Barn-Additional Witnesses called.

The Defense Open Their Case. Thursday Agternoon-The trial of Geo. Brimmer, jr., was resumed at 2:30 p. m. Louis Kohlhaus testified that he ac companied Dr. Fitzpatrick on the day mentioned and corroborated what the doctor had said. After they separated he saw the doctor and Baer with Brim-

David Baer also testified in corrobora tion of what Dr. Fitzpatrick had stated in reference to the affair. Daniel Gemperling in substance reiterated all that Dr. Fitzpatrick had previously testified to. Milton Flowers, sworn-On the after noon of the 19th of August last, I was coming from Keller & Reilly's contract to Armstrong's contract on the new line of the P. R. R. Arriving there I came through the field north from the barn towards the Philadelphia pike; as I got over the fence of the field adjoining the road, I saw, Pitzpatrick and Kohlhaus walking towards me, 100 yards away from Ranck's barn. They were looking towards Ranck's barn; I looked and saw something in the chicken yard near the barn saw the bushes near by open; saw some one climb over the fence and disappear; after wards saw Fitzpatrick and Baer bringing Brimmer up; he was the same one I saw in the chicken yard; from the corner of the Groffstown road and the pike one can see a person coming from the barn. A severe cross-examination eligited few new facts of importance, Michael Burns, sworn-I was in a buggy at the junction of the poorhouse lane and the Philadelphia pike when called upon by Dr. Fitzpatrick to make the arrest; arrested defendant and took him to Alderman McConomy's : Brimmer there said that he was going to meet two girls, known as Coldchisel and Jimson Weed, at the creek on the afternoon when the fire oc curred: witness stated that from the corner of road and pike anyone coming from the barn could be seen.

Cross-examined-Did not say to Brimmer at the jail that Dr. Fitzpatrick was claiming the merit of the arrest for the sake of the reward; the reward was not

Christian Gast sworn-Witness testified that at the alderman's, Brimmer said he made arrangments with two girls Coldchisel and Jimson Weed for that afternoon : that he met James McKewen between 1 and 2 o'clock; that he went to buy crackers at Ginder's when he heard poorhouse alarm, and that when at the poorhouse fire he remembered his

Sue Kieffer when called denied all knowledge of the engagement at the creek, and also declared that no one was present when she saw defendant. Mr. Ranck was recalled and cross-examination elicited the fact that his new barn is built on the same foundation as the one that was burnt.

Dr. Fitzpatrick on being recalled stated that from his point of view the whole person of any one opposite the barn could be seen. He also stated that the fire was would have done more in the interest of first seen from the west side and not from the roof.

H. N. Howell, chief engineer of the fire department, and David Baer both corroborated Dr. Fitzpatrick's testimony as to the fact that a man's whole person could language, which was not at all be seen from the junction of the pike and suitable for a gentleman to utter. the Groffstown road. The Defense

J. W. Johnson, esq., in opening the defense briefly outlined what they proposed

A. C. Leonard sworn. - Was at the poor house barn fire from time fire began to the entire three quarters of an hour in make headway until it was nearly out. When two thirds way up the lane I saw a flame ascending from Ranck's barn and applause from the truly loyal of Salisbury, gave the alarm. I ran along the hedge fence to the northwest corner of the barn and saw the flame come from centre of barrassing silence, until President Jos. C. barn. I got on the road, came to carriage | Walker proposed three cheers for General house and was about to open the door, when a man in shirt sleeves told me not to open it as everything was out. I never before saw defendant.

Frank Calder sworn.-There is a rise below the corner of the pike and road and the road opposite the barn. It is 392 steps from Ranck's barn to poorhouse barn. Mrs. Pontz, swern-Saw Sue Kieffer, Kate Jamison, George Brimmer and John Utzinger from my own room on the corner of John and Locust streets, the afternoon presence of Sue Kieffer; heard Kate Jamison ask Brimmer if he was going to the creek; Brimmer said he had a mind to go that way; shortly afterwards Brimmer and Utzinger went down Locust street. John Utzinger's testimony was in the main a confirmation of what Mrs. Poutz

Benjamin Phillips, sworu-I never knew defendant; was working in the stone quarry to the left of the Groffstown road, -mile from Ranck's barn in a northwest direction, on the day in question ; heard poor house barn alarm and was coming up the lane towards East Chestnut street. when I saw a man running; I asked, "What's wrong?" he appeared confused and frightened and said there was a bara burning; he had on a striped shirt and was in his shirt sleeves.

