

Intelligence.

MONDAY EVENING, OCT. 16, 1882.

The Machine and Its Power.

Persons not intimately acquainted with the ins and outs of political management have anything like a correct idea of what constitutes that immense power in the public affairs of this state known as the Republican machine.

The controlling principle with the machine, and that which makes it a tremendous power, is self-interest. It is a combination of selfish men, actuated one and all by selfish motives.

It is announced "authoritatively" that Secretary Teller "is not a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate at the next session of the Colorado Legislature."

It is estimated that the forthcoming report of the postmaster general will strongly urge the establishment of a postal telegraph.

It is announced "authoritatively" that Secretary Teller "is not a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate at the next session of the Colorado Legislature."

It is announced "authoritatively" that Secretary Teller "is not a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate at the next session of the Colorado Legislature."

It is announced "authoritatively" that Secretary Teller "is not a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate at the next session of the Colorado Legislature."

It is announced "authoritatively" that Secretary Teller "is not a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate at the next session of the Colorado Legislature."

POLITICAL CHIEFS.

THE RIVAL LEADERS IN CONGRESS. Settling the Question as to How the Congressman-at-Large Shall be Voted For.

The state chairman of the four political parties in Pennsylvania met at the Continental hotel Saturday morning to reach an agreement upon whether the names of their respective candidates for congressman-at-large should be printed upon the state or county tickets.

It is announced "authoritatively" that Secretary Teller "is not a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate at the next session of the Colorado Legislature."

It is announced "authoritatively" that Secretary Teller "is not a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate at the next session of the Colorado Legislature."

It is announced "authoritatively" that Secretary Teller "is not a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate at the next session of the Colorado Legislature."

It is announced "authoritatively" that Secretary Teller "is not a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate at the next session of the Colorado Legislature."

It is announced "authoritatively" that Secretary Teller "is not a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate at the next session of the Colorado Legislature."

It is announced "authoritatively" that Secretary Teller "is not a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate at the next session of the Colorado Legislature."

It is announced "authoritatively" that Secretary Teller "is not a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate at the next session of the Colorado Legislature."

It is announced "authoritatively" that Secretary Teller "is not a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate at the next session of the Colorado Legislature."

It is announced "authoritatively" that Secretary Teller "is not a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate at the next session of the Colorado Legislature."

It is announced "authoritatively" that Secretary Teller "is not a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate at the next session of the Colorado Legislature."

RECENT FATALITIES.

Death in Various Forms of Violence.

The bodies of 36 persons drowned by the floods during the recent cyclone in the Yucita Abajo district of Cuba, have been recovered.

In Syracuse, New York, a carriage containing J. Millosevic and his wife and two elderly ladies visiting them was struck by an express train at a railroad crossing and the ladies were killed.

A train on the New York and New England railroad ran into a back at a street crossing in Boston, injuring the occupants.

The wife of Cyrus Hoke, a farmer near Lebanon, Pa., was killed by a kick of a horse.

Joseph W. Greeley, aged 12 years, and his sister Emma, aged 5 years, were drowned in the Harlem river, New York, by the capsizing of a row boat.

William Garrison committed suicide in Anderson, South Carolina, by shooting himself in the head.

A man who gave his name as Frank W. Brown, and his address as New York, attempted suicide by cutting his throat near Merchantsville, New Jersey.

Albert Winner was kicked to death by Michael Scanlan in a fight at Indianapolis.

A youth named Cronin was found bleeding and speechless on a sidewalk in Cincinnati, and he died on the way to the hospital.

James and Edward Bean, murderers and train robbers, were overtaken by a constable at the junction of the Sunbury and Williamsport roads.

Robert E. Pattison, the candidate for governor, accompanied by several prominent Democrats, will begin to-night his trip through the oil regions of the state.

The party will proceed to Lock Haven and to Lewisburg, Pa., and then on to the Allegheny Valley road, arriving at the latter place at 12:30 p. m.

Mr. Arthur will be in Boston found time to send a basket of flowers to Miss McKelvey.

General Rosecrans has opened a local campaign in California, which state he expects to carry for the Democrats.

Herbert Spencer says that man's mental capacity.

Congressman Russell Emmett had his right shoulder dislocated by being thrown out of a buggy in Pittsburgh, Pa., on Friday.

Miss Chamberlain, the Ohio beauty, who looked at one glance and a woman in London last season, is well known in Washington.

