TOBACCO.

THE LANCASTER MARKET REPORTS Crop of '80 in Demand-'81 being mpled and '82 Nearly all Housed.

The Foreign Markets. Had the weather continued good during the later part of the past week nearly all the crops would have been housed, but the rains of that part prevented farmers from cutting, and there is considerable yet to be taken in out of the cold. It looks pretty thin and a good deal of it will not be worth the putting away.

Farmers are still complaining of their tobacco sweating in the shed, and we have seen some little that was damaged. Sampling of the '81 crop is still going on, though a good deal is yet to be done.

Packers are jubilant over their drawn samples, and from what we have seen the coop seems very fine. There has been a very active demand for '80 fillers and low grades, but few packers will sell them out, although prices for that class are fair. There is considerable demand for '81 goods, and when dealers can buy at fair prices they are willing to invest, but they are not willing to pay fancy prices. They argue, and with a good deal of force, that prices must come down. The crops of '80 and '81 are still on hand and the crop of '82, which is a good deal larger than it was supposed to be is now pretty well housed. Even if there should be no tobacco grown for a year or two there would be no great famine in the market. While most pack-ers and cigar manufacturers acknowledge that there is no better flavored tobacco in the states than that grown in this county they say that the price, especially for wrappers, is too high. The rank growth of the weed in this county causes the leaves to be checkered with large veins, so that a great part of the crop purchased for wrappers has to be used for fillers, and a large part consists of heavy stems that are a total loss. Wisconsin tobacco, though of inferior quality, shows much less waste, and as it can be bought at a far less cost than Pennsylvania, manufacturers are to a great extent making use of it. Many intelligent dealers who smile at the scare attempted to be got up on account of Sumatra tobacco, profess to believe that ere many years Pennsylvania will find a damaging rival in Wisconsin. There good tobacco land is worth $40 or $50 per acre; here it is $200 or $300. There the farmers are well content with a profit of $100 per acre; here they want $300 or $400. The Wisconsin leaf being smaller has smaller veins and can be worked without waste, and is therefore more desirable for wrap-

is something in them is evidenced by the fact that for some time past there has been a very lively demand for Pennsylvania fillers, to the neglect of other goods.

Our farmer friends can ponder over the matter and govern themselves accordingly.

For the Week Ending Saturday, September 23, 10 A. M. U. S. Tobacco Journal. The reader will do well in believing one half of what we report to-day, as far as the number of sales is concerned. It has become almost a habit with parties interested to report their sales as having reached double the amount which they actually sold. Business in seed leaf is unhealthy. Everything is forced, strained and exaggerated. People want to sell, and like to hear of sales, and everywhere efforts are made to create a "boom," an excitement. A sale of four hundred cases of '81 Wisconsin, reported last week, now dwindles down to a sale of one hundred, with the refusal of the other three hundred. One sale of two hundred cases of New York state is reduced to one hundred, and one party alleged to have bought one hundred cases of '81 Pennsylvania is ready to sue for libel. From the list of sales below, the market this week will appear to have been very lively. It was not, when everything is reduced to fact. What do a few sales of a few hundred cases here and there amount to, with the enormous crop on hand, and Sumatra marching onward daily in greater strength than before?

What sells is fine, silky stock, not too large, not too light, and the common, low priced goods, for common, low priced cigars. Everything else is neglected. Pennsylvania of the '81 crop is dormant

'80 Pennsylvania takes it place. It sells for so much less than the '81. If packers of '81 Pennsylvania were willing to allow would-be-buyers to pick the fine, small, silky wrappers at reasonable figures, or at figures equivalent to those ruling for '81 Wisconsin and New York state Havana seed, sales would be effected. But this class of tobacco costs too much. The loss would be too heavy, and to lose, nebody is willing-not just now, at least. The sales of the week are reported as

Crop '81. Wisconsin-750 cases, 15 to 19 cents. Connecticut-500 cases, mostly Housatonic wrappers, 25 to 35 cents, Ohio—400 cases, 51 to 9 cents. Pennsylvania—200 cates, p. t.

Crop '80. Pennsylvania-450 cases, 10, 12, 14, 15 cents; wrappers, 20 to 35 cents. Ohio-700 cases, 4} to 7 cents; wrappera, 9 to 15 cents.

