THE ALLEGED INCENDIARY ON TRIAL Charged With Setting Fire to Samue Kanck's Barn—Testimony of Dr. Fitz-patrick Who Arrested Him.

Wennesday afternoon :- In the case of commonwealth ,vs. Mrs. Mary Swayne, charged with adultry, the common wealth offered to show by the record—that John Albert had been convicted of fornication with the defendant. The court overruled the offer.

The defense then called the accuse who positively denied being guilty of the charge, but admitted she had been acquainted with and visited by John Albert A number of witnesses testified to the good character of the defendent for chastity previous to this charge.

Jurors for Next Year. The court yesterday directed the pro thonotary to issue a precept to the jury commissioners of this county, directing them to place in the jury wheel names of electors from the several districts to the number of 1,400, from which shall be drawn those who are to serve as jurges in the courts of 1883.

Thursday morning.-The jury in the case of Mary Swayne, charged with adultry, rendered a verdict of guilty with a recommendation of mercy.

Commonwealth vs. Samuel Hoffman, o this city. The defendant was charged with resisting officer A. G. Pyle, of the city police force, on the night of the 20th of May last. The testimony of the commonweelth showed that on this night Pyle was arresting John Rowe, on North Queen Heirman interfered and tore the officer's deching and scuilled with him. Officer durns finally came up and the men were arrested, except Hoffman, who got away.

The defense was that Hoffman was merely assisting to take Rowe, who was drunk and noisy, to his home; he did not interfere with the arrest or resist the officer, but went away after Rowe had been taken into custody. The jury read-ered a verdict of not guilty with defendaut to pay costs.

Brimmer Arson Case.

The next case attached was that of com'th. vs. George Brimmer, jr., of this city, who is charged with arson, in burning the barn of Samuel Ranck, on the 19th of August, last. Mr. Ranck's barn was situated in Lancaster township just outside of the city limits, and in a northerly direction and just opposite the new alm: house buildings, belonging to the county. The day of this fire the barn belonging to the almshouse was also set on fire and destroyed.

The first witness called was Samuel Ranck, who testified that his barn was destroyed by fire upon the above day. It was started while he was away from home was started while he was away from home at the poor house barn fire. It was about 3 o'clock in the afternoon that the fire of witness' harn took place. There were no men at the place at the time. A horse and several hogs, besides a lot of grain, hay, &c., were burned in the barn. Brimmer was well acquainted around the premises, as he worked right near the barn at one time on some houses for witness, he being a painter by trade.

A map of the premises and immediate neighborhood was explained by the witnees and exhibited to the jury. Adam Smith, driver of the hose cart of engine company No.3 city fire department, testified that on the day of the fire he saw Brimmer in the afternoon; witness was at the engine house when Brimmer came along; he asked where the driver of the engine was; he said "I am going to have some fun this afternoon;" when he was going away he said, "Look out between this and Irishtown:" the alarm for the poor house fire struck from box 13, at East King and Plum streets about an hour after Brimmer had gone. Dr. J. A. Fitzpatrick sworn-I knew George Brimmer on the day of the fire at Ranck's : I was on East King street when the pike; I passed him but did not recognize him and after he had gone I turned and followed him; I kept on up the lane to the pike looking for assistance. Brimmer turned to the right down the pike and crossed a fence into a field on the left, near Kolhauss' bouse; I met Lewis Kolhauss and he went along; we went into the Ko! hauss property and through it and came into a potato field; by that time Brimmer had got around into a tobacco field of Bair's; he was going eastward, directly toward the barn of Mr. Ranek. We kept on behind him until we got behind Clark's barn ; by that time Brimmer had gotten to Rank's barn, back of which he was there were some bushes along the barn which he pushed aside, and then disap peared from view between the bushes and the barn; he was out of my sight five stooping position, and walked a few steps to a fence, leading to the road; he got out in the road and was out of through Mr. Clark's residence and kept o through the gate on the pike ; Kolhaurefused to go along say further; I wendown the pike and David Bair came up at that time I was looking towards the baru; I saw Brimmer coming out awa from the barn, from behind a fence right near it, and also saw a volume of smol issuing from it; I was standing 75 yard from the point where I saw Bring my eyes on Brimmer, and he ran dow the road ; Daniel Gemperling was coming along the road in a wagon; Brimme jumped up and got in his wagon; I calle Mr. Bair to assist me in arresting Brimmer; I yelled "Fire," and called upo Gemperling to stop; he did finally stop and I went up and found Brimmer in th wagon; he was excited and perspiring; told him I wanted him for firing the barn he finally got of the wagon, and as he di he said: "Doc, you are a marked man. I then took him in charge and handed him over to Officer Burns; Brimmer wore ligh pantaloops and a dark short coat an This witness was subjected to a very long cross examination but nothing ner

Isaac Kinear, an engineer, of engine No. 3 of the city fire department, testified that he got to the poor house fire just after the engine had been started; Brimmer came up and stood against the engine; he asked how the engine was working and soon passed out through the gate leading to-

THE LUTHERANS

Proceedings of the Harrisburg Conference in Session at Millersville. The Harrisburg conference of the Lath eran church, in session at Millersville on Tuesday afternoon, after spending an hour on business matters, took up the subject, "The Reformation and its personal strug-gles," October 31, being the anniversary of the Reformation.

On this subject a short but excellent essay was read by Rev. C. Reimensnyder. followed by a forcible address by Rev. W. P. Evans, of Columbia, and remarks by others. In the evening a large children's meet-ing was held, presided over by Henry Bowman, esq., of Millersville, the capable and efficient superintendent of Bethany Lutheran Sunday school. Addresses were delivered by Revs. Reimensnyder, Cook. Henry and Finkbiner. The latter speaker made tender reference to the death of Rev. A. D. Rowe, the general synod's children's missionary in India, which recently occurred.

