TO-NIGHT'S PARADE.

A Steer That Will be Driven in the Line A fine ox, which was brought from Virginia by Edward Yohn, of Mountville, was brought to this city this morning at an early hour and is now quartered at Brimmer's livery stable. He will appear in the Democratic parade this evening and will be driven in a baggy like a horse, with bridle, collar and full set of single harness. He was driven to Columbia last night, but as the parade did not take place he was brought back to this city, hitched to an open buggy, and hauling a couple of men. He is a very intelligent animal and will create lots of fun.

The Young Men's Democratic club will meet this evening at headquarters, North Queen street, at 71 o'clock, for parade. The First ward will meet at Henry Neimer's saloon at 7 o'clock and the Millersville band will furnish the music.

The Second ward club will start from Ransing's saloon, on East Orange screet, where they will meet at 7 o'clock. A large drum corps will furnish the music. The Fifth ward will meet at Philip Wall's saloon at 7 o'clock.

The Seventh ward Pattison club last evening elected Frederick Arnold chief marshal and John Waters assistant marshal of the club for the parade this evening. The clu's will meet at B. Kuhlman's saloon, Rock and street, at 7 o'clock. The Eighth ward will meet at Poutz' saloon, at 7 o'clock. The Ninth ward club will meet at Ar nold Haas' hotel promptly at 7 o'clock. They will be accompanied by the Eden cornet band in the parade.

The different committees appointed by the Democracy to make arrangements for to-night's parade, met at the headquarters last night and made their reports in regard to music, etc. The Young Men's club have secured the honville band for the parade. The Democratic club of the college will fall in behind the Young Men's club.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

Events Across the County Line. On Saturday the Reading Democrats will have a grand demonstration in honor of the Democratic victories. A mammoth elephant in straw, weighing 1,400 pounds, will be carried in the parade. An accurate statement of the amount of money expended by Berks county in the contest just closed with a Democratic triumph on Tuesday, shows that the election cost the voters $2,352.80. The Berks county apple crop is reported to be very light. Charles Wagner, aged seventeen, son of Mrs. Mary Wagner, a widow lady, residing at No. 420 Locust, street, Reading, had his right leg cut off below the knee on Monday morning, and died at 1:30 p. m. The boy was run over by a shifting Hearing Continued.

Wm, H. Wright, colored, later known as "Tobe," was committed by the mayor for 30 days for being drunk and very disorderly on Wednesday of last week. He was taken before Judge Livingston this afternoon on a writ of habeas corpus, and his discharge was asked for. His honor said that the fact that the mayor had committed him to prison was evidence that he had been drunk and disorderly. There being no evidence to the contrary, he could not discharge him. The case was continued until to-morrow morning when it will be re-heard. Meanwhile Wright's counsel was told to notify the mayor and officer of the application fer his release.

l'olice Cases. Owing to the illness of the mayor his case: were heard by Alderman McConomy this morning. One drunk arrested by Officer Coyle got 10 days and another that Officer

Elias caught, paid his costs. John McCoy and Thomas Dunn were each sent to jail for 10 days by Alderman Samson for being drunk and disorderly. Alderman Spurrier sent Benjamin Davis, the well-known bum, who spends a great deal of time in jail, out for 30 days. Two other drunks got 10 days each.

The Bright Side of Libby Prison. The lecture by Rev. C. C. McCabe which is to be delivered in the Duke street Methodist Episcopal church next Tuesday evening, the 21st inst, has been delivered in many of the principal cities and towns in America, and has never failed to elicite the highest praise. Pastor Robinson states that be heard it five years ago and then regarded it as one of the most enjoyable he had ever heard.

Paid Uff. The pay car of the Pennsylvania railroad passed up the road this afternoon, and the employees were paid off for the month.

