GOLDEN WEDDING.

Farmer Leaman's Fiftieth Anniversary. Abraham Leaman, more commonly known as Farmer Leaman, and his wife, residents of West Lampeter township, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Monday, Oct. 16, and it was an occasion long to be remembered by all who were present. The arrival in the morning of three sons and four daughters, accom panied by their better halves, was a pleasant surprise to the aged parents, who fairly outshone themselves in hospitality. A sumptuous dinner was soon prepared and it is needless to say that it received ample attention from all the company, The presence of the young folks recalled many pleasant reminiscences and the time spent in supplying the inner man spec

There were 44 children and grande' !dren in the company. Mr. Learna, though in his 83d year, and havir devoted himself to the arduous de .es of farm life for more than 60 years, i a hale and hearty old man, and bids fur to be the centre figure of many more such pleasant reunions as that which has been

THAT SHOOTING AFFAIR.

Zach, Boot's Condition Not Serious Zach. Boot, who was shot yesterday afternoon while attempting to escape from Officer Mercer, the particulars of which were published in yesterdays INTELLIGEN-CER, continues to suffer severe pain, but is not believed to be in a dangerous condition. Morphia was administered to him last night and he slept three or foor hours in jail. This morning the surgons probed for the ball and located it on the left side of the spine between the shoulder blades, and resting against the spine. No attempt was made to recove the ball, nor will any be made, for the present at least.

Discharged. Abraham Groff, A. L. Rudy, Daniel Millor, George Groff and D. G. Berneiserwho were arrested some time ago, by Constable Stokes and Railroad Officer Pyle, on the charge of having broken into and rob-bed a freight car at Witmer's station in October, 1881, had a hearing before Alderman McConomy this afternoon. There was not any evidence against them to war-rant the aiderman in holding them for court and they were discharged.

The Colored Band,

This musical organization got on the town in some way last night, and they blew and thumped until a late hour. A number of citizens were serenaded, including Joe Lebar, the well-known barber, who was married twenty years yesterday. Another Divorce Wanted.

Daniel Blattenberger has filed a petition for divorce from his wife Georgiana Blattenberger. The parties were married last July, and Daniel alleges that the fair Georgiana made him drunk, and in that condition induced him to commit matrimony.

In Town, A. Baxton Visiek, of London, and Hedley C. Visick, of Hamstead, England, well known English dentists, were at the Stevens house over night. During their stay here they called on Dr. Webb, whom they had met in London.

This evening at 7 o'clock at the Leopard atei, will be sold a brick house, No. 29 South Duke street, belonging to the estate of John

"Cherrie" To-night.-Miss Gu-sie Morris and company will appear in the opera house to night in the musica! comedy of "Cherrie." The Rocton Traveler says: " Miss Morris well stained her well-carned reputation as 'Cherie,' in the play of that name. She was in excellent voice, and her support was unexceptional. She was particularly brilliant in the rehearsal scene." Pinafore" and " The Chimes .- The familiar and ever popular strains of Gilbert and Sullian's delicious opera of "Pinatore" will reound through the opera house next Saturday atternoon, when the Holman company will give it at their matinee. It has been a long time since our people have had the pleasure of hearing its charming measures publicly performed, and the natty little craft ought to be reasonably sure of a cordial welcome secing the Holman company come highly recom mended. In the evening Planquette's beauti-tut composition, "The Chimes of Mornandy," will be sung. The two operas comprise an at-fraction that sliouid draw well. Lawrence Barrett in a Double Bill.-Lovers of the legitiosate drama are pleased to know that to-morrow evening that distinguished actor, Mr. Lawrence Barrett, will appear as ratton opera house in a great double bill, the plays being "The Merchant of Venice," and David Garrick." As Shylock, in the forme ; Mr. Barrett has earned a high reputation and one that assures a masterly interpretation of this great Shakspearean creation, and concerning his rendition of the title join of the company that is the complete to morrow's tine dramatic teast, the New York Herald says: While he greatly amused the audience during his peculiar situation in the house of Simon Ingot, in the first and second acts, he touched them almost to tears in the pathetic scene with the fair Miss Ingol. Mr. Charles Punkett unde a great hit as Squire Chicy and was twice called before the curlain at the close of the second act. Mr. Ben Rogers made an admirable Simon Ingot and Miss Josie Batcheider played Ida Ingot in a simple manner that was effective and quite won the sympathies of the audience.

RPECIAL NOTICES.

When others are suffering, drop a word of kindress and sympathy. It they are suffering rom a Cold, give them Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup; a few doses of this valuable remedy will afford instant relief, and a twenty-five cent bottle will cure the worst Cough.

A Votce from the tress. I take this opportunity to bear testimony to the efficacy of your "Hop Bitters." Expecting to find them nauseous and bitter and com po-ed of bad whisky, we were agreeably surprised at their mild taste, just like a cup of tea. A Mrs. Cresswell and a Mrs. Connor, friends, have likewise tried, and pronounce them the best medicine they have ever taken for building up strength and toning up the system. I was troubled with costiveness seadache and want of appetite. My allments are now all gone. I have a yearly contrac with a doctor to look after the health of my self and family, but I need him not now. S. GILLILAND.

A SNAKE'S CHARMS. A Baby Fascinated by a Rattlesnake With Obio Press.

I was working in my kitchen, when I was startled by a loud scream from my little boy, four years old. On asking the cause, he said; "Oh, mamma, a big snake, a great big snake!" I rushed for the door and imagine my feelings, when, almost parlyzed with horror, I could only gaze on the awful sight that met my eyes. Ten feet from me, and on the doorstep of the woodshed. stood my baby boy, twenty-two months old, gazing as if fascinated, upon a large rattlesnake, which was coiled in front of him about two feet away, and was gently moving it head back and forth, looking at the child with eyes like flame. My screams frightened it, and my daughter, twelve years of age, ran past me and caught her little brother out of the way, when the reptile glided swiftly away. My screams brought my husband and a teamster to the DETATE OF CHRISTIAN EBY, LATE OF Leacock township, Lancaster county, deceased.—Letters testamentary on said estate having been granted to the undersigned, all persons indebted to said decedent are requested to make immediate actilement, and those having claims or demands against the estate of said decedent, to make known the same to the undersigned without delay, residing in New Holland, Earl township.

my husband and a teamster to the spot, they being but a short distance off, unloading quartz at the mill. They soon killed the snake, but not until after a contest, in which the snake fought well. It was nearly four feet long and had ten rattles and a button. The little child cried bitterly for half an hour to see the pacified until shown the dead body of the horrid thing. of the horrid thing.

PREACHER TURNED ACTOR.

Rov. Milne, of Chicago, Makes a Hit a

Ex-Rev. George C. Milse, formerly a well known pastor in Brooklyn, more recently successor to Robert Collier as pastor of Unity church, Chicago, made his debut as Hamlet at the Chicago grand opera house on Monday evening, before a cultivated audience. His somewhat sudden transit from the pulpit to the stage en-gendered many partisan antagonisms and friendship, and predictions of suc-cess and failure were about equally divided. When Rev. Milne first appeared, absolutely self-possessed, and with the case of one "to the manner born," the entire audience applanded demonstratively, and after each scene he was recalled. The general verdict was that his Hamlet is a distinct and individ, ual impersonation. R. M. Hooley says, "It is a hit." A. R. "Case (dramatic writer, New Yorn), says his reading is better ter, New Yorn), says his reading is better than Edwin Booth's. The debutant's knowledge of the stage business was surprising.
