Dr. Craig, attended him. The end of a large oar car belonging to one of the Chicques furnaces, was torn away by a slight accident on the Pennsylvania railroad a few days since at the ore mines near Columbia.

A bill now posted on the bulle in board in front of the opera house, war. augainst the defacement of bills whenever they may be posted in this place. A penalty attachcs to this violation of law.

A countryman had his face badly disfigured yesterday while walking on Locust street, by running agains, an awning post. Next time he comes to town he had better watch where he is walking The M. E. church package party, which was held last evening at the residence of Mr. Abram Bruner, was a delightful affair. A neat sum was realized for the church by the sale of the packages. Much merriment was caused when they were opened.

A flock of sparrows which were feeding on Locust street, was put to sudden flight by a pigeon hawk, which carried off one of their number. The little fellows did not stop to fight this enemy, as they usually do to almost any other.

Circus at Marietta. An exhibition of the "Grand Royal Circus" is being held in Marietta to day. It is seldom that a circus comes to Columbia. The license for exhibiting is too large. Our wise borough fathers think it better to have no license than a small and reasonable fee. Their is no accounting for the doings of the great.

l'ocketbook Stolen at Market. A lady was robbed of her pocketbook at market this morning. She had laid it down on a stand for a moment and when she looked for it it was gone. She blames a boy who was standing near at the time for taking it. As the boy was gone also, and as she does not know him, there is no prospect that she will recover her former property.

A Ratiroad Man's Narrow Escape. Mr. Charles Khmerine, an employee of the Pennsylvania railroad company, was almost killed yesterday afternoon while attempting to jump on a platform which is in front of the shifting engine. Had it not been for the fact that there was enough space between the platform and the crosss ties to clear his legs, he would have been instantly killed. As it was, he hung to the platform by his hands, his feet dragging along the track until he was seen by Mr. Phil. Kline, who had the engine stopped. It was a narrow escape.

COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS.

Procedings in the Adjourned Term. Monday Afternoon-Com'th vs. Samuel Eshleman. The defendant was charged with selling diseased meat. It was charged by the commonwealth that in March, 1882, the defendant willfully and unlawfully offered for sale and did sell in this city and county the flesh of a diseased steer. Adam Snyder, the prosecutor, and a number of other witnesses testified that they saw the steer before it was slaugh. tered. It was lame and had a running sore; the disease with which it was afflicted was sweeney. The steer with another was purchased from George Shoff. The defendant sold the sound steer, and the other, which was claimed to have been diseased and which was purchased at a much lower price than the other, was killed and sold.

The defense called George Shoff, the man who sold the steer to Eshleman. He testified that the steer was not diseased at all when killed or sold. The animal had been attacked with sweeney some time previous to being sold to Eshleman, but he was entirely cured before he was sold. A number of persons testified that they purchased and ate meat of this steer, and all declared it to be very good. Those who examined it also declared it to be good. It was was shown that defendant previous to this bore a good character for honesty.

Tuesday Morning-In the case of com'th vs. Samuel Eshleman, charged with selling diseased meat, four speeches were made by counsel this morning, after which the jury retired. They rendered a verdict of not guilty with defendant to pay twothirds of cost and Adam Snyder, prosecutor, one-third Owing to the many political engagements of M. Brosius esq., he is unable to defend George Brimmer, indicted for arson; J. W. Johnson esq., now appears as his counsel. This morning he asked that the case be continued on the ground that he has not had sufficient time to prepare the defense, and further that he desired to give notice that he intended to move to have the indictment quashed. The commonwealth's couusel objected as no legal cause for a continuance had been presented, they had no objection to defense filing a demurrer and having it argued this afternoon. The court informed the counsel for the defense that he had better not rely so strongly on his applica-tion for a continuance. They had decided at the August term to continue the case to this adjourned session. On account of their recent arrest, two months have since elapsed and the defendant had ample time to prepare his defense; the court would not consider the present application

THE BOGUS TAX RECEIPTS. A Hubbub in the Kanks of the Radicals. The exposure yesterday of the larceny of fifty or one hundred tax receipts signed in black by H. B. Voudersmith, tax collector, and alleged to have been stolen from Mr. Vondersmith's desk, has created quite a sensation among the interested parties, and some of the details of the ex posure are denied, but there is no attempt made to deny the fact that the receipts were stolen and some of them put in the hand of persons not entitled to vote. A. F. Shenk denies that erection of ten brick dwellings on Seventh he filled up the fraudulent receipts streen, between Walnut and Chestnut now held by J. Witmer Weaver, and Mr. Vondersmith denies that he said the receipt was filled out in the bandwriting of Al. Shenk or Al. Rauch. A gentleman who was present with our reporter when Mr. Vondersmith made his statement says he understood Mr. Vondersmith to say that he thought the bogus receipt was filled in the hrndwriting of Al. Welchans or Al. Rauch. Mr. Shenk is entitled to this denial. Al. Rauch also denies that he filled up the bogus receipt.

The important thing to be considered by the public is that fifty or one hundred bogus tax receipts are in circulation and will be voted by illegal voters unless the watched.

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT. Caused by Careless Driving.

George Hood, who resides on Rockland street near Middle and a painter by trade, met with a terrible accident this forenoon at the almshouse. He was working on the eastern end of the building for the insane and was standing on a scaffold above the second story, which was supported by two uprights reaching to the ground. About half-past eleven o'elock a man drove between the two insane buildings and the hospital with one of Wenger's lime wagons. He could not have been watching his horses, as one of the wheels struck one of the upright posts, throwing the scaffold down, Mr. Hood fell to the ground, a distance of 20 or 30 feet. He had both hips broken and his left wrist, He also had his head cut and several teeth broken, and is badly injured internally. He was removed to the residence of his father at 320 Middle street, where Dr. Roland attended him.

The injured man is about 32 years of age and he has a wife and family. He is well known in the city and is a hard work ing young man.

A Former Lancaster Lady's Escape. Elsewhere we print an account of the fall of three dwelling houses in the neighhood of Eighth and Noble streets, Philadelphia, and of the narrow escape of the inmates. The third story of one of the buildings, No. 438 Eighth, was occupied by Samuel Nixdorf and wife, formerly of this city. At the time of the catastrophe Mr. Nixdorf was not at home but Mrs. Nixdorf and some neighbors were in the kitchen in rear of the first floor. When the crash caused by the fall of the walls came Mrs. Mercer and her husband and friends in Philadelphia, has returned son and Mrs. Nixdorf ran screaming into their back yard. They escaped without The family of W. H. Pfahler, temporari- serious injury, though somewhat bruised.

He Was Approached-Judge Wylle Very Indignant. WASHINGTON, Oct. 31 .- Quite a sensation was created in the criminal court to day by the foreman of the grand jury placing in Justice Wylie's hands a letter received by him (the foreman), signed by William Dickson. The letter calls the attention of the grand jury to the fact that the wri-clared it to be a highly improper communication and directed the jury to pay no attention to it, adding that he would issue a rule to have the writer brought before him to-morrow morning and show cause why he should not be punished for contempt. The grand jury then retired and regular business of court proceeded. Payne on Trial. WASHINGTON, Oct. 31 .- The first of the bribery cases against Arthur Payne, (colored), came up to-day. William J. Brown, one the Star Route jurors, testified to the facts related in his published affidavit that Payne came to him and said he was sent by a man named Fall to offer WILLIAMSON & FOSTER, him $3,500 for his vote in the Star Route case. Counsel for defense then began a searching cross examination of the wit
