the Republicau party will be invincible

But you say Cameron won't let you. Be a man for once-essert yourself. But you say Cameron is a large man. Why, you said not long ago that he was a small man; and you have never yet had the manhood to say that you are not for him-that you owe him nothing. Mr. Stewart concluded his address by declaring that the Democrats could not succeed-that there is no

Democratic party left except in Berks county and the Tenth Legion-and that it will be ground to powder by the Independents. There are 150,000 of them in 150.000 in a month, where will they be in November? Free thought, free speech, free men and pure government is what they are fighting for and under that banner they will triumph. Thomas Walters followed in a humorous address, and, although it was half-past 10 o'clock, the audience insisted on, hear-ing Col. McMichael, who spoke but briefly, promising that they should hear from him again during the campaign. He assured his hearers that in all parts of the state the Independents were enthusiastic; that there was a determination to throw off the yoke of the bosses ; that hence.

forth the people of Pennsylvania will rule

The meeting adjourned with three cheers and a tiger for Stewart and the whole Independent ticket.

The New Mailroad.

The Delaware, Phoenixville & Lancasforward rapidly until completed. The New York capitalists passed over the proper route on Wednesday. Davis Knauer, of Knauertown, has put in a bid Peter's P. O., crossing the French Creek falls, where a bridge 2,000 feet long and 60 feet high will be built. The chief engineer states that there was not a cut over 15 feet high along the entire line, and that the road would be completed in a very few months. It is said that President Roberts, of the Penneylvania railroad company, stated to a committee of gen-

Moravian historical society was held in the old building known as the Whitefield house, at Ephrata, on Wednesday. All the old officers were reelected to serve for the ensuing year. The vacancy in the board of managers caused by the death of Dr. Maurice C. Jones was filled by electing Joseph A. Rice, of Bethlehem. A number of papers were read, among them one by Professor Jacobson, of Nazareth, on the history of the society during the past quarter of a century. Numerous gifts and relics were donated the society by different members and friends of the organization.
