NOVEMBER SESSIONS.

THE WHEELS OF JUSTICE IN MOTION.

The negular Term of Crimmal Court—Frank Ki christ Convicted of Rape. Tuesday afternoon .- Almost the whele of the afternoon was taken up with speeches in the case of Frank Kilchrist, charged with rape, and the jury retired at Com'th vs. Christian Quade, larceny. The defendant resides in this city, and it was charged that he stole a bag containing two bushels of oats from the wagon of lacob Ushner, which was standing in front of Reed & Henderson's bank on Dake street, on the morning of Sept. 2d; the bag was owned by Jacob Getz and the out's belonged to Ushner. The physician testified that he examined the girl and found her in a bad condition, as a was bruised about the body and was a strated physically; he found no evid. nor of the crime charged having been committed or attempted. The commonwealth here abandoned the charge of rape but insisted on that of as sault and battery to avish. The defense, according to the testimony of the accused, was that he met the giri on the road, and she asked him to go into the bushes where she made improper proposals to him; he did not do anything but give her a light kick; he admitted being with her for two hours.

No speeches were made in the case and the court in their charge stated that it was a question for the jury whether it was assault and battery only or assault, and battery to ravish. They thought, however, that it would be safe to convict of the latter. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of assault and battery to rav.sb. Sentenced to eighteen months imprison-

Erduced Rates to Parladelphia. To day the passenger department of the Pennsylvania railroad began the issue of excursion tickets between Lancaster and Philadelphia, and all intermediate points, ncluding all stations on the main line and the Waynesburg and West Chester branches. The tickets will not permit holders to stop off en-route, and are only good on the day of issue, except when issued on Saturdays or Sundays they will be good to return on the following Morday inclusive. The rate of reduction is half a cent per mile, which makes the round trip ticket from Lancaster to Philad phia $3 43 instead of $4.12, the price charged for regular tickets. The reduction in the fare will be of advantage to business men and others who are comlled to make frequent visits to Philadelphia and return the same day.

entraced for Horse Stealing. Oliver Rosenberger, who was arrested in this city on the 24th of August last by Special Officer Steinwandel, and who at the time, had in his possession a horse and buggy which, as was afterwards shown, Rosenberger had obtained in trade for another team which had been stolen from a liveryman named Laurer of Harrisburg, was triae before the Dauphin county' court yesterday, and convicted of horse stealing, and sentenced to eighteen months imprisonment in the Eastern penitentiary. THE TARIFF ON BAGGAGE,

New Regulation at the P. R. R. Station A gentleman who arrived in this city about 2 p. m. on Saturday of week before last, and drove out in the country almost immediately, returned on Monday morn ing and sent to the depot for his two small satchels which bad been checked. He was notified that they could not be had, except upon paying fifry cents and, upon further inquiry, discovered that a new regulation had gone into effect concerning baggage not called for at once.

According to instructions given to the baggage master, of which he has only a single copy on a circular and of which no public notice has been given, each package of baggage hereafter received at any station is kept free of charge only 24 hours after its arrival. After that it is subject to a charge of 25 couts per day for the first 24 hours or fraction thereof, and 10 cents for each additional day up to ten. From that to 30 days $1.00 pays the storage; 10 cents extra for each day from 20 to 40, and from 40 to 60 days $2.00 is the tariff Baggage received after 3 p. m. on Saturday is held free until Monday at the same hour as that of its arrival. The baggage agents here report a good j. deal of complaint over the new rules, but that much less baggage accumulates on their bassis than formerly. No distinction is made in the storage rates between a hand satchel and a Sara-
