OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE.

Events Along the Susquehanna—Items of Interest in and Around the Borough.

Miss Emily Hoffer has gone to Dauphin, Pa., to visit friends. A freight car of the Pennsylvania railroad jumped from a side track this morning at Union street.

Mr. Will Allison, at present engaged in business in York, came home today to put in his vote.

Miss Cora Stair, of Hanover, Pa., is visiting Mrs. Emma Schroder, on Locust street.

Dr. E. W. Goerke, at present chief of the engineer corps of a new Maryland railroad, is now on a short visit to his family here.

On Thanksgiving, at 10:30 A. M., the usual union service of the Protestant churches will be held in the E. E. Lutheran church, on Second street.

Mr. Jacob Stoner's residence, near Columbia, was entered by thieves a few nights ago and robbed of a considerable quantity of provisions.

After a long vacancy the pulpit of the Presbyterian church was finally filled last evening. The Rev. G. W. Ely, of Wyoming, Pa., was unanimously chosen.

A colored man had his nose broken last night while fighting with another colored man. The latter struck him across the face with a club. No arrests.

The troupe which will present "Uncle Tom's Cabin" in the opera house to night, arrived this morning. It comes highly recommended. The prices of admission are as usual.

Foot Mangled.

W. C. Geiter, a brickman, son of Christian Geiter, met with an accident while coupling cars in the rear of the Pennsylvania railroad warehouse Tuesday, which might have proved very serious. It appears that while in the act of coupling his left foot was caught in a frog, and before he could extricate himself, the outer edge of the ear wheel passed over the front portion of his foot mangle it considerably.

The injured party, to his extreme disgust and to the knowledge of his friends, was removed immediately to the residence of his father-in-law, No. 40 South Water street, where medical attention was rendered by Dr. Boyd and Dr. McCormick.

At an election of officers of the Lancaster and Littleport turnpike company, held at the Starburg house, on Nov. 6th, 1882, the following officers were elected:

President—Henry G. Long, Managers—E. P. Keller, A. S. Keller, R. A. Baer, J. W. Eby, B. Long Jr., A. W. Shober, H. H. Tshudy.

The mayor this morning sent one drunk to jail for a short term for being drunk, and discharged several vagrants.

Amusements. Lovell's Giganteus Minstrel to Night—Persons who attend the minstrel entertainment at Fulton opera house to-night will hear the election returns from the state.

Rescued from Death. The following statement of William J. Cough Jr., of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we are asked for it by the attention of our readers.
