BRIGANDS IN NEW MEXICO.

How Honanza Mackey Escaped Being Kid-napped and Held for a Ransom. New York Sun. "Bonanza" Mackey, of California, passed through Chicago en route for New york. He was accompanied by W. S. Hobart, John M. Harper and A. A. Hickox, of San Francisco, and by Colonel M. G. Gillett, who joined the party at Lake Valley, New Mexico, for the purpose of escorting them through the cowboy infected region between Lake Valley and the Santa Fe railroad, a distance of about thirteen miles. Colonel Gillett says that the so-called cowboys of that region are simply organized bands of outlaws, recruited from the criminal classes throughout the Eastern states, who escape to that country, and when one of them is once encountry, and when one of them is once enrolled and recognized as a member of the cowboys, he may be considered as perfectly safe from any service or warrants or extradition papers. They have estab-lished as perfect a system of brigandage as prevails in Italy, and conduct their op-erations on much the same principle that is, to kidnap wealthy men and hold them to ransom. Whenever Senator Jones, who is interested in mining proper ty in New Mexico, visits that region, he always assumes an incognito in order to escape the notice of the brigands. Mr. Mackey failed to adopt this precaution, and Colonel Gillett, getting wind of the fact that a reward had been offered for the capture of Mr. Mackey by the captain of the cowboys, he volunteered the ser-vices of himself and a strong party to es-cort the bonanza king and his friends to the railroad. Although no effort was made to capture the millionaire a number of small bands of the outlaws were en-countered, and Mr. Mackey expresses himself as estisfied that nothing but the himself as satisfied that nothing but the presence of his escort prevented them from "holding him up." At least he says that they would have secured noth ing but a five dollar note and a nickel watch for their trouble, but he congratulates himself on disappointing them to that extent. Train No. 6 on the Atchison, Topeka &

Santa Fe railroad, coming east, was fired on by cowboys at Lakin. Ten or twelve bullets struck the train, shattering the glass in the windows and penetrating the cars in several places. A special train, in charge of Sheriff Hinckle, has departed and a telegram received says that three of the gang have been arrested. The last report is that the party were housed in a dugout and surrounded. The Dodge City force will undoubtedly capture or kill all the parties. There is no possibility of their escape, though they may make a
