TOBACCO MARKET.

TRADE IN SEED LEAF AND HAVANA For the Week Ending Saturday November 23, 10 A. M .- An Extremely Full Market.

U. S. Tobacco Journal. Our market is almost lifeless, and the few transactions that have taken place within the past seven days were ridicu-lously small. There are hardly any prospects that a change will take place before January 1. The manufacture of cigars in this city has of late, as a whole, grown quite dull. The tax agitation is beginning to tell once mere, while the expectation of greatly lower prices for Sumatra tobacco after the lat of January, puts a check upon any extensive operations in seed leaf.

The somewhat extensive purchases of '62 tobaccos in New York state and the coattered small ones in Pennsylvania have not any significance whatever upon our tobacco market. The success of the '81 tobacco market. The success of the '81 New York state crop so far, has encouraged speculative spirits to again try their fortune in this crop. Some of the few purchases of Pennsylvania have the ap-pearance of a blind to the farmers for them to hold out for high figures on both their present and last year's crops, while the bone fide purchases are for exceptional

It is safe to say that a continuance of the present duliness in the trade for several months will result in a continuous falling of prices for all grades of leaf—Sumatra

The pressure that will be brought to bear on Congress for the increase of duty on Sumatra is assuming formidable proportions. From every tobacco-growing section of the country strong and earnest appeals are being made, and a speedy action by Congress on this subject may be looked for. Should the movement succeed and Su matra be taxed so high as to virtually prevent its importation, the dead weight will be raised from the market. The sales of the week number about

1,100 cases, comprising 300 cases '80 Pennsylvania, at 8 to 15 cents; 250 cases '81 Connecticut, mostly seconds, at 13 cents; 400 cases '81 Ohio, at 31 to 6 cents; 200 cases '81 Wisconsin, at 10 to 17 cents. Sumatra-Quiet. Sales don't reach probably more than 150 bales. 'The dullness in cigar manufacturing circles, combined with the near reduction in figures, causes this temporary quietness. Prices Havana-Quiet. Sales 400 balcs, mostly '80 stock. Prices firm. FORTY HOURS OF AGONY.

The Terrible Adventures of the Survivors of the Collingwood. On Thursday last a terrific storm prevailed on the lakes. Details of serious disasters are received. The most terrible of all was the loss of the schooner Collingwood, her captain and four of her crew. As the propeller Wisconsin was on her way from Grand Haven, Mich., cries for help were heard. The life-boat was sent out in the direction from which the sounds came. In a few minutes the crew came upon a raft containing three They were the survivors of the Collingwood's crew. They were half frozen and temporarily blind as the result of their sufferings during the forty hours in a terrific gale, The three survivers are R. D. Sheldon, Frank Markin and Nicho-las Johnson. The Collingwood, was on her way from St. Helena to Chicago, where the boat was owned. It is said that she was almost unseaworthy. During the gale on Thursday afternoon the vessel was waterlogged. The gale was blowing from the northwest, and the sea caused the craft to roll over. The crew, consisting of eight mon, were washed overboard. The captain and three of the men were last seen floating with posts under their arms. The remaining four men succeeded in climbing on a small floating piece of the vessel. The steward became a raving maniac during the night, and his comrades found the greatest difficulty in keeping him from jumping from the raft. On Friday he succeeded several times in plunging into the water, but each time he was dragged back by his faithful compauions. In the atternoon his strength gave

The raft gradually began lowering as the posts under it absorbed the water and from dark until the time the men were found they stood knee deep in the ice cold water. They kept awake by walking from one end of the raft to the other. Every once in a while one of the castaways would become unconscious and step over board. The others would pull the unfortunate one back on the raft. The Collingwood was commanded by Captain Willetts. It was owned by him and the Keef Bros. of Chicago. It is feared that the men who were taken from the raft cannot live.

MEDICAL

Names are Not a Success. REFRESHING CHANGE.

To Plain English. Every reader of newspapers has observed time, and again, in the advertising columns, many singular and frequently unpronounce-ble sames of medicinal remedies. The Greek and Latin languages especially have been deawn upon to turnish names by which patent medicines could be introduced to the ublic. The inference is, in many cases at east, that the proprietors depend more upon the attraction of high sounding titles than upon the essential merits of the remedies

It is refreshing once in a while to finds medicine advertised, whose simple intelligi-ble name in English at once conveys to the reader an understanding of the uses and puroses of the remedy.

A notable instruce of this kind is found in the medicines of Dr. C. W. Benson, whose SKIN CURE and CELERY and CHAMOMILE PILLS impart at once,'in their names, either their purpose or the ingredients that compose them. Dr. Benson's SKIN CURE is warranted to heal all diseases of the skin, such as tetter, humors inflamation, milk crust, eczema, diseases of the hair and scalp, scrofula, ulcers, pimples and itchings on all parts of the body. It makes the skin white, soft and smooth, re-moves tan and freckles, and is the best tollet dressing in existence. Its popularity is attested by the immense sales of it which are taking place enerywhere.

AT It is the only genuine "Skin Cure," and all should beware of the various remedies which have been struggling for existence, and now endeavor to ride into popularity by ad vertising themselves as "The Great Skin Jures." There is only one, and that is Dr. Senson's. Besure and get it.

DOMS YOUR HEAD ACHE? No Matter What Cause, Sick, Nervous, Neu-ralgia, Dyspeptic.

Which is it? A revolution in the treatment of nervous diseases is now taking place. Dr. C. W. Benson has discovered a sure remedy in his Celery and Chamomile Pills-they permanently cure sick and nervous headache, neu raigia, dyspepsia, sleeplessness and all ner-vous diseases. Sold by all druggists. Price 5c cents a box. Abdress, Baltimore, Md. By mail, two boxes for $1, or six boxes for $2.50. · C. N. Crittenton, of New York, is wholesale agent for Dr. C. W.