Patrick Hardy, who was with Phillips, corroborated all that he had said. Adam Ziegler sworn-Was with Mr. Hagelgans when he passed Ranck's barn; saw no one in the read; I heard horses

Thomas Bowman's testimony was in substance that of Zeigler's. Geo. Brimmer sworn-Was in Kieffer's cigar store talking to Sue Kieffer the carly part of the afternoon; on the corner of John and Locust streets; I asked her whether she was going to stick to that that she and McKewen had agreed upon; she said yes ; the night before I met Laura Broome and another girl on North Queen street : I promised to meet them the next afternoon, and walk out to the creek with them; they said they would meet me at the corner of John and East King streets; they not arriving in time agreed upon, I went to Ginder's to get some cheese; heard the poor house alarm; then saw Isaac Kinnear, the engineer, and asked him how the engine was doing; I then ran up the lane as far as the pike, but did not see McKewen; thinking latter was at the creek, I determined to make a short cut through the fields, but changed my mind and came out past Ranck's barn to make search for McKewen and the rest of the party at the poorhouse fire. I hailed Mr. Gemperling, who was driving past and took a seat on the side of the wagon. was raised and the barn was in flames. On trial. Friday Morning .- In the case of com'th vs. George Brimmer charged with arson, the defense continued to call witnesses.

Michael Gorman testified he saw Brim mer on the afternoon of the fire on East King street near John; after he left him and had walked a square the alarm for the almshouse fire was sounded. Several others testified to the same facts.

Sarah Walton testified that she saw the defendant on the night before the fire and made an engagement with him to meet him at the creek on that afternoon at 2 o'eleek. A number of witnesses were called to prove that between the point on the pike, eferred to in the commonwealth's testimony there is an obstruction and it is impossible to see the whole of a man's person, if he be standing right opposite the barn, by persons on the pike. The defense here rested.

The commonwealth contended that the defense were mistaken as to the point on the pike. They called David Baer and Win. H. Inman, who testified that they examined the premises, this morning. They placed two children at the spot where Brimmer emerged from the barn. They could very easily be seen from the point in the pike.

Henry Hawthorne testified that he was working at the almshouse and saw Brimmer there immediately after the fire at that barn was discovered; no engines or other fire apparatus had yet arrived. Christian Cramer testified that he saw Brimmer at the almshouse barn fire before any alarm was given or any fire apparatus had arrived. George Rote also testified to having seen Brimmer just previous to the fire. Several others swore to the same. Samuel Ranck testified that his barn was covered with slate and then the testimony closed.

Watchers Appointed. John S. Kieffer, Republican, was ap pointed an election watcher for Ephrata township and J. F. Foltz for Carnarvon.

REPUBLICAN MEETING.

A Metancholy Affair—Serenading the Wrong

The Republican mass meeting, held at the Gap on Wednesday evening, to revive the waning cause of Cameronism, was : failure, as the majority of the meetings of that stripe have been in that section of the county, this campaign. One hundred persons or more were present, and, as one Christian Haglegans, sworn—I was of the Stalwarts, who was making a coming through the fields from Arm- collection for the band, accidently yards from Ranck's barn, I saw Brimmer he ran across a "xicker." A lurge numcome out of the barn door at the same time ber of prominent speakers were booked to rking with his pantaloons as though speak; among them was Hon. J. M. John. son, of Tennessee and J. Vannote, of Philadelphia. Not one of the advertised speakers made their appearance, but a young man, by the name of Compton, who his party had he stayed entirely away from this meeting, was sent here as a substitute tor the illustrious speakers. He spoke at some length, during which time he used some very profaue and improper language, which was not at all He admitted that the Republican party was defeated already and will be on Nov. 7. if the disagreeing factions do not unite. which is now an impossibility. One solid Republican declared that the speaker described a slap on his mouth. During which the young man spoke not one good point (and they were very few) received and when he terminated his tiresome ha rangue and sat down there was on em Beaver, which were tardily given.

In the course of the evening the Nickel Mine band, headed by a prominent Stalwart, serenaded the faithful of the village, and Mr. William Lytle, who was also chosen vice president of the meeting. Now Mr. Lytle is an ardent supporter of the Democratic party, but being somewhat conservative in politics, it is quite likely our friends made a sad mistake, which they found out too late to rectify. Mr. Lytle authorizes us to state that he has been a mentioned; heard an arrangement in lifelong Democrat, is a Democrat at the present time, and will cast his vote for Robert Emory Pattison; and further, he intends to remain an adherent to Democracy as long as it retains the grand old Jeffersonian principles.

THE NUPTIAL KNOT.

