Between 3 and 4 o'clock he made his way up to the Lemon street crossing, at which point he attempted to board a western bound freight train. In doing so he fell. The "flanges " of two car wheels passed over one of his feet tearing the skin and mangling the flesh in a terrible manner, but breaking no bones. The men on that train knew nothing of the accident, but Sanders was found by auother which eaves King street at 7:30 a. m. followed. The following members were present : Rev. J. A. Peters, pastor of the 1st Reformed ; Rev. J. B. Shumaker, D. D. pastor of St. Paul's Reformed ; Rev. J. Y. Mitchell, D. D., pastor of Presbyte-rian; Rev. M. C. Robinson, pastor of Duke street Methodist; Rev. J. C. Hume, of Presbyterian mission; Rev. J. Max Hark, pastor of Moravian; Rev. Rev. J. Max Hark occupied the chair, and Rev. S. Stall acted as secretary.

Rev. Stall called the attention of the association to the fact that he and others had been visited by a friend of the Indiau training school at Carlisle, who had suggested that if a meeting of the pupils of be training school could be held in one of the Lancaster churches it would do much good by bringing before the people the work which has already been doue in Indian education.

An informal discussion followed in which nearly every one present took part and all favored the holding of such a meeting. The education and civilization of the indian was regarded as the only solution of the Indian problem; and that this could be successfully accomplished had been to a great extent demonstrated by the success

" The World To Night."-This evening the spectacular play entitled "The World" will e presented at the opera house by J. Z. Little's large company. This is an excellent piece, and last week it was played in Philadelphia to very large audiences. The party arrived here yesterday afternoon and are dopping at several hotels in the city. They brought with them enough scenery to fill the stage and but little of that used nightly at the tery. opera house will be seen. The management of the company state that that they will not stop at but one one night stands during the esson for the reason that it is impossible to get up the whole of their scenery so as to give

Alfred Rogers, the defaulting transfer clerk of the insurance company of North America, had been arrested and held in $25,000 bail for a hearing to-morrow.

He is a married man about 40 years old. It seems that he defrauded the company by raising certificates of stock after they had been issued and then borrowing money on them. He says the proceeds were absorbed by speculations in mining stocks. The defaulter had been seventeen years in the employ of the company and was impligitly trusted.
