Columbia Fire Company's Picute.

The picnic of the Columbia fire com-pany in Heise's woods yesterday, was not a success financially. Pay day on the Pennsylvania railroad should have been yesterday. The pay car did not arrive, and the boys did not go to the picnic. Everything passed off pleasantly and quietly.

Mr. Slade, of this committee, made the following report : That the roof of the institute had been repaired, and the walls and ceitings of that building damaged by the late heavy rains attended to. Two rooms had been whitewashed; two of the recitation rooms and two rooms of the house occupied by the principal of the grammar school, also the stairway and hall leading to the high school had beer repapered, and all the blackboards in the institute had been repaired with silicate of slate. Other minor improvements had also been made upon and about the institute, one of them being the repair of fences. A moveable blackboard had been placed in the grammer school for the use of the drawing class.

A number of repairs had also been made in Cherry street school building. Priucipal among them being: the repair of the roof and tin spouting along the edge of it and leading to the ground. The entire building had been thoroughly cleaned. Everything is in excellent condition except a few blackboards which will be repaired. The room over the Vigilant engine house was thoroughly cleaned, and 32 desks from the Keystone furnishing company placed in it. Also a small table for the use of the teacher. Blackboards formerly used in the Fifth street school have been put in place for the use of the pupils. The committee recommended to tho school board that a self-feeding stove be placed in the room; also a chart like those used in primary schools. The appointment of a janitor is also asked.

Bills incurred by the above committee to the amount of $276.56 were ordered to be paid. The salary of the janitor of the Second street school was fixed at $1 per month. Thh different recommendations made by this committee were approved by the board. The purchase of a number of books for the use of indigent children was authorized by the board.

The Kellogg theteric was adopted by the board for use in the high school, on request of Superintendent Ames. An application for the discharge of Eisenberger from the Mt. Joy Soldiers' Orphan school was laid upon the table.

The school board then adjourned. A Cruel Hoax. We yesterday copied from the York Daily, a Baltimore telegram announcing the suicide of John Boner, of York. The Daily of to-day thus explodes the story : "The return of Mr. John Boner from Baltimore on the 1:05 train yesterday afternoon, in good health and spirits, was a welcome surprise to his friends, who entertained no thought that the telegram to the Daily on Wednesday night was a cruel practical joke or the work of a malicious scoundrel. From Mr. Boner it is learned that no disagreement exists between himself and the lady referred to. The author of the telegram is as yet unknown, but efforts are being made to discover his indentity, and from what has already been learned it is probably that in a short time the mystery will be unraveled. It is needless to say that we regret the hoax was perpetrated and that we rejoice in Mr. Bone r's safe and an immense crowd is expected to-day.

Col. Bodine says the kind of wind prevailing to-day will make it awkward at the outset for either team to make fine scores, but when his team gets well in the targets he feels confident that his men will give an excellent account of themselves. Among the prominent visitors at the range to-day are General Hancock and several of his staff, Judge Gilderaleeve and Judge Stanton.

The first shot at the 800 yards range was fired by Parry of the British team, at 12:48 o'clock. He scored a centre. Hinds shot first for the Americans, but failed to score. The American team are shooting badly. Hinds making another miss. Dolan scoring but 2 and Ogden 2. On his third shot Hinds secured the elevation and scored a bull's eye.
