REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE Along the Suggestant-Flems erest in and Amond the Borough

l'icked Up by the Intelligencer's Reporter A runaway horse created considerable excitement on Third street th's morning. A little girl who was standing in the street parrowly escaped being run over. The conrage of a young man alone saved her. The horse was soon after caught. The members of company C have been notified to appear at the armory this evening in full uniform, to receive their Lewistown inspection pay, which has been received by Captain Case. No man can receive his pay unless in uniform. A hen that hatches out two broods of little chickens in one season is considered as doing her duty very well, but one that brings forth five broods is seldom heard of. Mr. Charles Young has such a fowl, and she has accomplished the feat in ter months. To morrow evening at 1:30 o'clock Gen.

Welsh Post No. 118, G. A. B , will hold a special meeting in the lodge room. Applications for admission to membership will be considered, recruits will be mus tered in, and other important business will be attended to. Package Party.

Those who desire to spend a pleasan evening can not do it better than by attending the package party of the M. E. church this evening. It will be held at Mr. Abram Bruner's residence on Cherry street. Every person is cordially invited to attend. Those who go must take a package of something. There will be no admirsion A Snake Story

Two ladies created a sensition yester day on Locust street, by screaming as though they were being mardered. A little investigation revealed the fact that they had been frightened by a dead snake which had been thrown over the limb of a tree by some mischievous boys. The ladies thought it was alive. When their friends say snake now, one of them becomes very Angry.

Berough Personats. Miss Grace Yingiing returned here on Saturday from a trip to friends in Philadelphia.

Mrs. George Skeene and daughters have returned to their home in West Chester, after a visit to their friends in this place. Miss Martha Loeb, of Lancaster, late a guest of her sister. Mrs. A. Jessel, returned home this morning. Mrs. W. B. Given has returned from an extended visit in New York and Philadelphia. Mistages of the Kall.

The way passenger train was delayed two hours yesterday morning by five cars being thrown off the track a short dis tance below Columbia. A spread rail caused the mishap.

One freight car was thrown from the rails this morning at a point one mile cast of Mountville. It was caused by a broken axle. The wrecking crew from this place repaired to the scene of the accident and cleared the track.

While the inspection train of the Pennwas not sufficient to damage the car, but the breakfast of the inspecting party was thrown about in a very promiseuous man-ner. The entire party left this morning to inspect the Port Deposit railroad.

THE PATTISON RECEPTION. Pennsylvania's Next Governor to Be in Lau

Final arrangements are rapidly being made for the reception to our noble standard-bearer, Robert E. Pattison, on his visit to this city to-morrow (Tuesday) evening. Several wards will send separate delegations and the Democracy of the county will be well represented. The Young Men's club will hold a final moeting at headquarters this evening, and all those who desire to add their names to the roll and obtain uniforms are cordially invited to attend. The massmeeting on Tuesday evening will be held in the court house, and the issues of the campaign will be discussed by the following speakers: Robert Emory Pattison, Democratic candidate for gover nor; Hon. James Gay Gordon, Philadelphia's young and eloquent senator, whose speech nominating Pattisou in the Harrisburg convention is remembered as a remarkable brilliant oratorical effect; Hon. Chas. W. Carrigan, one of the ablest members of the Philadelphia bar and a Democratic "war horse," and W. U. Hensel, chairman of the Democratic state

In order to accomodate ladies, who may wish to hear the speeches and witness what promises to prove the most imposing demonstration of the campaign, the seats to the left of the bar, will be reserved for the use of ladies and their escorts. Arrangements will also be made for an overflow meeting which will be addressed by capable speakers. Let there be a grand rally which shall make the lukewarm reception tendered here lately to General Beaver pale into insignificance by contrast.

All members of the staff in the Hancock campaign two years ago are requested to meet at Central headquarters to morrow evening at 7 o'clock in the uniforms worn by them that time.

COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS

The Adjourned Term-Fifty Cases for Trial This morning the adjourned term of quarter sessions court began with Judge Patterson presiding. There are over 50 cases down on the list for trial that number including one for manslaughter, several for arson and rape and a number of

The first case called was that of Com'th vs. David Lemon Shirk who wascharged with being the father of an illegitimate child which was born to Susan F. Miller, of Lexington, Penn township, in January The jury rendered a verdict of guilty. Sentence as usual.

In the case of Elizabeth Krug, charged with assault and battery upon Mr. Julius Levy, a verdict of not guilty was taken, In the case of Com'th vs Kate Gall, of this city, charged with keeping a disor-derly house, a verdict of not guilty was taken, as it was shown that the defendant is a married woman and her husband re-sided with her in the house where the alleged disorder was made. The Brua-Beiter Case In the water case of Brua vs. Beiler the jury agreed on Saturday night. They rendered their verdict yesterday morning and it was in favor of the defendant. This is the second time that the case has been tried. The first time the verdict was for the plaintiff for $372.

BLIGHT FIRE,

Incendiarism and False Atarm Between 7 and 8 o'clock yesterday morning, an incendiary attempt was made to burn a two-story brick stable, belonging to Susan and Mary Weaver, and situated in rear of No. 539 East King street. The incendiary gained an entrance to the building by scaling a fence and climbing into a window in the gable end. He set made much headway, and the flames were extinguished before any considerable damage was done. The firemen promptly responded to the call, but their services were not needed.

brought the firemen to Centre Square. The person who sounded the alarm was, however, a little too quick on the trigger. There was no fire—the smoke coming from the top of a neighboring chimney and being blown downward against the Eruminer building.

BOGUS TAX BECEIPTS.

A Sold Attempt to Vititate the Ballet. Within a few days past it has come to light that a young man named J. Witm ? Weaver, a clerk in Bair's dry goods store, a resident of the First ward but whose name is not upon the registry of voters, is the happy possessor of two tax receipts, both of which were fraudulently issued. his two receipts to Mr. John Schaum, a Democrat whom he supposed to be a Republican, and Mr. Schaum at once prooccided to investigate the fraud. He ascertained that one of the receipts was for 50 cents county tax for 1883, and signed by II. B. Voncersmith tax collector for the western part of the city, including the First, Fourth, Fifth, Seventh and Ninth wards. Knowing that Weaver's name was not upon the register, he called upon Mr. Vonersmith, in company with Weaver, and asked him by what authority he had issued Weaver a receipt. Mr. Vonder-smith denied that he had issued the receipt, though he admitted the genuineness of the signature, and accounted for it by saying that a package of from fifty to one hundred receipts signed by him in blank had been stolen from his desk about the 7th of September, and that the receipt held by Weaver was no doubt one of them. Mr. Vondersmith said be thought the body of the receipt was in the hand-writing of either Al. Canch or A. F. Shenck, chairman of the Republican committee. Mr. Vondersmith further stated that both Shenck and Al. Welchaus, assessor of the First ward, had requested him to issue a receipt to Weaver before that individual had either of the receipts he now holds, and he refused to do so because his name was not on the registry. It is understood that several other of the receipts alleged to have been stolen from his desk have been traced to the possession of persons not registered and not entitled to vote. There is no doubt that the intention was to distribute all these bogus receipts among non residents and others not entitled to vote, with a view of illegally swelling the Republican vote of this city. If the tax receipts were really stolen from Mr. Vondersmith's desk as seems probable, it ought to be a comparatively easy task to hunt down the thief, as Mr. Vondersmith remarked to a representative of the INTEL-LIGENCER this morning that very few per sons had access to his desk. On being asked why he had so many receipts signed in blank, he said it was for his own con venience and the convenience of persons who called to pay their taxes. He said he had made no effort since the theft to recover the stolen receipts.

