A Votes from the tress. I take this opportunity to bear testimony to the efficacy of your "Hop Bitters." Expecting to find them nauseous and bitter and com po-ed of bad whisky, we were agreeably surprised at their mild taste, just like a cup of teg. A Mrs. Cresswell and a Mrs. Connor, triends, have likewise tried, and pronounce them the best medicine they have ever taker for building up strength and toning up the system. I was troubled with costiveness headache and want of appetite. My ailments are now all gone. DESPERATE FIGHT WITH BURGLAKS.

Three Cracksmen Overpower and Wound : Ulerk and Lacare With $1,200. WEST BROOKFIELD, Mass., Oct. 28 .-Clark's drug store was broken into by burglars last night. They blew open the safe and secured twelve hundred dollars in money. They were discovered by John McEveri, a clerk, when a fight with pistols took place, and Mr. Everi was wounded. The burglars then took the train, and when they reached Charlton intimidated the train hands by a display of pistols compelled them to stop the train and effected their escape.

There were three men engaged in the burglary, two of whom took the train, which they left at Charlton. The third man ran in a westerly direction and has been traced to Ware. The whole country is up in arms looking for the men.

There is a certain fastidiousness among some people which is greatly shocked at seeing the terms diabetes, Bright's Diseases, albumenaria, or even it we ror kidneys, in print. They would fain forget that they had a liver or kidneys, or were subject to disorders of these organs. All of which would be well, if such ignorance or fastidiousness could drive these diseases away. The true way to banish reference to them is to employ Hunt's Remedy, the great kidney and employ Hunt's Remedy, the great kidney and liver medicine, to cure them; and then all mention of them will cease of itself. So long as fiesh is heir to such ills, we must tell of the one great specific, Hunt's Remedy, that meets these ills and overcomes them.