Obliuary. Again comes grievous news, and this time from over the seas, of Mrs. Harriot I and John ston, of Baltimore. Her second and last chil ! died last Monday, at Nice. Those, who have seen this rarely lovely woman, in her beautif...l home, surrounded by her happy husband and their two bright boys, can imagine the des: lation which has come upon the bereaved pair. A year and a-half ago, Buchanan, the elder, died suddenly, in his fitteenth year, at a time when Harry had just as suddenly and strangely developed a heart disease. Medical advice compelled them very soon to abandon, first, their house in Baltimore, and, next their Wnextland home, of which the invalid was so tond, and flee with their remaining darling.

then eleven years of age, to Southern France. There, and in Switzerland, have they been devoting literally their very lives, with every device that wealth and science could suggest. to keep the breath in that trail frame. Only those who have had a like experience can know the agony of hope and fear in which they have existed. And now it is over. With emptie! arms and treasure lost," they return to their sympathizing friends. But their hearts have wounds, which no love, no ears, can heal or hide.

We have never seen so happy a family as was this now broken circle. Mrs. Johnston's house was one of the gayest in Baltimore and wherever beauty and fashion assembled her gracious, grace ul presence was sought and enjoyed by old and young. Her dignity, her brightness and tact, with her extraordinary appearance and her social history, made her a marked woman wherever she went in America or Europe. Though a justly proud mother, she never made herself ridiculous. She was always calm (apparently), rational and judicious. The usual mingling of maternal fondness and folly did not mar the interest of that charming family group, in which an artist might have revelled. The queenty-looking woman, with her prematurely white hair and fine coloring, and the beautiful blonde boys, formed a picture not soon to be for-

And now there is none to call her mother, "Dead! both my boys!" Well might she say to us, her friends, so full of life and joy, preparing for such a bright winter as she spent two years ago. Ah, ring your bells low, and burn your lights faintly." But she is not one to deprecate the happiness of others. Our pleasures can neither increase nor diminish the sufferings of the stricken parents. An i we comfort ourselves in believing they will not weakly wring their hands and yield to despair. Those who know their domestic life know how much this husband and wife still have to live for in each

Less than two years ago, Harry Johnston was a stardy, manly boy, the picture of health, mental and physical-well advanced in his studies, speaking French and terman, and having a considerable knowledge of nursic, for which he had much taste. Together with his brother he had been most carefully educated and enjoyed books; but he was not so purely intellectual as Buchanan, and was a most practical and fine-looking boy. Afterwards, at Cannes, it was hard to recognize in he gentleness and pathos of the tall, pare emaciated lad the same laughing, rosy Harry, ing the organs of oigestion, secretion and abwho had rejoiced in mud pies at Wheatland. During his long illness he was undeviatingly delicate and considerate toward those about him, and patient to a degree that was touching. With the innocence and simplicity of extreme youth this child possessed a dignity very surprising and indicative of strong charac'er. A few months ago he was confirmed in the English church by the Bishop of Canterbury, then visiting Cannes; and now the boy, Stomach, Blander and Bowels, who became so much of a man as to choose "that better part which cannot be taken away from him," is something still more, and still better than boy or man. For the wisdom of spirits he has exchanged the foolishness of mere manhood, and is suddenly full grown. No wonder, weeping mother and howed tather, ou are awed by the thought that, " Just so young but yesternight Now he is as old as death.

Meek, obedient in your sight, Gentle to a back or breath Only on last Monday! yours, Answering you like silver bells Lightly touched! an hour matures: You can teach him nothing cise.

He has seen the mystery hid Under Egype's pyramid, By those cyclids pale and close, Now he knows what Raamses knows." WASHINGTON, November 5th.

" Both Can't Survive," Says Pennsylvania, on all her State docu-ments. The Keystone State means that there ments. The Keystone State means that there is an irrepressible conflict between tyranny and freedom, and one or the other must succumb. So there is between health and disease. Every force that fights successfully against disease should be heartily welcomed. Such a force—a nost in itself—is Hunt's Remedy. and its special line of attack is against kidney and liver diseases, over which it achieves a wonderful triumph. If you have bodily weakness, an aching, a general sense weariness or mertia, or dropsical symptoms; if the kidneys or liver are deranged, there is no such medicine as Hunt's Remedy. It gives notice to all such diseases to quit. Pennsylvania is right; both Hunt's Remedy and these diseases can't survive, and it is they that are banished.