Chief Justice Waite is looking a little bit younger and jollier than when he presided in Washington last, in fact, every year he looks younger and more like a retired green-grocer.

Queen Olga, of Greece, who with her husband, has been visiting Paris, has a face very regularly proportioned, although not in the best of health.

James E. Westcott, employed by the Western Electric Light company, in Rochester, N. Y., had his head crushed yesterday while doing some work about the generator, and was killed instantly.

Charles F. Childs, foreman of a cemetery, while driving along one of the streets of Cambridge Mass., was attacked by two highwaymen, who shot him in the eye and robbed him of $300, after which they drove off.

C. S. Wright, a sporting man, placed $1,900 in the safe of a hotel in Cincinnati on Friday night.

QUARRELING LEADERS.

Some Sharp Telegraphic Correspondence in Ohio.

There has been for some years a coolness between Gov. Foster, of Ohio, and ex-Gov. Thomas L. Young, the present governor of Ohio.

Congratulations on your victory in any rebellion. What do you think of the achievements of the Grand Army of the Republic?

The following dispatch has been received: To the Hon. Thomas L. Young, Cincinnati:

Your telegram received. Your irony is excruciating, but a brave soldier (when sober) is not apt to imitate egotism in others.

It is believed that these two telegrams will be instrumental in stirring up a bitter fight between the Grand Army of the Republic and the Democrats.

The following dispatch has been received: To the Hon. Thomas L. Young, Cincinnati:

Will contest? McKelvey's majority had previously been reported at 894, which would have elected him.

McKelvey's election if assured gives the Republicans 8 of the 21 congressional seats. All the counties in the State have been heard from with the exception of Adams, Portage, Putnam and Seneca.

Mr. Archibald Forbes, while lecturing in Australia, has made over $300,000.

Representative Springer thinks that the next House will have a Democratic majority of forty.

Schwartz's admirers are surprised at the number of his works which remain in manuscript.

Secretary Folger and Mr. Arthur confer through the telephone in New York.

General Rosecrans has opened a local campaign in California, which state he expects to carry for the Democrats.

Herbert Spencer says that man's mental capacity.

Congressman Russell Emmett had his right shoulder dislocated by being thrown out of a buggy in Pittsburgh, Pa., on Friday.

Miss Chamberlain, the Ohio beauty, who looked at one glance and a woman in London last season, is well known in Washington.

Chief Justice Waite is looking a little bit younger and jollier than when he presided in Washington last, in fact, every year he looks younger and more like a retired green-grocer.

Queen Olga, of Greece, who with her husband, has been visiting Paris, has a face very regularly proportioned, although not in the best of health.

James E. Westcott, employed by the Western Electric Light company, in Rochester, N. Y., had his head crushed yesterday while doing some work about the generator, and was killed instantly.

Charles F. Childs, foreman of a cemetery, while driving along one of the streets of Cambridge Mass., was attacked by two highwaymen, who shot him in the eye and robbed him of $300, after which they drove off.

C. S. Wright, a sporting man, placed $1,900 in the safe of a hotel in Cincinnati on Friday night.

The festival in St. Mary's convent, adjoining the church on Vine street, which was to have closed on Saturday night, has been continued until to-night.

HAPPY DEMOCRATS.

REJOICING OVER THE OHIO VICTORY.

A Monster Demonstration in Centre Square. Speeches by John H. Fow and George W. Barton of Philadelphia.

The announcement that there would be an old-fashioned, outdoor Democratic meeting in Centre Square, Saturday evening, was all that was necessary to cause the Democracy to assemble by thousands.

The result of the Ohio election, and the certainty of an equally brilliant victory in Pennsylvania, had put the party in wonderfully good humor, and from the city the city they flooded the square with or in groups.

Mr. Fow on taking the stand was well received with loud applause. He thanked the immense audience for the enthusiastic reception given him, as it evidenced their belief in the triumph of the party in the coming election.

Democratic success, and congratulated the Republicans on their defeat, although the result would be overwhelmingly defeated on the 7th of November, on the morning of the 8th they would wake up with an assurance that good and honest men had been elected to the principal offices of the state—a blessing they have not enjoyed in many and many a year.

The Democracy will mark on a victory, restore the union as it was established by Jefferson, put a stop to the corruption, profligacy and thievery that has grown up under Republican mismanagement and remove from the people the oppressive taxation and the excessive taxes now being levied.

