MONDAY EVENING, OCT. 30, 1882,

THE WALKING MATCH. Fitzgerald Wins—All the Scores Below Hazeal's Record. At the close of the pedestrian match at Madison Square garden Saturday night there were only four men left out of the nine who started on Monday morning last, Hart having retired at 2:36 a. m, Saturday with a score of 482 miles and two laps

Shortly after 6 o'clock the four pedestrians ratired to their tents to prepare for their night appearance. At 8 o'clock the men came on the track for the last time. A considerable crowd had been gathered in the garden and the band struck up a lively air. Fitzgerald was dressed in a new suit of white flanuel tights. Noremac was freshened up a little in a white racing suit, with a blue silk cap and breechcloth. Herty stuck to his purple colors and seemed better able to bear the tortures of the last miles than the others. Hughes looked shiny in a new silk shirt but no trappings could light up the deathly little together with the exception of Hughes, whose legs sank under him when he attempted to quicken his pace. Rowell came into the garden at 9 o'clock and whiched from a box the last laps of his former rivals.

Coming near 10 o'clock the audience was very enthusiastic, and cheered the walkers justily as they ran around the track. The following is the final score:

$10,000, and the other expense, including All druggists have it for sale. 15 per cent. to Peter Duryes and advertising, will reduce the net receipts to almost nothing.

SCHNATTERUT WITHDRAWS.

Announcing at a Public Meeting that He is no Longer a Candidate for benator. A Democratic mass meeting was held in the opera house at Conneisburg, Saturday night, and the building was crowded to overflowing. C. F. McKenna, of Pittsburgh, was the first speaker and was listened to with close attention. Patrick J. Dever, of Philadelphia, followed in an earnest speech. Professor Bellum talked politics from a German point of view. His speech was of a humorous turn and excited laughter and applicase. When he sat down there were loud catter h for Senator Thomas B. Schnatterly, who was espied on the street during the day. It was removed that he would withdraw from the senatorial contest in that district, but the report lacked confirmation. His speech was the sensation of the evening. He said that he merely rose to state that he now unconditionally refused the further use of his name as a senatorial candidate in the Fortieth district. He hoped his declination was ample to refute all the calumny his auditors had heard and read. He began the controversy for county separation and never dreamed it would react the length it had. This being a secondary matter, he, by the advice of friends, now yielded to those more important considerations, the success of Democratic principles and state and national reform and he would assist in the election of the whole Democratic ticket. He thanked his friends Democrats, Republicans and Labor voters for their proffers of assistance and especially the latter, whom he took occasion to advise to vote with the Democrats as the surest plan to obtain their rights and remedy their wrongs. C. E. Boyle made the closing speech. He spoke briefly, defining his tariff views. The declination of Senator Schnatterly is a keen disappointment to the Republicans, who hoped to gain by the disaffection in the Democratic ranks.
