

COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE. Events Along the Susquehanna—Items of Interest in and Around the Borough Picked Up by the Intelligence Reporter.

The water pipe on Walnut street at 31 has burst again. A party of ladies and gentlemen from this place and Marietta rode on horseback to Lancaster this afternoon.

Two men were sent to the county prison this morning by Squire Young for being drunk and disorderly. The employees of the Shawnee furnace had their photographs taken in a body yesterday afternoon.

The Thursday evening "musical" will be held this evening at the residence of Mr. Nicholas Gilman on Walnut street above 3d.

The Harry G. Richmond specialty company played to a slim audience last night. The performance was of an ordinary character.

Pheasants were sold this morning for 25 cents apiece. This is a big come down from 75 cents, the usual price paid. Rabbits brought 15 cents.

There will doubtless be a large attendance at the missionary meeting in the Methodist church to night. Eminent speakers will address the meeting. Every person is cordially invited to be present and participate in the services.

Miss Ida Becker drew the barrel of flour at the G. A. R. fair, last night. Although last evening was the opening evening of the fair, a fair number of persons were expected to be present.

Mr. P. S. Bruch has gone to New York. Mr. Geo. H. Richards is making a business trip to Philadelphia.

Messrs. Horace Boyd and James Wilson have gone to Philadelphia. Mr. R. F. Hartzel, of Delta, Pa., is visiting her father, Mr. T. S. Hartzel.

Mr. F. A. Collins, of New York, is the guest of Mr. Frederick Becker on Locust street.

Mr. John Yeager's residence on Locust street was the scene of a pleasant surprise party last evening.

Rejoicing Democrats. A large number of Columbians attended the Democratic parade in Washington through last evening. The luminaries of this place presented a fine appearance.

Their marching was splendid. The Washington delegates were invited to participate in the grand jubilee in Columbia to-morrow evening. A general turnout of the Democrats of this neighborhood is expected.

Events of the Week. About 9 o'clock this morning the P. R. R. wreckers of this place were ordered to the scene of a wreck which had occurred at Dillerville. A broken axle had thrown two freight cars from the track.

Last night engine No. 592 jumped entirely off the track in the East yards. One of the rails of the track was broken into six pieces. The engine was repaired on the track in three hours.

Engine No. 12, of the P. R. R., which has just been completely repaired and overhauled in the company's shops here, made the trial trip this morning to Dillerville.

Jacob Fisher, the Pennsylvania railroad car inspector here, was under a car inspecting it yesterday afternoon, when the train started. In crawling from beneath the car he was struck by the axle box on the back, and slightly injured. His escape from being killed by the car passing over him was an exceedingly narrow one.

The New Railroad. The engineers engaged in surveying the line of the proposed Dillerville and Lancaster railroad are now engaged at work between Churchtown and New Holland, this county. The road has been permanently located between Phoenixville and the Falls of French Creek, and it is said to be a excellent line. The work on the old survey has been greatly reduced. It is said by those who profess to know that the building of this road will soon be commenced and such portions of it as can be worked to advantage will be done this winter and the remainder next spring and summer.

The Work of Dr. Higbee. We learn incidentally that within the past two weeks Dr. E. E. Higbee, state superintendent of public instruction, has preached three or four sermons in as many different pulpits, and made a dozen or more of his thoughtful addresses before the various county institutes that he has attended within that period. His vigorous addresses before the institute in session at the seat of the county, have been especially appreciated by the young and old, and his broad grasp of the "situation." He is universally regarded as one of the finest scholars in the state.

School Days. This is the title of a handsome eight page publication the first number of which is before us and which will be issued monthly at 50 cents per annum in advance. The publisher, of this city, is desirous to furnish pleasant and profitable reading matter for the young, and judged from the copy before us, it gives every promise of answering that purpose. It is made up of selections from the best thought, and is edited by a man together with original editorial matter specially adapted to young and growing minds, and some pleasant stories. It is not to be inferred from its title that School Days is devoted to school work exclusively, but as explained by the editor, it is intended to provide information and amusement for youth and children universally, whether attending school or not. The paper is handsomely printed in large, clear legible type and the title page is illustrated by a handsome cut of the high school building. A list of the chromos will be given to each subscriber.

Freight Wreck. Shortly after 8 o'clock this morning a freight wreck occurred at Dillerville. Two loaded cars were being dropped from the south track to a siding, when they jumped the track at a frog. A wreck train had to be sent for, and it was several hours before everything was cleared. Eastern passenger trains were delayed for a long time. The only damage to the cars was the breaking of one wheel and a track.

A Dinner to Mr. Hensel. The board of managers of the Commonwealth club of Philadelphia, have unanimously agreed to invite W. L. Hensel, chairman of the Democratic state committee, to a formal dinner to be given December 14, as a testimony to his campaign resulting in the election of Mr. Pattison.