Weaver's Other Receipt. Weaver's other receipt was issued by Daputy County Treasurer Harry Strohm, the Republican county committee. It is both external and internal treatment. what is known as an exoneration receiptsylvania railroad company was standing that is of a person who having failed to on No. 4 track, this morning, it was run pay his county tax and been exonerated into by an engine going west. The shock | by the county commissioners, afterwards pays his tax and has his name stricken from the list of exonerations. Mr. Strohm said to a representative of the Intelli-GENCER that Shenck called upon him at the county treasurer's office, threw down half a dollar and told him be wanted an exoneration receipt for J. Witmer Weaver. Supposing everything to be right Mr. Strohm issued the receipt. Not long afterwards another person called for a receipt for J. Witmer Weaver. This excited Mr. Strohm's suspicion, so he took the money, but did not is the receipt, saying he would suc do so if he found everything to be right. He then went to the county commissioner's office, carefully examined the list of exonerations and ascertained that Weaver's name was not on the list. He then called upon Mr. Shenck, returned him the 50 cents and demanded the return of Weaver's receipt as it was illegally issued. Shenck told him him he had given it to Weaver. Strohm insisted that he should get it and return it to him, and as Shenck failed to do so, Mr. Strohm himself called upon Mr. Weaver and demanded the recoipt. Weaver gave it up, having in the meantime been furnished with one of the bogus Vondersmith receipts by A. C.

Wolchaus assessor of the First ward. It would appear that Mr. Strohm was guilty of no greater offense than carelessness in issuing the exoneration receipt without examining the list of exonerations. It is also possible that Mr. Vondersmith may have had the package of signed receipts stolen from his desk, as he says was the case. If so he, too, was guilty of gross carelessness, and it is at least remarkable that he has made no effort to recover the stolen receipts. But, however innocent these gentlemen may be, there seems to be no doubt that A. F. Shenck, chairman of the Republican county committee, and A. C. Welchans, who holds the double position of assessor of the First ward and secretary of the Republian county committee, have been engaged in issuing illegal tax receipts, knowing them to be illegal and fraudulent.

Let the Democrats of every ward, especially the western wards, keep a sharp okout for these bogus receipts, and arrest any man who attempts to vote on one of The Harrisons.

If these elever young actors, Louis and Alice Harrison, want to maintain the excelent reputation they have achieved by their recent successes, they need to promptly rid themsives of such a worthless siece of rubbish as that with which they strove to entertain a small audience at the house Saturday night. They filled it as a comedy-drama, said it was written for them by Leonard Grover, and called it "Viva; or, a Sister's Sacrifice." It is of no earthly consequence, and if Mr. Harrison and his merry little partner baven't found it out by this time it's high time they were opening their eyes and throwing the trashy thing away. If they are seeking for a higher field than musical burlesque in which to display their versaile talents, they have made a bad choice n permitting themselves to be imposed upon by such a production as "Viva."

The vessel was completely demolished. F. F. Lorell, the captain and owner; William Kelley, of Chicago, engineer, and Pat White, of Ra cine, engineer, were killed. The explosion was so powerful that none of the bodies have been found. Eight Persons Poisoned by Misiake. Eight colored persons were poisoned on the Wallaco plantation, Bossier parish, La, by mistaking arsenic for yeast powder and using it in their bread. All were very sick at last accounts.

Desperation and Death. George Seller, aged 33, a German, shot and killed himself in New York, because he was unable to procure work.

There is a certain fastidiousnessamong som people which is greatly shocked at seeing th terms diabetes, Bright's Diseases, albumenaris terms diabetes, firight's Diseases, albumemark, or even river or kidneys, in print. They would fain forget that they had a liver or kidneys, or were subject to disorders of these organs. All of which would be well, it such ignorance or fastidiousness could drive these diseases away. The true way to banish reference to them is to employ Hunt's Remedy, the great kidney and liver methcine, to cure them; and then all mention of them will cease of itself. So long as flesh is heir te such ills, we must tell of the one great specific, Hunt's Remedy, that meets these ills and overcomes them.
