"A LITTLE COMPANY."

Something to Interest Housewives and Entertainers. Chicken Soup, Baked Blue Fish, Sauce Hollandaise, Veal Rissole, Saddle of Mutton, with Jelly, Potatoes, Boiled Onions, Eggplant Stuffed, Chicken Salad, Chicken Crackers, Fruit Pudding, Vanilla Ice Cream.

Chicken Soup.—One old fowl, cut in quarters; four quarts of cold water, one onion, stuck with cloves; one tablespoonful of salt, half a teaspoonful of pepper. Put over the fowl, and skim carefully when the water begins to boil. Simmer slowly for two hours, or till tender; then take out the fowl and set aside to cool. Strain the broth and return it to the fire; add one teaspoonful of rice, which has been soaked two hours in a little cold water; boil half an hour, then add one tablespoonful of finely-cut parsley and two eggs stirred into a cup of hot milk. Let it barely come to boiling point again, and serve at once.

Baked Bluefish.—Lay the fish in a baking pan, having first scored it down the back, and pour over it a pint of boiling water in which one tablespoonful of butter has been melted. Bake one hour, basting often. Slide to fish platter and serve very hot.

Sauce Hollandaise.—Put in a saucepan a piece of butter the size of an egg, and as it melts add one tablespoonful of flour. Stir till smooth, and then add slowly half a pint of boiling water or of veal stock. As it boils stir in the yolks of four eggs. Add the juice of half a lemon and a teaspoonful of fresh butter. Serve at once.

Veal Rissole.—Chop cold veal very fine, allowing one cup of rissole. Put into a saucepan one tablespoonful of butter, and as it boils add a small onion, minced very fine. Fry two minutes, and stir in two tablespoonfuls of flour. Stir till smooth, and add one cup of stock. As it boils stir in the minced veal, half a teaspoonful of salt and a saltspoonful of pepper, with the juice of half a lemon. Take either puff paste or good pie-crust; roll quarter of an inch thick; cut with a biscuit-cutter; put a teaspoonful of the prepared veal on each; wet the edges with cold water and press together. Fry in boiling lard; drain on brown paper and serve hot on a napkin.

Saddle of Mutton.—This should have been kept not less than a week in the ice house, or, if in winter, in a cold place. Allow two hours to the pound in roasting, and treat as in directions for roast lamb in No. 16 of Our Continent.

Potatoes.—As in No. 1 of Our Continent.

Boiled Onions.—Boil fifteen minutes in one water, drain and add fresh, salting it and boiling ten minutes to the pound. One hour if young; one and a half if old. Drain; add a tablespoonful of butter; put on in little bits and a sprinkle of pepper and serve very hot.

Eggplant Stuffed.—Parboil fifteen minutes. Then make a fringed hole in the top; remove the piece and take out the seeds. Let it lie for an hour in water to which a tablespoonful of salt has been added. Make a stuffing of one cup of crumbs, two ounces of salt pork and an onion chopped fine; one teaspoonful of salt; half an ounce of pepper and of nutmeg mixed; wet with half a cup of boiling water or stock, and fill the eggplant, tying a string around it to keep the piece in place. Bake an hour, basting often with a spoonful of butter in a cup of water.

Snipe on Toast.—Dress and wipe them clean. The legs should be tied close to the body and the beaks under the wing. Lie a very thin slice of bacon around the breast of each bird and fry in boiling lard. Three minutes will be sufficient. Serve on thin slices of buttered toast, salting and peppering them lightly.

Chicken Salad.—Cut the meat of the chicken used for soup into small bits; pile in the center of a dish, arranging delicate lettuce about it, and mask with a Mayonnaise dressing, made as in No. 3 of Our Continent.

Fruit Pudding.—Three pints of milk, eight Boston crackers split and buttered, six eggs beaten light, two cups of sugar, one teaspoonful of salt, quarter of a nutmeg grated, half a teaspoonful of cinnamon, one pound of stoned raisins, quarter of a pound of currants. Boil the milk and then add sugar, eggs and flavoring. Butter a deep pudding dish, put in a layer of crackers and moisten with a little of the custard. Then add a layer of fruit and do this till all is in the dish. Pour over the rest of the custard and bake in a slow oven. Brown at the last and eat hot with or without sauce.

Vanilla Ice Cream.—One quart of rich milk, one quart of sweet cream, four cups of sugar, eight eggs, half a teaspoonful of salt, four teaspoonfuls of vanilla. Boil the milk, beat eggs and sugar together and add slowly until it barely begins to thicken. When cold add the cream and set on the ice.

By asking too much we may lose the little that we had better keep. Nothing but a fair trial. This given, it tears me up of faith in its value. I have been afflicted with kidney complaints. Two packages of Kidney-Water have done me more good than all the medicine and doctors I have had before. I believe it is a sure cure."

LANCASTER WATCHES. A BOLD CLAIM.

ARE, GRADE FOR GRADE, THE Best Watches in America.

"Keystone" Grade. Splendid Record "Although Subject to Rough Bicycle Riding."

Lancaster, Sept. 12, 1882. Gentlemen: Several months ago I bought a "Keystone" Watch, No. 24, 87, and it has given me entire satisfaction. It has kept accurate time, so accurate that I have not needed to adjust it. I compared it regularly with the time delivered by the W. U. Tel. Co. daily from Washington. At the end of twenty days its variation was only one-tenth of a second. It is a beautiful timepiece, and I can unhesitatingly pronounce it one of the best in the market. I do not desire anything better. Asks for its utility, the "Lancaster" movement is unequalled in beauty. JOSEPH E. BOWMAN.

The Lancaster Watches are SO CAREFULLY MADE THAT PROPER ADJUSTMENT INSURES PERFECT TIME, with proper care of the movements.
