The News Around Georgetown. A son of Thomas Williams, jr., had his leg broken on Friday afternoon, the 26th inst., by being kicked by a cow. Only a short time before the same boy nearly cut his toe off with an axe. He is about 5 years of age.

B. F. Reed brought to the postoffice: corn stalk about 51 feet long, upon which at every joint spur roots have put out from 1 to 4 inches in length. In the 5 feet of stalk 13 joints have sprouted.

Mr. R. H. Engle has been in our neighborhood for the past two weeks taking photographic views of residences and landscapes. Mr. Engle is a clerk for the firm of Tatham & Co., of Philadelphia, and spends his leisure time in this way. He is also somewhat of an assayer, and served an apprenticeship in North Carolina at the type case. He is the son of J. F. Engle, of the firm of Engle & Furling, who conducted the general merchandise business in Georgetown some fourteen

Mr. Rudy Phenegar, formerly of this neighborhood, now of Columbus, Ohio, has been on a visit to relatives and friends here. The nickel furnaces closed out work on the 3d inst., and several more men are unemployed, but the work on the P. R. R. at Gap will no doubt give employment to as many of them as choose to avail themselves of the opportunity. Quite a number of those who were thrown out of work by the closing of the mines, are now at work at that place. A slight frost was visible on Saturday morning last. Tobacco is all housed and many farmers have their grain sown. Not much corn is yet cut. Martin & Fritz have had their 1880 tobacco sampled. Political matters are very quiet. Every one is looking forward to the day that Beaver will visit Bart to tell them all