A Brilliant Wedding in High Life. Another notable matrimonial event took place last evening, at the residence of Mrs. Wm. M. Wiley, East Orange street, when Eugene G. Smith, esq., a rising young lawyer of the Lancaster bar, was united in marriage to Miss Margaret Jean Wiley, eldest daughter of the late Col. Wm. M. Wiley. The ceremony took place at 5 p. m., and was performed by Rev. J. Y. Mitchell, D. D., according to the ritual of the Prosbyterian church. Promptly on the bour the groom attended by his best man, bottles, and I feel wonderfully good, well and Licutenant Buchanan, of the Fourteenth strong agata. My bowels are regular, my apregiment, U. S. A., and the officiating minister entered the parlor, preceded by two ushers holding the ends of two white kicking; turned and saw the barn was en satin ribbons. Next followed the bride, accompanied by her mother and the maid of honor. And lastly came the remain ing two ushers holding the other ends of the satin ribbons. Arrived in the parlor the party balted and the ushers drew the ribbons at right angles to each other, thus enclosing the bridal party and making a very pretty as well as novel spectacle.

The ceremony was then performed, after which a reception was held, which lasted from 6 p. m. until 8 p. m. Augustine, of Philadelphia, furnished the entertainment, which was in the best style of the famous caterer's art. Many distinguished society people from this city and points abroad

At 8:50 the bride and groom took the eastern bound train on their wedding tour. The younger portion of the assemblage, after the departure of the newly wedded pair kept up the festivities until a the from his late residence, No. 64 North Queen hour.

A meeting of the Democracy of Washngton borough was held on Wednesday evrning. Mr. Fred. Snyder, of this place, spoke at some length on the issues of the campaign. He was roundly applauded. The bridges of the Port Deposit railroad were inspected to-day. The inspecting party passed through here this morning.

After all the inspecting that has been done on this road lately it will be strange if anything out of order escapes detection. Miss Sarah Hollinger, who died yesterday afternoon at her late residence on Walnut street, will be buried to-morrow afternoon. The services will be held at her late residence. The friends are invited to be present. After the fourth act of "Friend and Foe," which was presented hero last evening to a poor audience, the aunouncement for the appearance here of the Sulli van combination to-morrow evening was made; also that the world celebrated tra gedienne, Madame Janauschek, will appear November 11.

M. L. J. Schroeder, who is now in Philadelphia attending a course of lectures in pharmacy, has just passed the necessary examination before the city's examining board, which permits him to be a prescriptive clerk in any city drug store.

A York county farmer named Joseph Latz, was thrown from his buggy while his horse was running away, yesterday, and had one of his legs broken. He had been attending to ousiness in Wrightsville and was returning home at the time of the accident.

The Sullivan Combination. The John L. Sullavan combination were to have given an entertainment in Harrisburgh to-night, but through the advance agent's mismanagement no preparations had been made to receive them. The entire company is now in Columbia. Every one, men as well as boys, exhibit an eager curiosity to see America's pugilist champion. There is no doubt but that they will have a full house to-morrow evening. Any person will be given an opportunity to spar with the Boston heavyweight. The popular rates of ad misssion will prevail.

OBITUARY.

Leath of Thos. Bayard Daffy. The many friends of Col. James Duffy, of Marietta will be pained to hear of the death of his second son, Thomas Bayard Duffy, which occurred suddenly at an early hour this morning from croup. He was a bright intelligent boy of only nine years and his sunny disposition and play. ful manners made him a great favorite with all who knew him. His unusually robust appearance makes his sudden death all the more startling. His bereaved parents have the full sympathy of the ommunity in this their sad affliction.

This is to let the people know that I, Anna Maria Krider, wife of Tobias Krider, am now past seventy-four years of age. My health has been very bad for some years past. I was troubled with weakness, bad cough, dyspepsia, great debility and constipation of the bowels. I was so miserable I could hardly eat anything. I heard of Hop Eitters, and was petite good and cough all gone. I feel so well that I think it my duty to let people know, as so many knew how bad I was, what the medicine has done for me, so they can cure themselves with it. ANNA M. HOYT IN REVOLT.

A LETTER DEFINING HIS POSITION. The Governor Sends a Trumpet Blast Along the Line of the Independents, De.

THIRD EDITION.

nouncing the Machine, PHILADELPHIA, Nov. S .- The following has been received here : " HARRISBURG, Pa., Nov. 3.