Mr. Fow on taking the stand was well received with loud applause. He thanked the immense audience for the enthusiastic reception given him, as it evidenced their belief in the triumph of the party in the coming election.

Democratic success, and congratulated the Republicans on their defeat, although the result would be overwhelmingly defeated on the 7th of November, on the morning of the 8th they would wake up with an assurance that good and honest men had been elected to the principal offices of the state—a blessing they have not enjoyed in many and many a year.

The Democracy will mark on a victory, restore the union as it was established by Jefferson, put a stop to the corruption, profligacy and thievery that has grown up under Republican mismanagement and remove from the people the oppressive taxation and the excessive taxes now being levied.

Mr. Fow on taking the stand was well received with loud applause. He thanked the immense audience for the enthusiastic reception given him, as it evidenced their belief in the triumph of the party in the coming election.

Democratic success, and congratulated the Republicans on their defeat, although the result would be overwhelmingly defeated on the 7th of November, on the morning of the 8th they would wake up with an assurance that good and honest men had been elected to the principal offices of the state—a blessing they have not enjoyed in many and many a year.

The Democracy will mark on a victory, restore the union as it was established by Jefferson, put a stop to the corruption, profligacy and thievery that has grown up under Republican mismanagement and remove from the people the oppressive taxation and the excessive taxes now being levied.

Mr. Fow on taking the stand was well received with loud applause. He thanked the immense audience for the enthusiastic reception given him, as it evidenced their belief in the triumph of the party in the coming election.

Democratic success, and congratulated the Republicans on their defeat, although the result would be overwhelmingly defeated on the 7th of November, on the morning of the 8th they would wake up with an assurance that good and honest men had been elected to the principal offices of the state—a blessing they have not enjoyed in many and many a year.

The Democracy will mark on a victory, restore the union as it was established by Jefferson, put a stop to the corruption, profligacy and thievery that has grown up under Republican mismanagement and remove from the people the oppressive taxation and the excessive taxes now being levied.

Mr. Fow on taking the stand was well received with loud applause. He thanked the immense audience for the enthusiastic reception given him, as it evidenced their belief in the triumph of the party in the coming election.

Democratic success, and congratulated the Republicans on their defeat, although the result would be overwhelmingly defeated on the 7th of November, on the morning of the 8th they would wake up with an assurance that good and honest men had been elected to the principal offices of the state—a blessing they have not enjoyed in many and many a year.

The Democracy will mark on a victory, restore the union as it was established by Jefferson, put a stop to the corruption, profligacy and thievery that has grown up under Republican mismanagement and remove from the people the oppressive taxation and the excessive taxes now being levied.

Mr. Fow on taking the stand was well received with loud applause. He thanked the immense audience for the enthusiastic reception given him, as it evidenced their belief in the triumph of the party in the coming election.

Democratic success, and congratulated the Republicans on their defeat, although the result would be overwhelmingly defeated on the 7th of November, on the morning of the 8th they would wake up with an assurance that good and honest men had been elected to the principal offices of the state—a blessing they have not enjoyed in many and many a year.

The Democracy will mark on a victory, restore the union as it was established by Jefferson, put a stop to the corruption, profligacy and thievery that has grown up under Republican mismanagement and remove from the people the oppressive taxation and the excessive taxes now being levied.

Mr. Fow on taking the stand was well received with loud applause. He thanked the immense audience for the enthusiastic reception given him, as it evidenced their belief in the triumph of the party in the coming election.

REJOICING OVER THE OHIO VICTORY.

A Monster Demonstration in Centre Square. Speeches by John H. Fow and George W. Barton of Philadelphia.

The announcement that there would be an old-fashioned, outdoor Democratic meeting in Centre Square, Saturday evening, was all that was necessary to cause the Democracy to assemble by thousands.

The result of the Ohio election, and the certainty of an equally brilliant victory in Pennsylvania, had put the party in wonderfully good humor, and from the city the city they flooded the square with or in groups.

Mr. Fow on taking the stand was well received with loud applause. He thanked the immense audience for the enthusiastic reception given him, as it evidenced their belief in the triumph of the party in the coming election.

Democratic success, and congratulated the Republicans on their defeat, although the result would be overwhelmingly defeated on the 7th of November, on the morning of the 8th they would wake up with an assurance that good and honest men had been elected to the principal offices of the state—a blessing they have not enjoyed in many and many a year.

