THE PRISON. Meeting of the Inspectors To-day.

The board of prison inspectors held their regular monthly meeting to-day and all members were present. Mr. Weaver, who was instructed to see the commissioners in regard to plastering the outside of the prison walls, reported that the commissioners were of the opinion that it would be the better plan to wait until spring so that the action on the plastoring inside might be tested.

the judgment against Ambrose Pownall, late treasurer of the board, and that judgment had been stricken off. The committee was discharged. Rev. John Swenk stated to the board that the benches in the corridor of the prison are unfit for use for citizens attending Sunday services. Mr. Rutter was in structed to procure eight new benches. Mr. Burkholder reported that Frederick Miller, night watchman, had been given leave of absence on Friday night and had not yet returned to service. Mr. Rutter moved that he be discharged for neglecting his duty. The motion was lost, as some of the members thought that Miller fellow said he had driven from Philadelshould be heard in his own defense. He was sent for.

THE NEW TRACK. A Portion of it Completed and in Use.

This morning for the first time that part of the new track of the Pennsylvania railroad near the Big Conestoga bridge was used by regular trains. The track heretofore used is permanently abandoned. The other portion of the new track, be tween the Big and Little Concstoga, is rapidly approaching completion and will soon be in use. The iron is laid from the Little Conestoga to Prince street, the ties for a still greater distance, the bridges all completed and the entire roadbed graded.
All through passenger and freight trains will run over the new road as soon as finished, thus affording additional facili ties to the railroad company and great re-lief to our crowded thoroughfares which are now so frequently blockaded by long trains of cars.

Mearing Continued.

Frank McDonald, a 16 year-old boy of this city, was taken before the judges this afternoon. It was charged by the mother when she made complaint against him before Alderman Samson that he was incorrigible and beyond her control. To-day she seemed anxious to again try her son, as he had promised to do better. The court gave him a reprimand and the case was continued.

Wednesday.

Mr. Hark yesterday announced from his pulpit that the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the commencement of Moravian foreign missions would be celebrated in his church on Sunday, Oct. 15. He was not prepared to announce the full programme, but could state—what was in itself enough to insure the success of the occasion-that besides prominent clergymen of the city who would participate, there would be from abroad men like the Rev. Philip Schaff, S. T. D., LL. D., of New York, probably the foremost theologian in this country ; the Rev. Richard Newton, D. D., of Philadelphia, the world-renowned preacher to young folks, and Bishop E. de Schweinitz, S. T. D., of Bethlehem, the historian of the church. The music for the give that neighborhood a wide birth on Saturday night. It is not considered a gramme will be published in due time.

writers. Has the stage given us overmuch in recent years comparable with that wonderfully pathetic picture of father and daughter in " Esmeralda ?" Unfortunately the stage is so much occupied with theatrical unreality. that it forgets, often enough, to be truthful and dramatic. The play at the Madison Square has elements of lasting strength. One might suppose it was written to illustrate the ideal nobility of human nature."

" The Merry War."-Mr. Chas. E. Ford's English opera company will on Wednesday evening produce for the first time in this city Johann Strauss' great operatic success of "The Merry War." The company sang it in the western cities during the summer, and the St. Louis Republican says: "The greatest success that has ever been scored at any of the summer garden theatres, since their inauguration in this city, stands to the credit of The Merry War," by the Ford opera company at the Garden theatre. It concluded its run of two weeks las: evening to a fine at-tendance, and the business of "The Merry War" season has been extraordinary through-and been confined to the house for a Mille. Rhea. - The distinguished French actress, M'ile. Rhea, whose brief engagement in this country last season created such a furore in critical dramatic circles and won her the unstinted applause of all who saw her, has returned to the United States for a more prolonged stay and the people of Lancaster will learn with pleasure that she is to be at Fulton leaves a wife and a son about 14 years of opera house on Saturday evening in the beautitul play of "Ingomar." M'lle. Rhea has by many enthusiastic admirers been pronounced the peer of Bernhardt and a newspaper says of her: "The judgment of the most compe tent critics point unmistakably to a career for M'lle. Rhea in the United States, equalling, it it does not surpass, the experiences of that brilliant actress, Adetaide Nellson. Her art litts the character of Camille up : does for it what neither Bernpardt or Modjeska could make of it-a woman of noble instincts."

The Fieldings.-The Fieldings combination, a strong company of dramatic and specialty people, will appear in this city to-morrow night. The company is beaded by John and Maggie Fielding, and it include: Reynolds and Frew, character actors, Keating and Flinn, song and dance men, Winstanley Brothers, musical artists, Madge Aiston, serio-comic, and a number of others. The whole troupe will be seen in their play entitled "Fals Friendship." They come under the manage ment of Hartmyer & Daily.