To the Editor of the Evening Telegraph, Phil-"The following letter to Wharton Barker, esq., goes by this afternoon's mail to Philadelphia. You are requested to publish it to day. "HENRY M. HOYT. " HARRISBURG, Pa., Nov. 3. To Wharton Barker, Esq., Philadelphia. "Adhering to the accepted traditions of our people I must decline while holding a public office essentially non-partisan to take any part in a distinctive political meeting. This point of pro-priety, which need not be urged, will forbid my acceptance of your invitation to preside over the assembly of Independent Republicans at Horticultural hall in Philadelphia to night. If I understand the object of this gathering of careful and judicious citizens it is to give effect to certain convictions affecting the political welfare of state. It is the assertion of the inherent right of the freemen of a republic to declare the proper aims and ends sure that these connections will be of public conduct, and to proclaim their own motives and purposes. This right inheres in every individual and in every assembly.

"A political party is no voluntary association and in no sense does its right to exist depend upon its numerical size or upon the accident of its including the mere brute force of 'a majority.' When standing room is no longer allowed to the member of a political party with a margin for selfrespect; when its lines become simply coterminous with the limits of some usurping dynasty; when in all the space between abject submission and rebellion no place is given for appeal, argument, or protest, revolution is an appropriate remedy. All proud and generous minds will resist the imposition of serfdom and will leave to villians and retainers their badge of this movement which flippantly classes them as 'soreheads and 'kickers' Our Prices the Lowest, mistakes the voting power of Pennsylvania manhood. Their is an undeniable justification for your uprising. Its grounds are and plain to the people, whether accepted or not. The tens of thousands of the best instructed, most conscientious and spirited citizens who have joined in this method of uprooting palpable public > of vengeance being contrived for those now considered in revolt. Some of these rebels, nay most of them, are among the most courageous spirits in the state. They know the humiliation it costs proud men to have masters, their moral power crushed out in repeated call to surrend r to the gross demands of those who only see in party success the means of patronage distribution and that made in the interest of personal power. "When I reflect upon the humiliation put upon myself as chief magistrate for resisting some of the purposes of the machine which puts politics above ad ministrative propriety, and when I reflect upon the force of the insulting methods applied to myself by means of threats. intrigue and bad faith, I realize some of Cardinal Wolsey's regrets that he 'had only served his God with half the zoal he bad his king.' " In the name of deceney and in behalf of my successor, I wish to emphasize the cause of the whole businers and sound a note of warning to the whole people. Self-respect compels me to this avowal. Nor will peace ever come until the moral forces in politics which you have organized prevail. If your courage be added to this conviction the masses of voters would promptly rally to your standard and aid ; you to an overflowing success. And such sche duty of the voters of Pennsylvania "The logic of the situation which corfronts you and which confronts the electors of the state demands a speedy decision and final result. With such a tre

umphant outcome the Republican voters, at least, will have rescued their party from present peril and from future out "Thus no revenges will be left outstanding, for no revenges will be possible. Brutal schemes of slaughter now contemplated will be abandoned, and the faction al stiletto and the guillotine, now prepared for 'bolters' and 'rebels' wil! not be put to their intended use. In the future the halls of the Loch iel house at Harrisburg will no longer 1e sound with the tread of claquers hastily sent to summon self respecting and honorable delegates of the people to a base submission to 'slated' tickets and prearranged programmes; threatened with ostracism in case of non-compliance, or sent home dishonored to face the angry constituents whom they retrieve the larger constituents whom they retrieve the period of th have betrayed. And thus will developed the power before which have been compelled to bow all who have sought honors or promotions at the hands of Republican constituencies. "With your ultimate success will have been made an exhibition of moral courage in our state and the reaping of beneficial results from peaceful methods which shall more grandly than ever demonstrate the capacity of the people for self govern-

"In making this declaration I have no disposition to disavow any share I individually may have had in thelpartisan methods against which the Independent movement is not, only a revolt but a revolution. I am simply conscious that I utter thoughts and feelings which stir to their depths the minds and hearts of thousands in this great Commonwealth.

Emerson says: "If you do not know your way, hoist a sail, and drift: the current knows he way, if you dont." Many a man with pains in his back, with dropsical limbs, or other airments that indicate kidney troubles, is trouble about it, but doesn't know what to method of uprooting palpable public wrongs attest. Other tens of thousands of such citizens sympathize with you, and only doubt whether your heroic survey is the best treatment. For myself I had not seen my way clear to act with you. I had expected to drift along, giving the Republican ticket a formal support, and I have done so. I have to friends here main tained that attitude until now. At this late day I am fully advised of the methods of vengeance being contrived for those increasing the publicant is increasing in volume every day, and is bearing out on its beneficent bosom thousands of bottles of this wonderful Remedy to afflicted homes all over the land. This current of public opinion is sweeping the physicians with it, who are putting Hunt's Remedy among their most valued prescriptions in cases of disorders of the bladder, liver or kid-