The Democracy will mark on a victory, restore the union as it was established by Jefferson, put a stop to the corruption, profligacy and thievery that has grown up under Republican mismanagement and remove from the people the oppressive taxation and the excessive taxes now being levied.

Mr. Fow on taking the stand was well received with loud applause. He thanked the immense audience for the enthusiastic reception given him, as it evidenced their belief in the triumph of the party in the coming election.

Democratic success, and congratulated the Republicans on their defeat, although the result would be overwhelmingly defeated on the 7th of November, on the morning of the 8th they would wake up with an assurance that good and honest men had been elected to the principal offices of the state—a blessing they have not enjoyed in many and many a year.

The Democracy will mark on a victory, restore the union as it was established by Jefferson, put a stop to the corruption, profligacy and thievery that has grown up under Republican mismanagement and remove from the people the oppressive taxation and the excessive taxes now being levied.

Mr. Fow on taking the stand was well received with loud applause. He thanked the immense audience for the enthusiastic reception given him, as it evidenced their belief in the triumph of the party in the coming election.

Democratic success, and congratulated the Republicans on their defeat, although the result would be overwhelmingly defeated on the 7th of November, on the morning of the 8th they would wake up with an assurance that good and honest men had been elected to the principal offices of the state—a blessing they have not enjoyed in many and many a year.

The Democracy will mark on a victory, restore the union as it was established by Jefferson, put a stop to the corruption, profligacy and thievery that has grown up under Republican mismanagement and remove from the people the oppressive taxation and the excessive taxes now being levied.

Mr. Fow on taking the stand was well received with loud applause. He thanked the immense audience for the enthusiastic reception given him, as it evidenced their belief in the triumph of the party in the coming election.

Democratic success, and congratulated the Republicans on their defeat, although the result would be overwhelmingly defeated on the 7th of November, on the morning of the 8th they would wake up with an assurance that good and honest men had been elected to the principal offices of the state—a blessing they have not enjoyed in many and many a year.

The Democracy will mark on a victory, restore the union as it was established by Jefferson, put a stop to the corruption, profligacy and thievery that has grown up under Republican mismanagement and remove from the people the oppressive taxation and the excessive taxes now being levied.

Mr. Fow on taking the stand was well received with loud applause. He thanked the immense audience for the enthusiastic reception given him, as it evidenced their belief in the triumph of the party in the coming election.

Democratic success, and congratulated the Republicans on their defeat, although the result would be overwhelmingly defeated on the 7th of November, on the morning of the 8th they would wake up with an assurance that good and honest men had been elected to the principal offices of the state—a blessing they have not enjoyed in many and many a year.

The Democracy will mark on a victory, restore the union as it was established by Jefferson, put a stop to the corruption, profligacy and thievery that has grown up under Republican mismanagement and remove from the people the oppressive taxation and the excessive taxes now being levied.

Mr. Fow on taking the stand was well received with loud applause. He thanked the immense audience for the enthusiastic reception given him, as it evidenced their belief in the triumph of the party in the coming election.

Democratic success, and congratulated the Republicans on their defeat, although the result would be overwhelmingly defeated on the 7th of November, on the morning of the 8th they would wake up with an assurance that good and honest men had been elected to the principal offices of the state—a blessing they have not enjoyed in many and many a year.

The Democracy will mark on a victory, restore the union as it was established by Jefferson, put a stop to the corruption, profligacy and thievery that has grown up under Republican mismanagement and remove from the people the oppressive taxation and the excessive taxes now being levied.

Mr. Fow on taking the stand was well received with loud applause. He thanked the immense audience for the enthusiastic reception given him, as it evidenced their belief in the triumph of the party in the coming election.

Democratic success, and congratulated the Republicans on their defeat, although the result would be overwhelmingly defeated on the 7th of November, on the morning of the 8th they would wake up with an assurance that good and honest men had been elected to the principal offices of the state—a blessing they have not enjoyed in many and many a year.

REJOICING OVER THE OHIO VICTORY.

A Monster Demonstration in Centre Square. Speeches by John H. Fow and George W. Barton of Philadelphia.

The announcement that there would be an old-fashioned, outdoor Democratic meeting in Centre Square, Saturday evening, was all that was necessary to cause the Democracy to assemble by thousands.

The result of the Ohio election, and the certainty of an equally brilliant victory in Pennsylvania, had put the party in wonderfully good humor, and from the city the city they flooded the square with or in groups.

