

BEAVER AT QUARRYVILLE

His Reception There a Disastrous Failure. For some time hand bills have been up, announcing that Gen. Beaver would be at Quarryville on Wednesday, Oct. 10, for an hour before his start for the meeting at Fairmount, and it was expected that the citizens of the lower end would turn out to do honor to the one-legged soldier, and the Stalwarts would at least give him a cordial welcome as their candidate for governor, but such was not the case. After a hard struggle, money enough was raised by them to pay the hand to turn out, and with its aid not over forty persons, all told, were on hand when the train arrived at Quarryville, when it was to be expected that a large portion would demonstrate to greet a soldier, even if he is a political foe, and several of the Independents called on him to pay their respects. To take the reception upon the whole, it was the worst failure ever seen in Quarryville, when it is a well known fact that it is a good place to get up a crowd. About the truth of it is that there is no enthusiasm among the people of the lower end of this county for the election of the Stalwart ticket, and are informed by a prominent Stalwart that the meetings being held in various parts of the county are only being held at such places where the d—d Independents, kickers and soreheads are showing their hands. This demonstration in the lower end was a strike terror to them, but it was a failure in that like. It will take more than this to put up the old-fashioned way of this fall.

From Quarryville not a dozen besides the band acted as escort to the party consisting of General Beaver, Col. Davies, Col. Greer, Major Kirk, Major Reibohm, Tom Cochran, clerk of the state senate, Chairman A. Shank, Capt. W. D. Stauffer, ex-mayor, ex-candidate for Legislature. No speeches were made at Quarryville owing to the meagre crowd. On our first page to-day is published an account of General Beaver's visit to Little Britain township.

Alleged Train Robbers Arrested. Some time previous to last October, articles were missing from a train leaving Mill Creek station on the Pennsylvania railroad, and effort has ever since been made to ferret out the guilty parties. In October last a train was entered by breaking the lock, and boxes of boots and shoes, a keg of beer, a box of matches, &c., were taken. Organized search for the goods was made by Policemen Pyle and Gilbert, of the P. R. R., and they were discovered in Given's woods. A week ago last Monday, Abraham Groff was arrested on suspicion, and held by Alderman M. C. Montgomery in $1,000 bail on the charge of felonious entry, which was promptly furnished. Since that time Daniel Bernheiser, of Bearville, John Muckle, Daniel Miller and A. L. Rudy have been arrested on suspicion of being concerned in the robbery. They have all been held in $500 bail for a hearing, Bernheiser and Muckle furnishing the required amount, and Miller and Rudy were committed in default of the required amount.

Meeting of the Washington Fire Company. Last evening the people of the north end were somewhat startled by the ringing of the bell of the Washington fire company, it having not rung since the reorganization of the fire department. The matter was soon explained—the bell was rung to summon members of the company to a meeting called to take action on a communication received from the Washington fire company of Coatesville, requesting the Washington of Lancaster to loan them their hose carriage for use in the Bi-Centennial parade in Philadelphia. The request was granted, and the carriage will be shipped to them at an early day.

St. Mary's Festival. The festival gotten up by the sodality of St. Mary's church, for the benefit of the school, was opened in the school building adjoining the church last evening and will be continued every evening during the week. The rooms in which the festival is held have been tastefully decorated with pink and white tulle, evergreens and flowers, and the tables are filled with choice cakes, confections, fruits, icecreams, &c. One of the rooms is devoted entirely to tin goods and is in charge of Misses Jennie Boylo and Lizzie Sheaff. There is no charge for admission.

Sale of Real Estate. Henry Schubert, auctioneer and real estate agent, sold at public sale last evening at the Cooper house, for Walter M. Franklin, esq., attorney for Dr. John Hammel, the following property: No. 1. A two story brick dwelling house with mansard roof, situated on the west side of North Duke street, No. 438, to John D. Skiles for $9,000. No. 2. A three story brick dwelling house, situated on the east side of South Prince street, No. 33, to J. A. Burger, for $2,650.

Thrown from a Wagon. About 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon as Wm. McCall, of Hickory Grove, was driving on North Queen street, he was thrown from his wagon and fell heavily upon the Belgian pavement, sustaining severe cuts and bruises. He was carried into the yard in rear of Hartman's cigar store and attended by a surgeon and afterwards taken to a hotel.

Shipping Tons for a Contract. Hugh Kehoe, contractor, shipped to Litzitz this afternoon, a lot of tools being back to building the Litzitz and Brickerville turnpike. When completed it will be five miles in length. Mr. Kehoe has the contract as far as Brubaker's mills, 21 miles, being all that portion of the road which is to be built this winter.

Sale of Horses. Samuel Hess & Son, auctioneers, sold at public sale on Tuesday, October 10th, 1882, for Jacob S. Fisher, his sale and exchange stables, Petersburg, Lancaster county, Pa., 15 head of Ohio horses, at an average price of $187 per head.