A Band That Was In Line. We unintentionally omitted to mention in our account of the Democratic parade that the Mount Sidney band was in line. This fine musical organization played for the East Lancaster delegation.

Excursion to Philadelphia. The Heading railroad company ran an excursion from this city to Philadelphia this morning, and it took 63 passengers from King street.

Opinion Day. The opinions in the cases heard at the last argument will be delivered by the court on Saturday morning at ten o'clock.

Costs Paid. Two drunks were ordered Alderman McConomy this morning, and they each paid their costs.

THE CALIFORNIA PARTY.

Their Eighth Annual Dinner by S. M. Reynolds, Esq., this evening.

The party which made the trip to California the fall of 1874 will be given their eighth annual dinner, by Samuel H. Reynolds, esq., at his residence on North Duke street, at 5 o'clock this evening.

The original party includes the following: Wm. F. Woodard and wife, and J. F. Sargent and wife, of Philadelphia; H. M. North and wife, Columbia; James Young and wife, Middletown; Dr. N. B. Wolf and wife, Cincinnati; Henry Baumgardner and wife, Dr. Henry Carpenter and wife, John Keller and wife, and S. H. Reynolds and wife, of this city; O. J. Dickey was a member of the party, but he has been dead for several years. The whole party will be present at the dinner.

Among the distinguished guests, who are not members of the party, but who will be present at the dinner, are the following: Hon. Simon Cameron, D. McNeal Farms; Col. James Duffy, Marietta; Paris Haldean, Chickies; Charles E. Pugh, general manager Pennsylvania railroad company, J. F. Eminger, general ticket agent of the same company and Col. Wm. B. Fordney of this city.

The interest in the Sons of Veterans fair at Excelsior hall still continues. The numbers in attendance are larger every evening. Much amusement is caused by the result of the drawing of the winning numbers from the changing wheel. Every evening numerous articles will be changed out of the fair closes.

The fair will be open every afternoon and evening for the rest of the week, closing on Saturday evening. Friday evening the members of the fair, G. A. R., will visit the fair in a body, when there will also be music. Saturday evening the result of the voting will be announced and the articles left on the tables will be sold at auction.

Next Week's Amusement. As the opera house will be occupied during the entire week by the teachers' institute lectures, there will be no theatrical amusements until next week, when we will have Oliver Doud Byron in "Across the Continent," on Monday night. M. B. Curtis follows on Tuesday night. The members of the fair, G. A. R., will visit the fair in a body, when there will also be music. Saturday evening the result of the voting will be announced and the articles left on the tables will be sold at auction.

Discharged on a Writ. John Brimmer, of Middle street, was sent to jail last evening for 30 days for being drunk and disorderly. This afternoon he was taken before Judge Livingston on a writ of habeas corpus and his discharge was asked for. There was no opposition to the discharge and it was shown that the family to which the boy belongs have had a great deal of trouble with the members of the family in charge with arson. The father, a now, and John is the main support of the family. He promised to do better in the future and was discharged.

Microscopical Exhibition to-morrow. The members of the Lancaster microscopical society will give an exhibition in the orphan's court room to-morrow for the entertainment of the members of the county institute. This is one of the most interesting exhibitions that can be imagined, showing as it does the little things of nature in all their marvellous and perfect forms. A remarkable specimen of a lepidodendron, a scaly barked tree of the coal era, will also be shown on the same tables—a tree that may have grown millions of years ago, for anything man knows to the contrary.

Thief Frightened. On Tuesday night a thief broke into the hotel of Daniel G. Martin, of Martindale, Earl township. He went into the cellar and was seen by Mrs. Martin, who awakened her husband. Mr. Martin rose and soon saw a man running away from the cellar. He fired several shots at him which failed to take effect. Nothing was missed in the morning.

Break Down. Yesterday one of Kiehl's bottle wagons was passing along North Lime street, when between Orange and Chestnut on Lime street, one axle broke and the wagon was thrown overboard. Nothing was broken and the load was transferred to another wagon.

On Monday night a thief broke into the hotel of Daniel G. Martin, of Martindale, Earl township. He went into the cellar and was seen by Mrs. Martin, who awakened her husband. Mr. Martin rose and soon saw a man running away from the cellar. He fired several shots at him which failed to take effect. Nothing was missed in the morning.

On Tuesday night a thief broke into the hotel of Daniel G. Michigan, Nov. 15, 1892, in Philadelphia, Wm. S. Barr, in the 18th year of his age.

The relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend the funeral, without further notice from the residence of his uncle, R. W. Barr, at Lincoln, Pa., on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. n162d*
