THE ELECTORAL FRAUD.

CHICKENS COMING HOME TO ROOST.

The Spirit and Results of the Seven by Eight Commission and General Cameron's Connection With It.

For the TELESCOPE.

The New York Sun in a recent article, among other things said about Simon Cameron, concludes with the following, which amounts to a confession: "At the close of his long period of service as a senator of the United States, he declared to his Republic intimates in the Senate that it was infinitely better that the Republican party should go out of power and that Mr. Tilden and the Democrats should come in. The people had decided in the election; and he had no right to tamper with the result of the will of the people, could only lead to subsequent disaster. It is not too much to say that the sequel has more than vindicated the soundness of this honest judgment. How many Republican statesmen there are who now heartily wish they had followed it!"

Can this be so? Or, is it all merely twaddle? At all events it has appeared in the news columns of a number of papers—notably the three Lancaster dailies—without any comment. There is an old saying to the effect that "There's many a truth spoken in jest," and this may belong to that category. If such were the views of General Cameron, they were strangely in contrast with the conduct of his son—the secretary of war—who used his whole official, pecuniary and political influence to foist poor Mr. Hayes upon the American people as their rightful president. Yes; poor Mr. Hayes. The Democratic party may have been a despised or God-forsaken party; but what would be thought of the silk-stockinged gentleman who should steal the shoes from the poor tramp's feet, only because he occupied a position in society that would screen him from the theft? The son of the man who had just been the fraud of Samuel J. Tilden out of the presidency, was an unparalleled event in the political history of the country, and perhaps of the world; but the "Recording Angel" was there; and all the election-hatchery that ingenuity could invent eventually "came home to roost." The subsequent course of Gen. Cameron, however, was not in harmony with the position attributed to him in the above paragraph, nor is it in harmony with it now, hence the New York Intelligencer is not so certain of the result; but his cogitations, nevertheless, only express "a shrewd doubt though it be but a dream." Poor Mr. Hayes' status morally, socially or politically, cannot possibly be an enviable one. Whether absolutely so or not, there are at least twenty millions of people in the United States who believe that Mr. Hayes was fraudulently thrust into the presidential chair.

But it was not only those who voted for Mr. Tilden, their families and their friends, who believed in his election, but the very way for the special convenience of those who cannot readily prepare it. It will be found very convenient and will not with equal efficiency in either form. See advertisement.

MEDICAL.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS.

SEEK

health and avoid sickness. Instead of feeling tired and worn out, instead of aches and pains, wouldn't you rather feel fresh and strong?

You can continue feeling miserable and good for nothing, and no one but yourself can find fault, but if you are tired of that kind of life, you can change it if you choose.

How? By getting one bottle of BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, and taking it regularly according to directions.

Mansfield, Ohio, Nov. 24, 1881.
Gentlemen:—I have suffered with pain in my side and back, and great soreness on my breast with shooting pains all through my body, attended with great weakness, depression of spirits, and loss of appetite. I have taken several different medicines, and was treated by prominent physicians for my liver, kidneys, and spleen, but I got no relief. I thought I would try BROWN'S IRON BITTERS; I have now taken one bottle and a half and am about well—pain in side and back all gone—soreness all out of my breast, and I have a good appetite, and am gaining in strength and flesh. It can justly be called the King of medicines.
JOHN K. ALLENBER.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is composed of Iron in soluble form; Chinchona the great tonic, together with other standard remedies, making a remarkable non-alcoholic tonic, which will cure dyspepsia, indigestion, Malaria, Weakness, and relieve all Lung and Kidney diseases.

For sale wholesale and retail by H. B. COCHRAN, Druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen Street, Lancaster.

It has been proved the surest cure for KIDNEY DISEASES.
Does a lame back or a disordered urine indicate that you are a sufferer? THEN DO NOT HESITATE; use Kidney-Wort at once (druggists recommend it) and it will speedily overcome the disease and restore healthy action.

Ladies. For complaints peculiar to weakness, your sex, such as pain and irritation of the urinary organs, and all urinary troubles, all specially yield to its curative power.

TWO HUNDRED YEARS AGO the people that came to Pennsylvania hardly thought of Ready-Made Clothing.

At the present day, and especially at this time, you can see the Finest Assortment of CLOTHING.
The man must be very hard to fit, indeed, if he cannot find his proporz in our carefully selected stock.

When you come to see what we are showing bring the Boys along, for the CLOTHING that we have for them is in all sizes and kinds, and there are some specialties in OVERCOATS, AS WELL AS CHILDREN'S SUITS.
