FATAL FIGHT OVER FOWLS. READING, Pa., Nov. 28.—A probable fatal affray occurred near Mount Penn Furnace, Cumru township, to-day. Two brothers-in-law, A. M. Fulton and John P. Swartz fought, got into a dispute about some fowls and Fulton struck Swartz on the head with a gun, telling him to get to the ground.

THE Suit Against the Reading Railroad. PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 28.—The case of the government claim of $40,000 for a deficiency in the payment of the tax on net earnings against the Philadelphia & Reading railroad company was called to-day in the United States district court and application of the company's counsel was postponed until the next term of court.

A Child Killed by a Train. EVANVILLE, Ind., Nov. 28.—On Sunday the family of Thomas Heber, living near Spottsville, Ky., went to church, leaving an infant in care of a girl. The girl also went out and left the child alone. When the family returned they found the child dead, it having been horribly gnawed by rats.

Boycotting the Newspapers. CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—A dispatch from Juliet T. Hines says the trade and labor council have boycotted two newspapers in that city, and all merchants who patronize them, on account of the denunciatory articles in the papers directed at the unions.

The Democratic Majority in Wisconsin. MADISON, Wis., Nov. 28.—The official vote of the state for congressmen is as follows: Democrats, 108,546; Republicans, 90,562; Prohibition, 14,116.

Drawn to Death. PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 28.—Ljman Conard, engineer of a portable hoisting engine, was caught this morning in the hoist rope and drawn in contact with the brake flange. His head was split open and his face terribly disfigured. His wounds are probably fatal.

Science and Religion. PHELPS, N. Y., Nov. 28.—Professor Brooks of the Rice Theological seminary, in behalf of astronomical science, asks that prayers be offered in all churches on Sunday next for clear weather on the 6th of next month to observe the transit of Venus.

Gambetta's Wounds Serious. LONDON, Nov. 28.—A dispatch from Paris states that M. Gambetta's wound in the hand, received yesterday while handling a revolver, has not yet been probed, and that a violent fever has set in.

Little Girl Burned to Death. PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 28.—About ten o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the house owned by Charles Hanna, in Acres Clark, aged 4 years, perished in the flames. The insurance is $1,500.

Sudden Death of a Congressman-Elect. BATON ROUGE, Nov. 28.—E. S. Herndon, congressman-elect from Louisiana, died suddenly of heart disease last night.

INVESTIGATIONS. WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—For the Middle Atlantic states, cloudy weather with rain or snow, winds mostly from the west to northwest, stationary or lower temperature falling followed by rising barometer.

MARKETS. New York Market. New York, Nov. 28.—Four-State and Western without important change; moderate rise in the price of cotton, moderate fall in the price of wool.