Mr. Fow on taking the stand was well received with loud applause. He thanked the immense audience for the enthusiastic reception given him, as it evidenced their belief in the triumph of the party in the coming election.

Democratic success, and congratulated the Republicans on their defeat, although the result would be overwhelmingly defeated on the 7th of November, on the morning of the 8th they would wake up with an assurance that good and honest men had been elected to the principal offices of the state—a blessing they have not enjoyed in many and many a year.

The Democracy will mark on a victory, restore the union as it was established by Jefferson, put a stop to the corruption, profligacy and thievery that has grown up under Republican mismanagement and remove from the people the oppressive taxation and the excessive taxes now being levied.

Mr. Fow on taking the stand was well received with loud applause. He thanked the immense audience for the enthusiastic reception given him, as it evidenced their belief in the triumph of the party in the coming election.

Democratic success, and congratulated the Republicans on their defeat, although the result would be overwhelmingly defeated on the 7th of November, on the morning of the 8th they would wake up with an assurance that good and honest men had been elected to the principal offices of the state—a blessing they have not enjoyed in many and many a year.

The Democracy will mark on a victory, restore the union as it was established by Jefferson, put a stop to the corruption, profligacy and thievery that has grown up under Republican mismanagement and remove from the people the oppressive taxation and the excessive taxes now being levied.

Mr. Fow on taking the stand was well received with loud applause. He thanked the immense audience for the enthusiastic reception given him, as it evidenced their belief in the triumph of the party in the coming election.

Democratic success, and congratulated the Republicans on their defeat, although the result would be overwhelmingly defeated on the 7th of November, on the morning of the 8th they would wake up with an assurance that good and honest men had been elected to the principal offices of the state—a blessing they have not enjoyed in many and many a year.

The Democracy will mark on a victory, restore the union as it was established by Jefferson, put a stop to the corruption, profligacy and thievery that has grown up under Republican mismanagement and remove from the people the oppressive taxation and the excessive taxes now being levied.

Mr. Fow on taking the stand was well received with loud applause. He thanked the immense audience for the enthusiastic reception given him, as it evidenced their belief in the triumph of the party in the coming election.

Democratic success, and congratulated the Republicans on their defeat, although the result would be overwhelmingly defeated on the 7th of November, on the morning of the 8th they would wake up with an assurance that good and honest men had been elected to the principal offices of the state—a blessing they have not enjoyed in many and many a year.

The Democracy will mark on a victory, restore the union as it was established by Jefferson, put a stop to the corruption, profligacy and thievery that has grown up under Republican mismanagement and remove from the people the oppressive taxation and the excessive taxes now being levied.

Mr. Fow on taking the stand was well received with loud applause. He thanked the immense audience for the enthusiastic reception given him, as it evidenced their belief in the triumph of the party in the coming election.

Democratic success, and congratulated the Republicans on their defeat, although the result would be overwhelmingly defeated on the 7th of November, on the morning of the 8th they would wake up with an assurance that good and honest men had been elected to the principal offices of the state—a blessing they have not enjoyed in many and many a year.

The Democracy will mark on a victory, restore the union as it was established by Jefferson, put a stop to the corruption, profligacy and thievery that has grown up under Republican mismanagement and remove from the people the oppressive taxation and the excessive taxes now being levied.

Mr. Fow on taking the stand was well received with loud applause. He thanked the immense audience for the enthusiastic reception given him, as it evidenced their belief in the triumph of the party in the coming election.

Democratic success, and congratulated the Republicans on their defeat, although the result would be overwhelmingly defeated on the 7th of November, on the morning of the 8th they would wake up with an assurance that good and honest men had been elected to the principal offices of the state—a blessing they have not enjoyed in many and many a year.

The Democracy will mark on a victory, restore the union as it was established by Jefferson, put a stop to the corruption, profligacy and thievery that has grown up under Republican mismanagement and remove from the people the oppressive taxation and the excessive taxes now being levied.

Mr. Fow on taking the stand was well received with loud applause. He thanked the immense audience for the enthusiastic reception given him, as it evidenced their belief in the triumph of the party in the coming election.

Democratic success, and congratulated the Republicans on their defeat, although the result would be overwhelmingly defeated on the 7th of November, on the morning of the 8th they would wake up with an assurance that good and honest men had been elected to the principal offices of the state—a blessing they have not enjoyed in many and many a year.