EANCASTER BARRY TYTELLIGELY THE WEINGEANY, OF TOURIST BEEN

Corrupt Solicitation.

We have information from a respectable ource that four honorably discharged oldiers, who since their discharge from the service have received injuries on the Pennsylvania railroad, have been promised by prominent Republicans, on condition they vote for Beaver, that they shall receive pensions from the United States government. Of course the persons ergaged in this attempted bribery have no power to make good their promise, but it may be well enough to call their attention and that of their dupes to the fact that they stand a fair chance of bringing up in the penitentiary if they do not at once abandon the attempted bribery and Ministers to Attend the Missionary Jubilee. At a meeting of the ministerial association on Monday last, Rev. J. Max Hark invited all the clergy of the city to attend the jubilee celebration of the Moravian foreign missions next Sunday in the Moravian church. The invitation was unanimously accepted and it was resolved to at tend the meeting in a body. All resident clergyman are therefore invited to assemble at the Moravian parsonage before 2:30 p. m., at which bour the afternon service will commence.

Held Over. This afternoon Susan Kieffer, aged 16 years, daughter of J. Kieffer, Middle street, was taken before the judges in a House of Refuge case on complaint of the father. The father and a number of other witnesses testified to the bad character of the girl. She goes away from home, remains out late, keeps bad company, and uses languge. She has just finished a 30 day term in prison for disorderly conduct, and her father cannot control her at all. The case was held under consideration by the judges.

The Stand Pipe. The stand pipe in the western city reservoir has been completed by Contractor Best, and water was pumped into it for the first time yesterday. It is connected with the 12 inch main, and is intended to supply water to those portions of the city the grade of which is too high to be properly supplied even when the reservoirs are full. It is said that the water now flows into the second and third stories of houses on the highest part of East King street.

Rev. Dr. Morgan Dead. The Rev. Richard U. Morgan, D. D., a former rector of Christ church, Reading, died on Monday, 9th inst., in the 83d year of his age, at his residence in Stamford, Conn. He was the founder of the Reading Benevolent society, and was well known in this county, having officiated here in a ministerial capacity nearly fifty and bright and early to-morrow morning the great canvas will be spread in this city. This is the greatest show ever put out, and its daily expenses are $1,000. Over $3,000,000 is represented in the enterprise, which is run by three of the best showmen in the world. The New York Tribnne says this of the show :

"After the 'grand entre' in the afternoon Jumbo marched around the circle, and to the music of the band, the great elphant Queen was led into the central ring, while between her forelegs demurely trotted little Bridgeport. The latter was hailed with great applause. After that for three hours the rings were the scenes of a varied entertainment, Imported Trakencand Ukraine trick stallions pironetted on their hind legs, while a troupe of trained Trakenc and Ukraine trick stalllons pironetted on their hind legs, while a troupe of trained dogs went through a tragedy performance. Two little donkeys and a clown drew peals of laughter from the children, to whom his jokes and funny sayings were new. Then came some grotesque dancing and high kicking by three persons who seemed totally devoid of spinal columns. Next Mme. Zazel, clast in pink tights, after walking the invisible high wire, was hoisted by the neck to a beam and took the terrific headlong dive, landing in a net, whence she looked down at the andience, smiling and kissing her hand. Then with a shrill cry, which echoed through a report that shook the building, she was fired from a monster cannon, but luckily landed again in the netting.

To-night's Show .- The Lillie Hail mammoth burlesque and specialty company, which ap pears at the opera house to-night, is described as a thoroughly first-class, refined variety troupe. It opened with this company at Norristown, on Monday, October 2, to a large audience, where it was universally conceded to be the very best variety performance ever given in that town. This verdict has been austained throughout the entire circuit. Ninch Ward Club.

The Ninth Ward Club will meet at Hans' saloon, North Queen street, Friday evening, at 8 o'clock.

MR. BEECHER SECEDES. The Plymouth Pastor R. Jects Congregation al Doctrines

The Congregationalists, if not the rest of the religious world, have a genuine sensation in the formal withdrawal of Rev. Henry Ward Beecher from the Congregational body. At the regular autumn neeting of what is known as the "Congregational association" (composed of Brooklyn and New York churches), in the Park Congregational church, corner of Sixth avenue and Seventh street, Brooklyn, the reverend gentleman delivered an elaborate address, lasting some two hours or more, setting forth his reasons for dif-fering with the churches represented there in matters of faith, and closing by stating that he had resolved to withdraw from the

Mr. Beecher rejected the representations of future punishment which were gross and physical and were made from the sensuous Roman school. He believed in future punishment. He believed that a wholesome and restraining influence of that doctrine had been very largely deand diabolical representation hell and the sufferings of those subjected to it. Suffering, he held, would not be bodily, but mentally, according to the laws of moral sensibility of all the affections; not a machine of sulphur and fire, a deluge of devils and all manner of annoyance epitomized and represented in the art of Angelo's "Last Judgment," and represented more abominably and inexcusably by Cornelius and the German school. That was barbaric. He regarded Warehouse! 233 North Shippen St., Lanc., Pa.
