indian cavalry are hotly pursuing the fugitives on the south and the British cavalry on the north of the canal.

Another dispatch from the same correspondent dated Kassasin 10:38 a. m., says the enemy killed alone amount to 2,000. The retreat of the enemy on the north is cut off. The cavalry are still pursuing.

The Times in a second edition has the following: ISMAILIA, Sept. 13.—Tel-El-Kebir was carried this morning with a rush. The first shot was fired at 5 o'clock. The position was taken in twenty minutes; we have surprised the enemy by a night march. The enemy are in full retreat.

Joining at the British Victory. ALEXANDRIA, Sept. 13.—The taking of Tel-El-Kebir causes great joy here. An extensive demonstration is organizing for to night. The Italians and Greeks have taken a large number of persons of all nationalities will participate.

The Place Taken in Twenty Minutes. Gen. Wood has received a dispatch from Gen. Wolsey, stating that Tel-El-Kebir was captured after twenty minutes as a result. Three thousand prisoners were taken. The enemy are flying and the night army are pursuing them.

The sea into Lake Maroutis has been completed and the water is spreading rapidly. European Property at Zizig to be Burned.

ALEXANDRIA, Sept. 13.—According to news received from Zizig orders have been given to burn all property belonging to Europeans in the event of the defeat of Arabi.

Arabi Escapes on Horseback. LONDON, Sept. 13.—Gen. Wolsey telegraphs that Arabi has escaped on horseback to Zagazig. Gen. Wolsey's official report by telegraph to the war office fully confirms the report of the battle, and its results previously telegraphed.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS. Little Finesse from the Electric Wires.

Dutch Oren won the St. Leger stakes in England to-day.

Charles Hicks shot and killed James Trinite at Crafton, Mich. Jealousy.

Returns from 355 towns in Maine make Robie's plurality 9,744.

The board of directors of the Pennsylvania railroad company to-day, accepted the resignation of First Vice-President A. J. Cassatt, and General Freight Agent J. M. Creighton. A number of official changes were confirmed.

Dr. D. S. Lamb files a bill for $1,000 for holding the autopsy on Garfield at Ellipton.

The state convention of colored Old Fellows at Reading, adjourned to-day.

Among the officers chosen was Wm. M. Stafford, of Marietta, secretary.

John R. Mortimer, treasurer, of Long Island City, committed suicide.

In the criminal court at Washington, Judge Wylie to-day increased the bail bond of Vaile, one of the Star Route defendants, from $1,000 to $10,000, and heard arguments for the release of Ameer and Berdell, pending a new trial.

Dr. Norvin Gen announces his intended resignation of the Western Union presidency.

A Boston special to an evening paper says, on the authority of a reliable source, that the Boston Post reports that Gov. Samuel D. Jencks is dangerously ill with softening of the brain.

Charges Against Election Supervisors. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 13.—Warrants were issued to-day for the arrest of Frank Johnson and Edward Doneragon, the United States supervisors of the first division of the Fourth ward, charging them with illegally registering voters. It is claimed that this is the largest part of a scheme for widespread fraud at the approaching election. The accused have not yet been captured.

Edward R. Worrell Dies. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 13.—Edward R. Worrell, the well-known lawyer, died suddenly at Eighth street and Girard avenue this morning. He was twice a candidate for city controller.

WEATHER INDICATIONS. WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 13.—For the Middle Atlantic States fair weather, variable winds, shifting to warmer, southerly stationary or lower barometer.
