THE ARSON CASES.

TO-DAY'S HEARING OF THE CASES. Other Cases Heard Before Alderman Barr

This Morning-"Tid" Brimmer Still Telling What He Knows. The first case attached was that of Harry Snyder, charged with firing the stable of Junius B. Kauffman, on Grant street. George Brimmer, sworn-I can't remember the night of the fire ; Harry Snyder and I were at the court house that night at Duke and Orange; we got several drinks at Urich's, and then walked up Grant street; at Kauffman's barn there was a manure pile; I looked over the fence and said "Here would make a pre!'y good one;" he agreed with me, un I set the stable on fire; after lighting we went up the alley to Lime it et, thence to East King and American 1030 house. At Shippen and East King , e met Ed Price and then saw the light of the burning building. I did not see Sayder Nothing had been said about setting fire to any building at the time we were at Urich's. Snyder did nothing toward firing the building and did not tell me to. The commonwealth did not ask that this charge be pressed. He was therefore discharged on it.

Mactionigie's Barn on Middle Street. Snyder was also charged with burning MacGonigle's barn on Middle street in April, 1881. George Brimmer test fied as Snyder and I were in the he e-house this night, and both agreed to set fire to MacGonigle's stable ; we went over to the barn and fired it, after which we returned to the hose-house; Suyder then asked me to go along back, as it looked as though it was out; he then asked Christ Schwartz togo along, and he did; they were gone but a short time, when they returned and said it was going right.

× I don't remember if we spoke of bring the stable when we left the engine bouse; both of us were very drunk. I don't remember who applied the match; we were about five minutes away from the

A family of three were almost suil ket ted by coal gas last night at Reading. The case of Bill Jones, charged with attempting to shoot Guiteau was called to-day and continued until next week.

RACK PRESECUTION.

The Anti-Jewish Agitation in Vienna. VIENNA, Nov. 10 .- There was no renewal of rioting in the suburbs last evening, owing probably to the prevalence of a storm, but eight hundred men assembled in a western suburb. The president of the police has had a conference with the commander of the military forces to consider what measures should be taken to prevent riots in the future. Many bills having the inscription "Down with the Jews," have been torn down by the police from the gas lamps. The agitators have posted bills urging the working people not to be intimidated by

A Murderer's Counsel Pleads for Suspen

WILMINGTON, Nov. 10 .- Collingwood Hallet, convicted last month of murder in the first degree in killing James Deputy, at Milford, and who has since conviction exhibited symptons of insanity, was brought into court at Georgetown this morning, for decision as to whether sentence of death should be pronounced on him. He looked wild and haggard and trembled in every joint.

His counsel plead for suspension of sentence until Hallet's sanity or insanity could be authoritively determined, and the court granted a suspension until April next to allow the next Legislature to take some action in the case. An Error Discovered. NEW YORK, Nov. 10 .- Justic Culler, of the King's county supreme court, to day made an order directing the canvassers of the 3d district, 12th ward, to file the return of the votes canvassed. There is a dispute between the candidates for Assembly, and the canvassers have discovered an error. Justice Cullen holds that no correction can be made until the canvass by the county board is made.

The End of a Costly Lawsuit. PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 10.-The supreme court in the case of Wm. J. King & Sons, vs. the Guidnick company, Wm. Sprague, president, in which General Butler last evening began his argument for the defense, this morning declined to hear further argument, but instructed the jury to find a verdict for the plaintiff for the full amount, $327,968.

ments. The Keystone State means that there is an irrepressible conflict between tyranny and freedom, and one or the other must succumb. So there is between health and disease. Every force that fights successfully against disease should be heartily welcomed. Such a force—a nost in itself—is Hunt's Remedy, and its special line of attack is against kidney and liver diseases, over which it achieves a wonderful triumph if you have bottly weakness, an aching, a general sense weariness or inertia, or dropsical symptoms; if the kidneys or liver are deranged, there is no such medicine as Hunt's Remedy. It gives notice to all such diseases to quit. Pennsyl-vania is right; both Hunt's Remedy and these diseases can't survive, and it is they that are banished.
