church, corner of Mulberry and Orange streets, is progressing very nicely. There is an article of interst there for every visitor, and every article can be bought for cash and cheap, too. The contest for the fine West End Lancaster watch" resulted in the victory of Abr. Wolf, an apprentice of the Volksfreund printing office. He succeeded in getting 3771 ten cent votes, while his competitor, John Rook, could muster in only 180 votes. " Abe " feels proud, of course. The haudsome set of chamber furniture appears to become the easy prev of our congenial friend Charles Stamm. The fair will close on Saturday night. The "Liederkranz" singing society is expected to attend in a body to-morrow night and will, no doubt, favor the audience by rendering some of their choice songs.

The Golden Northwest.

There is on exhibition at the railroad siding adjoining the freight depot on North Queen street, a car of the Northern Pacific railroad company, which is stocked with an ample assortment of the agricultural and mineral products of the northwestern section of the country extendin; from Minnesota to Washington territory. It arrived in this city Monday evening and will remain for a day or two. It has been visited by a large number of people who express the greatest admiration of the fine grains, vegetables and other products of the "Golden Northwest."

The Refton Bridge.

The bridge at Refton, destroyed by the great flood last summer, has been rebuilt by the county commissioners and will be ready for inspection in a few days. It is said to be much better and stronger than the original structure.

Lost whild,

Yosterday Adam Groff found a four-year- will be induced to take DE. WM. HALL' old child wandering alone on the Willow Street turnpike, near Groff's mill. Being that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. I too young to give any account of itself have taken two bottles and can positively say Mr. Groff took charge of it, and awaits a that it has done me more good than all the call from the parents.

Drunk and Disorderly.

Lydia Pinkerton, John Mooney and Thomas and Lydia Cassiday, were sent to -prison for 31 days each, except Mooney, who got 25 days, for being drunk and disorderly. Several others were committed for hearings for the same offense.

Brakoman Injured.

Edward Scuft, a brakeman on the l'ennsylvania railroad, while standing on top of a car was struck to day by the second overhead bridge west of Coatesville and ustained a severe concussion of the brain. He was taken to his home in Harrisburg.

-Amusements.

"Bam't of Posen" To-Night.-This amusing comedy will be given for the second time in this city at Fulton opera house. As a delinea. tor of Hebrew character Mr. Curtis, who plays the title part, is without a rival, and the adventures of the commercial drammer are portraved in a manner that does not fail to calist the interest of all. "Sam'l of Posen " is a great go and ought to be greeted with a fuil

Herrmann, the Magician-Next Friday even-ing the great and only Herrmann, the magician, will be at Fu.ton opera house. He is re garded as one of the most skillful of modern prestidigitateurs, his tricks being given will marvelous finish and lightning dexterity and many of them showing the results of study and inventive genius. He is assisted by M'lle. Addie, and his specialty company includes also E. D. Davies, premier ventrilcquist, the tamed Japanese Juggier, Awata Katsnoshin, and the royal illusionists, Howell and Darvin.
