gencer's Reporter Howard Smoker, residing on 3d street.

is lying seriously ill. Mr. Will Herr, jeweller, has just placed in position in his store, a 3,400 pound safe. A little son of Mr. Andrew Shellenberger, residing near Columbia, had his collar bone broken yesterday, by a fall. The beautiful opera of "Olivette" will be presented in the opera house to-morrow night. A number of reserved seats have been already secured.

A ten dollar bill was lost at market this morning, by a storckeeper. The finder will be rewarded by leaving it with the market master, Officer Strawbridge.

The musical society, to which references has already been made, will meet to organize this evening at the residence of Mrs. John Fendrich.

A horse belonging to Mr. George Red-secker broke loose from his stable last evening and was captured after a lively chase on Locust street.

A large party was given last night by Miss Alice, daughter of Mr. Harvey Mc Fadden, residing on Waluut street. Daucing was one of the features of this pleasant occasion.

William L. Smedley appeared before 'Squire Young last evening to answer the charge, preferred by his wife, of uon-maintenance. He was held under bonds to provide for her.

A Sheep Carrying Its Own Provisions A sheep was sent to Hancock, Ind., this morning, and on a card bearing the ad-dress of the person to whom it is sent. was the following inscription : "I have oats, please feed me." A small bag of oats was attached to the box coutaining the animal.

A Good Days Walk.

Forty miles a day is good walking for a healby man, but when a man who has been ill does it, it shows endurance and contempt for fatigue. Mr. W. T. Conner has performed this feat, after getting up from a sick bed but a couple days before doing it.

The Town Very Bull.

Most of the summer visitors here, hav ing taken their departure, leaves the town rather dull, socially. The fishing season being about ended is another cause of dullness, for parties from different places made Columbia their headquarters and thus gave additional life to the town. The sleighing season must not be expect-antly looked forward to by Columbians.

A Colored Man Hurt.

Jacob Holland, colored, an employee in Mr. H. F. Bruner's coal yards, was struck on the head yesterday morning by a large lump of coal, which fell from one of the large hoisting buckets. His head received the first blow, and was badly cut. The coal then crashed on his hand, mashing it completely.

Local Personals.

Miss Fanuie Pierce left for Urbana, O., yesterday, on a visit to relatives. C. S. Nesbitt, of Port Deposit, is the guest of Will Feudrich. William McDevitt, of Fairview, Pa, is visiting his family on Walnut street. R. W. Graybill, who has been visiting his brother, Lioutenant Harry Graybill,

Nerthus Accident to a Brakeman Henry Rote, between 22 and 23 years of SNUDGRASS, MURRAY & CU. age, who resides on west Walnut street this city, and is employed as a brakeman on engine No. 174 of the Pennsylvania railroad, met with what might have been a fatal accident this afternoon. He was dropping a gondola car loaded with long lumber, and as the brake was not in good order he was unable to hold the car which order he was unable te hold the car which ran against a box car. Young Rote had his head caught between the lumber and box car and he was terribly out in different parts of the head and face and bled profusely. He was knocked from the car by the accident, but was not run over. He was brought to this city, and removed to his residence. Dr. M. L. Davis was sent for to attend him. It is not known as yet how serious his injuries may prove to be.

Brakeman Injured.

Aaron Mehaffey, a brakeman on the Pennsylvania railroad, was severely in-jured at Columbia last night about nine o'clock while engaged coupling cars. He was caught between the bumpers and his body was terribly squeezed, causing dan-gerous internal injuries, while his right arm was crushed from the wrist to the shoulder. He was brought to Lancaster this morning and conveyed to his home at West Willow He is a young married man and had been engaged on the road only a few weeks.

A Fretty Weather Vane. Workmen to-day placed upon the top if the spire of George B. Schaum's new building, South Queen street, a very large gilt weather vaue, 14 feet m length and bearing the name "Schaum" large capital letters. The rod upon which the vane is placed is 24 feet in length and s highly ornamented with sheet copper, which in turn is richly gilted, presenting a very beautiful appearance, and adding much to the fine building upon which it is placed.

Death at the Alumhouse.

Stephen John Hamilton, an inmate of ancaster county almshouss, died last evening in that institution. Deceased in former years was among the best known men in the lower end of the county. He was wealthy and quite prominent. For several years he resided in this city and finally got into the alms-

Mayor's Court. This morning the mayor had four cus-tomers before him, all of whom had been arrested for drunkenness. They were all flush and paid their costs. Three of them were also fined and they paid that.

THIRD EDITION. THURSDAY EVENING, SEPT. 21, 1882. NEW YORK DEMOCRATS. NO NOMINATION ATSYBACUSE TO-DAY. The Convention Adjourns Until To-morro After Appointing Several Committees and Arranging a Few Proliminaries. SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 21.-The Tam-many Hall men and the Irving Hall delegation held separate meetings this morn-ing and decided to ask for representation in the convention on the basis of a division of the delegates among the three wings of the party. The state convention was called to order at 12:15. Rufus W. Peckham was chosen at 12:15. Rufus W. Peckham was chosen temporary chairman, and upon taking the chair made a speech in which he charged that Folger's nominations by the Repub-licans yesterday was at the dictation of the national government, and was done because he is the representative of federal power and federal patronage. Mr. Lamont was made temporary secre-tary. During the roll call the names of David B. Hill, of Elmira, and Samuel J. Tilden, ir., were greeted with applause. Tilden, jr., were greeted with applause. The presentation of credentials of the three delegates from New York city creat ed quite a breze in the convention. They were referred to the committee on cre dentials, when appointed. On the completion of the roll-call a lengthy discussion was had upon the manner of selecting the committee on lengthy discussion was had upon the manner of selecting the committee on credentials, and after a somewhat animated debate a resolution offered by Mr. Jacobs, of Kings, was adopt-ed : "That a committee of ene from by Mr. Jacobs, of Kings, was adopt-ed: "That a committee of one from each congressional district be appointed by the chair on the nomination of the delegates from such districts to be a committee on credentials, to which all contests shall be referred without debate."

Another discussion then arose as to whether or not delegates whose scats were contested should participate in the deliberations of the convention, and Mr. Jacobs moved to modify his resolution to read that the sitting delegates from New York should not be represented on the committee. After further discussion the committee on resolutions favoring the abolishment of the labor contract system in prisons and penitentiaries. A commit