Havana-Market active. New ('82) is coming in quite lively, presenting fine quality and color. Sales old 400 bales; new, 300. Some of the latter was Vuelta Abajo, realizing 97 cents.

Sumatra—Market continues very active. Sales 500 bales. Fine dark goods are in great demand, and sell as high as $1.25. The quotations are : Small size, 85 to 95 cents; large size, but light, $1 to $1.05; medium size, dark, $1.10 to $1.25.

N. Y. Tobacco Leaf. We have another fairly active week to report in the seed leaf market, the sales amounting to 3,052 cases, against 3,644 the week previous. The turn for the bet ter that the crop of 1882 has recently taken should remind holders that it will be well in the end to pass goods along now whenever fair profits can be realized. The aggregate of the new crop will be reduced by the generally unfavorable season now closing, but it must be borne in mind that the planting, or acreage, was unusually large. Extreme prices cannot be expected excepted for very choice lots, of which, of course, there are fewer available than might well be wished.

Gans' Report.

Sales of seed leaf tobacco reported by J.'S. Gans' Son & Co., tobacco brokers, No. 131 Water street, New York, for the week ending September 25, 1882:

800 cases 1881 Wisconsin Havana seed 16@18c.; 550 cases 1881 New England, wrappers, 20@25c.; Housatonic assorted, 18 to 22c., 200 cases 1881 Pennsylvania, p. t.; 300 cases Pennsylvania, 10@29c.; 450 cases 1881 Ohio, 53@9c.; 618 cases 1880 Ohio, 44@12c. Total, 2,918 cases.

3 be Philadelphia Market. rs and packers foot up sales for the past week as excellent in every respect A large proportion of the sales have been confined to new goods, which have been confined to new goods, which seem to fill the bill in every respect; quality and quantity are of the first order. Some of our houses have so far done qon-siderable more in 1861 than they expected, but this is owing to first-class enterprise. O, that we had more of it!

son that stocks were never so generally good. Prices hold steady.

Receipts for the week-522 cases Conecticut, 710 cases Pennsylvania, 71 cases Ohio, 92 cases Wisconsin, 82 cases York State seed, 183 bales Havana, 462 hhds Virginia and Western leaf tobacco. Sales have been-32 cases Connecticut,

432 cases Pennsylvania, 51 cases Ohio, 71

cases Wisconsin, 28 cases York State seed, 87 bales Havana, and 104 hhds Virginia and Western in transit direct to manufacturers. Exported of leat tobacco to Liverpool, 10,819 lbs.

Messrs. Teller Bros., leaf packers, North Third street, Philadelphia, are far ahead this year in sales compared with last. Discrimination with them has told nicely. Gail, Ax & Kuchler, New York, have ourchased of Mr. Johnson, of Wisconsin, the packing consisting of 500 cases of Wisconsin Havana seed. N. Lachenbruck & Bro. sold about 300 cases Connecticut last week. C. H. Spitzner & Son were sellers of 300 cases of Wisconsin Havana seed a few Hay & Smith, of Philadelphia, have sold 300 cases state seed to S. Rossin & Son. of

New York. A cable from Holland says: Sumatra tobacco is steadily advancing in Holland, as the stock there is quite small. The last sale of the season took place on the 20th inst., when 15,000 bales were sold. The bidding was very animated, and prices ran very high. Another advance may shortly be expected in Sumatra to-

To Lancaster Watch Co.

Gentlemen: Several months ago I bought a "Keystone" Watch, No. 24,887. After getting it to close adjustment, I compared it regularly with the time delivered by the W. U. Tel. Co. daily from the Clock in the National Observatory at Washington. At the end of Twenty Days its variation was ONLY ONE-HALP SECOND Days its variation was only one-Halp second, by chronometer, from mean time of the Washington Observatory—which clock is never allowed to vary more than one-tenth of a second from absolute accuracy. At that time I unfortunately neglected to wind it, and thus lost continuous record. It has since been doing excellent work, atthough subjected daily to considerable rough bic cle riding, which is a severe test of its time-keeping and running qualities. This is not a "Special" Watch, but was taken directly from stock, as sent from the factory.
