THIRD EDITION.

FRIDAY EVENING, OCT. 13, 1893.

A TRIUMPHAL TOUR.

PATRIOTISM IN THE NORTHERN TIER.

Enthusiastic Crowds Assembled at all the Railway Stations to greet the Coming Governor.

Special Dispatch to the INTELLIGENCER.

TOWNSHIP, Pa., October 13.—The second day out of the Democratic candidate for governor opens promisingly.

The fog that hung upon a heavy atmosphere yesterday has disappeared and cheerful weather adds to the inspiring influence of receptions and active interest.

Leaving Scranton at 8:30 this morning the special train arrived here at noon.

In the passage the counties of Lackawanna, Luzerne, Wyoming and Bradford, of which this is the seat of justice, were traversed.

At every point along the line evidence of an active interest was manifested on the part of the people, and each station showed a gathered crowd awaiting an opportunity to see the next governor.

The first stop was made at Tunkhannock where several hundred people were assembled. In response to calls Mr. Pattison appeared on the rear platform and for a few minutes entertained them with appropriate remarks.

Subsequently he stopped among the people and had an informal reception which occupied the remaining moments.

At Meshoppen a still greater crowd was gathered. At the head of the line, which was formed, stood a prominent Republican holding an American flag. He is of that numerous class which are to be found in all parts of the northern tier who propose to strike business a fatal blow by voting the Democratic ticket.

Four cars were added to the train here, and as many of the people as could get aboard followed the gubernatorial candidate to this place.

At Laceyville another brief stop was made when the same interest was manifested.

Mr. Pattison spoke in his happiest vein and captured the crowd with the first sentence. At Wyalusing another stop and another speech added to the interest of the trip.

Upon the arrival here an immense crowd was found in waiting. Col. McKean, chairman of the county committee, managed the disembarkation and led the procession to the hotel. It was a marked demonstration, and has added materially to the hope already buoyant of the candidate, and his accompanying friends.

The meeting this afternoon and evening will be one of the largest ever held in this place.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

SIMON CAMERON'S VIEWS.

He says Heaver Will Not Be Withdrawn, and That the Democrats Will Have the Next Congress.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 13.—General Simon Cameron, when spoken this morning relative to the report that he had offered to secure Heaver's abdication from the head of the Republican state ticket, declared that he did not believe there was a grain of truth in it, and that he looked for Gen. Heaver's election. The next House of Congress he expected to see Democratic and he felt convinced that Pennsylvania would lose considerable of her representation in Congress. He believed that good would come out of the present Republican crisis and that the party would be victorious in 1894.

A Mother's Rash Deed.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Oct. 13.—Mary Sullivan, a married woman residing on Sixteenth street, attempted suicide this morning by cutting her throat with a razor.

She made several ugly gashes before being disarmed. She is the mother of several children and has been ill for some time and is subject to temporary fits of insanity.

Scottie's Matrimonial Difficulties.
