THE FIRE BUOS.

Two More of the Gang Arrests !. As stated in Saturday's INTELLIGENCER Chief Howell went to Middletown on that day for the purpose of arresting Charles Miller, charged with incendiarism. On reaching Middletown, Chief Howell learn Td that Christ. Swartz, who is also charged with being one of the incendiaries, was working in the pipe mill at that place. Having a warrant for his arrest, the chief went to the mill and Swartz was pointed out to him. While the chief was reading the warrant to him, he made a dart from the mill and ran at full speed along the river road with the chief in hot pursuit. The latter drew his revolver and threatened to shoot unless Swartz stopped, but no attention was paid to the threat. After running about three squares Swartz turned to look back and fell. In a moment the chief was upon him, and with a revolver at his head summoned him to surrender, which he did. He took him to his boarding house and allowed him to change his clothes. He then arrested Miller, who gave him no trouble, and lodged them in jail. John Staley, who Brimmer charges with arson, furnished bail before Mayor Mac-Gonigle in the sum of $2,000 on Saturday night and was discharged.

THE PRISON. Meeting of the Inspectors To-day. To-day the board of prison inspectors seld their regular monthly meeting. All members were present and a number of pills were approved. Frederick Miller, a watchman, was discharged, as it was shown that he had neglected his duty in failing to put in appearance at the prison when he should have been there. Amos Lutz was unanimously elected his successor.

Keeper Burkholder made a statement to the board to the effect that prisoners have been furnished with citizens clothing and watchmen have received money from prisoners. Underkeepers Murr and Smith, Night Watchman Reed, Cigar Boss Herr and Clerk Warfel were examined. They knew nothing in regard to the furnishing of clothing. They knew that all clothes are kept in one cell. Up to some weeks ago the medicine has done for me, so they can all around the prison had a key to the cure themselves with it. cell, as it was the same as all others. A new lock has now been put upon the cell, and the watchman do not have keys to it. It was shown that when the prisoners are admitted to the institution, all of their citizens clothing is taken from them. Recently some of them have been seen wear ing their hats and vests. In regard to the money Watchman Reed stated that he borrowed $10 from Joe Buzzard. He got it from the cigar bess, after asking Mr. Burkholder's advice. It was shown that Fred M.Her had upon several different occasions borrowed money of prisoners. No action was taken in the matter. The following committee was appointed to make the inventory: Hoffmeir, Hagen and Carter and Solicitor Sproul.

Bogus Tax Receipts.

Remember, Democrats, one hundred tax receipts signed in blank were stolen from Tax Collector Vondersmith's desk, and are now in the hands of unscrupulous Republicans who will have personators and other disqualified persons vote upon them. Watch the polling places, especially in the western wards, and have every man atrested that attempts to vote on one of the bogus Vendersmith receipts. A liberal reward is offered for the detection and conviction of illegal voters.

Newaro of Spurious Tickets. Spurious tickets are in circulation for the purpose of deceiving unwary Democrats. One of these that has been widely circulated in all the wards of the city is the full Democratic county ticket with the name of George W. Cormeny the Republican candidate substituted for Elim G. Snyder the Democrat candidate for As sembly. Examine your ticket carefully before voting and see that the name of ELIM G. SNYDER is upon it.

DISASTROUS FLAMES.

Heavy Loss by Fire in Portland, Maine. PORTLAND, Me., Nov. 6 .- Fire on the south side of Commercial street this morning destroyed the building occupied porters, Belknap & Co., tallow chandlers, and Frank Davis, agricultural implements, also the building on the confect of Contral wharf, occupied by Randall & Co., flour and groceries. On the west side it destroyed the stores of Stevens & Co., iron merchants, and Curtis & Davis, fish dealers. In the rear it burned the extensive cooperage of Walter Nimball. The buildings were of wood and not valuable, but the loss on stock will be very heavy.

CHIME PRUSTRATED.

An Engineer Makes a Timely Discovery. READING, Pa., Nov. 6.-The engineer of the midnight express on the Lebanon Valley railroad discovered some heavy pieces of timber placed on the track near Wernersville. He was unable to stop in time, but luckily his engine threw the obstructions from the track instead of running over them. A short distance further on he discovered a hand ear on the track but was able to stop in time. It appears that some one broke into the tool house and pushed the hand car on the track. No arrests have yet been made.

Wales' Tribute to Longfellow. LONDON, Nov. 6 .- The Prince of Wales has consented to act as chairman of the Longfellow memorial committee.