The Wednesday morning session was taken up discussing the important question The significance of infaut baptism.' The discussion was opened with an able essay by Rev. George C. Henry, of Miliersburg. He was followed by remarks | the patient to the members present. by Revs. Eckert, Evans, Reimensnyder and Meister. The subject, as developed by the speakers, left the impres-sion that the children of Christian parents, in virtue of the covenant relation by birth, and their confiding and reliant faith, and incapability of damning unbelief, ought to be baptized according to the word of God and the nature of Christianity and organization of the church. The baptism is an ordinance of grace and blessing to the subject, and a guarantee and promise of Christion education and training in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. profitable manne by Revs. Eckert, Wirt, Evans and Stali. Preparatory services to communion were also held, when Rev. W. P. Evans preached very eloquent and searching sermon. The Lord's Supper was celebrated in the evening. The Rev. John Wirt, of Lykens, president of conference, preached a ser-mon full of earnestness and energy. This was perhaps the largest communion ever held in the church, and the members of church, yesterday afternoon united in conference and many of the members of nion. other churches surrounded the table of the Lord.

THE DRAMA.

"Friend and Foe" at the Opera House. It was a pity that this beautiful comedy frama which was so well presented last audience, though only fair in numbers, appeared eminently pleased with the per-formance, if we may judge from the re-peated encores which greeted the good points of the play. The scene of the play is laid in France in the time of the Franco Prussion war, and the interest centres The heavy villain of the play, who wishes to marry the heroine, as usual holds the mortgage on the property. The hero's eventual success and the heavy villain's final discomfiture are very cleverly worked out in the many thrilling incidents of the

The singing of Mr. Scaulan as Carroll Moore, the young Irish hero, was particu larly good, and elicited several encores. He made a ten-strike by his exquisite ren dering of the final song of the evening the audience by her winning ways and sprightly acting. The rest of the cast fully met the requirements of the occa-

Several interesting cases were presented and discussed. The subject for general discussion at the present meeting was "Bright's disease of the kidneys." The discussion was ably opened by Dr. Steh-man, of this city, and discussed by several other members.

The subject chosen for discussion at next meeting is "Whooping cough and its com-plications." Dr. Newpher, of Mount Joy, was appointed to open the discussion.

Adjourned. CORMENT'S CANVASS.

Is He Carrying Water on Both Shoulders In a card printed in the New Era, Geo. W. Cormeny, the Republican candidate for Assembly from this city denies that he made an affirmative answer to the interrogations made him by the excentive committee of the county temperance associa-tion, and adds that he is unpledged on this or any other question.

In reply to Mr. Cormeny, P. S. Goodman, secretary of the executive committee of the county temperance association, makes affidavit that Mr. Cormeny utters a deliberate falsehood; that after having received the temperance circular, he said to Mr. Goodman, "If elected I will vote for this measure, as it throws the responsibility on the people themselves;" that Mr. Cor-meny only last week called at Mr. Goodman's house for a package of the temper-ance circulars, and that they were sent to him. Mr. Goodman closes his sworn statement by saying that Mr. Cormeny "regards not conscience, self-respect or truth, and yields an implicit obedience to the mandates of the bosses." Evidently Mr. Cormony has been carry. ing water on both shoulders, and one of the buckets has fallen off. To avoid deception and betraya! voto for honest Elim G. Snyder.

MORE ARRESTS IN PHILADELPHIA. Ward Assessors, United States Supervisors and Election Ufficers Accused of

Falsely Swelling the Regis-

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 2.—Attorney Gen eral Brewster has telegraphed United States Marshall Kerns, in view of discovery of extensive irregularities in registration of voters, to make thorough investigation where fraud is suspected, and to cause the arrest not only of supervisors and assessors but election officers.

Lewis Ryan was arrested this morning for making false returns of voters in the First division of the Fourth ward. He was the assessor and furnished the names which were duplicated by Frank Johnston and Edward Lonergan, the supervisors who were arrested in September for falsifying the returns. In one house, No. 604 Penn street, it was shown that but three of the thirty-six persons registered were legal voters.

Three other warrants were issued this morning and two arrests made. The prisoners are John Harrity, Democratic ssessor, and John Mooney, United States supervisor, who are accused of making fraudulent registration in the Eighth division of the Fourth ward. The other supervisor, Samuel Weisenthal, has not yet been arrested. An examination of lists prepared by these men shows that 140 persons have been returned as voters from ouses on Alaska street between Fifth and Sixth streets. An effort was made to sub poens these people, and of fifty names taken from the list only four were found. Twenty-five letters were sent through the post office, and twenty of them were returned. Ryan waived a hearing and entered bail for appearance at court. The others were for a hearing to morrow before United States Commissioner Gibbons.

INGERSOLL'S STRICTURES.

What Governor Wells and Counseller Key WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 2.—Governor Wells said to-day, speaking of the latest publication of Col. Ingersoll that it was only an argument in which the latter endeavored unsuccessfully to overturn the facts set out in his (Gov. Well's) re port. It is evident, he said, that the whole scheme was simply an attempt to forestall this investigation. They have begun this business and now, I believe, they are heartily sorry they did it and wish themselves out of it. If you have watched the proceedings in the police court you noticed that $1,000 trans action. That is likely to develop into a matter of great interest.

Counsellor Ker said he did not see any necessity for a reply on his part to Inger soll's strictures upon him. "His whole argument is unsubstantial," he said, "and is a distortion of the facts."