Several Notices. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup relieved four of my children of a most alarming attack of Whooping Cough from which their throats and necks became so swollen as to prevent them from swallowing. Nothing would give them even temporary relief until they had taken one bottle, in one night, saved their lives, I verily believe.

THIRD EDITION. THURSDAY EVENING, OCT. 12, 1882. PATTISON'S TOUR. A GRAND OVATION ALONG THE LINE. How the Democratic Candidate was Met by the Sturdy Laborers of the Coal Region—Words of Good Cheer. Special Dispatch to the INTELLIGENCER.

HAZELTON, Pa., Oct. 12.—Controller Pattison's journey to this place has been a series of ovations. At all points along the line the people were assembled to pay their compliments to the coming governor. At March Chunk, the first stop of sufficient length to admit of intercourse with the people at the station, an immense crowd was assembled. Judge Packer, Senator Craig and other leading citizens were among the mass of people. Senator Craig introduced the candidate, who made a brief and happy address, which was received with unbounded enthusiasm. At the conclusion of his remarks he stepped upon the platform and for the few moments remaining of the stay, and received the hundreds of people by hand-shaking. The next stop was at Weatherly, which is in a measure the centre of the coal shipping industry. Hundreds of sturdy citizens, who had left their work for the purpose, greeted him. Judge Broadhead presented him from the rear platform and he spoke a few words of encouragement and congratulation. Wm. H. Sowden, of Allentown, followed. At this place an immense crowd was assembled. Senator Cox and others met the parties at the station and conducted them to the Central hotel. If indications are not deceptive Luzerne county is awake to the issue, and will give an excellent account for the Democratic stewardship.

ARTHUR IN THE EAST. He Visits the Home of Daniel Webster. BOSTON, Oct. 12.—A large and enthusiastic crowd witnessed the president's departure from the Old Colony depot for Marshfield this morning. MANUSFIELD, Mass., Oct. 12.—The president arrived here at 11 o'clock this morning. A large crowd had assembled and received the chief magistrate enthusiastically. After firing a presidential salute the distinguished party took up the line of march for the Webster homestead, the president and other dignitaries in carriages escorted by the grand army and artillery. Arriving at the house Hon. Stephen M. Allen delivered an address after which the party lunched with Mrs. Fletcher Webster. The procession then proceeded to Webster's tomb, where imposing ceremonies took place.

PULGER WONT RESIGN. He Will Remain in the Treasury Department. WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—One of Secretary Folger's most intimate friends (a prominent treasury official) denies the statement that Folger has tendered his resignation, and states that he will not do so before the last of December, and only at that time in event of his election as governor of New York. It is stated that Folger desires to make a report to the president of the operations of the treasury department under his administration, and especially in connection with the financial operations of the government during the past fiscal year before retiring.

THE HUSSY MURDER. How the Procces Server Was Struck. DUBLIN, Oct. 12.—In the inquiry into the murder of the Huddy's, near Lough Mask, the informed Kerrigan and his wife testified that the elder Huddy was struck with a stone as he was serving a process. He was then kicked and one of the assassins fired four rounds from a revolver into his body. The younger Huddy's head was then dashed against a heap of stones, and he was afterwards shot in the presence of a crowd of villagers. The corpses were placed in sacks and taken to Lough Mask.

THE OFFICERS OF THE WESTERN UNION. New York, Oct. 15.—At a meeting of the new board of directors of the Western Union telegraph company this morning, the following officers were appointed: President, Dr. Norvin Green; Vice President and General Manager, Gen. Sailing a Campaign Lie. A Story Charged Against Pattison Explored. An Inquirer reporter yesterday asked Controller Pattison what there was in the latest "racket" raised on him by John C. Delaney and Captain Gallagher, and referred to a special dispatch from Pitts burg, published in that journal to the effect that Mr. Pattison had treated some Land Leaguers shabbily, and asserted that if he couldn't be elected by the Irish vote he didn't want to be elected. Mr. Pattison said: "There is nothing whatever in it that has not been fully covered in the letter written by me a few days ago on the subject. The Gallagher addition to the story is simply a revival of one that was put abroad in 1877 with a view to injuring me; but which was promptly and effectually exploded at that time by Captain Cusick and other representatives of the organization spoken of."

Charles McGlade, proprietor of the Mansion house, Atlantic City, and who was mentioned by Captain Gallagher as one of those who would support with affidavits the allegations Messrs. Delaney and Gallagher are circulating against Mr. Pattison, in Pittsburgh, says telegraphs to the Inquirer: "ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Oct. 11.—The statement of Captain John Gallagher, of Harrisburg, which appears in to-day's Inquirer that I, as chairman of a committee, asked Mr. Pattison to buy Land League excursion or any other tickets is utterly false. I have never met and certainly have never spoken to Mr. Pattison, consequently could not have been insulted by him." CHARLES MCGLADE.
