Collector Kauffman Complimented. OFFICE OF INTERNAL REVENUE,

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13, 1882

J. Kauffman, esq, Collector, 9% District, ancaster, Penn'a. SIR-I have the report of Revenue Agent Hale upon an examination of your office made by him on the 10th instant I am gratified to observe that your office continues first class, and there is an im provement in the style of the records.

I am also pleased to note the excellent knowledge you have acquired of your duties and the personal attention which you give to all the macters pertaining to your office. Respectfully, H. C. ROGERS,

Acting Commissioner. The "improved stye of the records." which Commissioner Rogers affects to not is all the more remarkable when it is cansidered they are made up by the state deputies, who performed the work to der the preceding collector, Mr. Wiley!

" Alein Joslin."-This highly awaising conedy will be produced in Fulton opera house with Charles L. Davis in the title role, on Monday evening. The character is that of a New England farmer, whose eccentricities and comicalities are exhibited under the most mirth provoking situations. There is a good deal of the sensational in the piece, and it has had a very successful ran. On its previous representation here a very large audience was
