

Lancaster Intelligencer.

MONDAY EVENING DEC. 4, 1893.

Our Returning Board. An analysis of the "scattering" votes...

There has been a storm of indignation raised because the secretary of state in Mississippi refused to count for "J. R. Chalmers" votes returned for "J. R. Chalmers."

It is difficult to see how the state officials whose business it is to tabulate the vote could safely be intrusted with the discretion of counting it otherwise than it is returned.

Arabi Pasha's Fate. It not being deemed expedient to have a protracted trial of Arabi Pasha, a convenient arrangement was made with him by which he agreed to plead guilty and England agreed that the khedive should commute his sentence of death to banishment for life.

PERSONAL. PIERE IVACINTE says: "Ideal marriages are rare, perhaps impossible." CHARLES L. LAMBERTON, of Wilkesbarre, gives notice that he does not want to be attorney general.

NEW YORK CITY had a new experience on Sunday, which was the day set for the execution of the provisions of the new law that forbids the conduct of all vocations on Sunday, except the sale of drugs and some other specially named articles.

GRIME AND CASUALTY. A BUDGET OF TRAGIC HAPPENINGS. The Wreck of the Wicked World—Death in all Forms of Violence—

A Colorado Shooting Affray. A shooting affray occurred in the office of Drs. Clay and Evtisky, in Durango, Col., who had been partners a long time. No trouble has been noticed between them until Sunday morning, when Dr. Evtisky shot Dr. Clay and then himself.

THIRTEEN BURNED OR DROWNED. A Steam Tug Takes Fire and Sinks Suddenly in Lake Michigan. A tug picked up the lake barge A. W. Luckey, in a disabled condition and towed her to Chicago.

THE POULTRY ASSOCIATION. Preparations for the Annual Exhibition. The Lancaster Poultry society held a stated meeting this morning in the rooms of the Agricultural society.

OBITUARY. Sudden Death of Philip Gast. Philip Gast, tailor and cutter, residing at 222 West James street, died on Sunday morning of a fever, which he contracted while he was visiting on Saturday morning.

THE JURY WHEELS. THE LAST DRAWING OF THE 10th CONGRESS—THE LIST OF JURORS TO SERVE IN COURTS OF QUARTER SESSIONS AND COMMON PLEAS.

On Saturday afternoon, Jury Commissioners Ringwalt and Hartman drew from the jury wheel the following parties to serve as jurors in the January and February courts. The names are drawn by the old commissioners, as the new ones do not take their offices until the 1st of January.

THE DRAMA. Modjeska as "Adrienne Lecouvreur." Helene Modjeska is a great actress. Such is the verdict that the world long since rendered upon her capacity; such was the judgment given with doubled emphasis by the audience who witnessed her superb performance.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT. A Horsesman Killed at Winter Station. Charles J. Swartz, a brickman on the Pennsylvania road, was killed on Saturday afternoon, near Winter's station, was struck by an overhead bridge and had his skull fractured.

RUNAWAY ACCIDENT. A Milk Wagon Crashes by a Beer Wagon. This morning about 7:30 the driver of Frank Reiker's beer wagon allowed his horses to stand untied, while he went into the Centennial saloon corner of Vine and Mulberry streets to attend to his business.

SILVER WEDDING. A Pleasant Surprise in Strasburg. Friday evening last was the twenty-fifth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Christiana Howe, of Strasburg borough, and the occasion was made memorable by a surprise given them by their many friends.

CHRISTIANA NATIONAL BANK. All the stock of the Christiana National bank having been taken the stockholders met on Saturday and organized by the election of the following named directors: Samuel Slocum, James J. Reed, Thomas Phillips, a branch of the bank, Aaron Hartman, Thomas McGowan, Abram Rupp.

Methodist Missionary Meeting. A very interesting meeting is to be held in the Duke street M. E. church on Wednesday evening next, 6th inst. By the appointment of the Philadelphia conference missionary society, Dr. James Morrow, of Philadelphia, has appointed as a delegate to the meeting, Rev. W. P. Wilson, of Strasburg.

Methodist Missionary Meeting. A very interesting meeting is to be held in the Duke street M. E. church on Wednesday evening next, 6th inst. By the appointment of the Philadelphia conference missionary society, Dr. James Morrow, of Philadelphia, has appointed as a delegate to the meeting, Rev. W. P. Wilson, of Strasburg.

Methodist Missionary Meeting. A very interesting meeting is to be held in the Duke street M. E. church on Wednesday evening next, 6th inst. By the appointment of the Philadelphia conference missionary society, Dr. James Morrow, of Philadelphia, has appointed as a delegate to the meeting, Rev. W. P. Wilson, of Strasburg.

GRIME AND CASUALTY. A BUDGET OF TRAGIC HAPPENINGS. The Wreck of the Wicked World—Death in all Forms of Violence—

A Colorado Shooting Affray. A shooting affray occurred in the office of Drs. Clay and Evtisky, in Durango, Col., who had been partners a long time. No trouble has been noticed between them until Sunday morning, when Dr. Evtisky shot Dr. Clay and then himself.

THIRTEEN BURNED OR DROWNED. A Steam Tug Takes Fire and Sinks Suddenly in Lake Michigan. A tug picked up the lake barge A. W. Luckey, in a disabled condition and towed her to Chicago.

THE POULTRY ASSOCIATION. Preparations for the Annual Exhibition. The Lancaster Poultry society held a stated meeting this morning in the rooms of the Agricultural society.

OBITUARY. Sudden Death of Philip Gast. Philip Gast, tailor and cutter, residing at 222 West James street, died on Sunday morning of a fever, which he contracted while he was visiting on Saturday morning.

THE JURY WHEELS. THE LAST DRAWING OF THE 10th CONGRESS—THE LIST OF JURORS TO SERVE IN COURTS OF QUARTER SESSIONS AND COMMON PLEAS.

On Saturday afternoon, Jury Commissioners Ringwalt and Hartman drew from the jury wheel the following parties to serve as jurors in the January and February courts. The names are drawn by the old commissioners, as the new ones do not take their offices until the 1st of January.

THE DRAMA. Modjeska as "Adrienne Lecouvreur." Helene Modjeska is a great actress. Such is the verdict that the world long since rendered upon her capacity; such was the judgment given with doubled emphasis by the audience who witnessed her superb performance.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT. A Horsesman Killed at Winter Station. Charles J. Swartz, a brickman on the Pennsylvania road, was killed on Saturday afternoon, near Winter's station, was struck by an overhead bridge and had his skull fractured.

RUNAWAY ACCIDENT. A Milk Wagon Crashes by a Beer Wagon. This morning about 7:30 the driver of Frank Reiker's beer wagon allowed his horses to stand untied, while he went into the Centennial saloon corner of Vine and Mulberry streets to attend to his business.

SILVER WEDDING. A Pleasant Surprise in Strasburg. Friday evening last was the twenty-fifth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Christiana Howe, of Strasburg borough, and the occasion was made memorable by a surprise given them by their many friends.

CHRISTIANA NATIONAL BANK. All the stock of the Christiana National bank having been taken the stockholders met on Saturday and organized by the election of the following named directors: Samuel Slocum, James J. Reed, Thomas Phillips, a branch of the bank, Aaron Hartman, Thomas McGowan, Abram Rupp.

Methodist Missionary Meeting. A very interesting meeting is to be held in the Duke street M. E. church on Wednesday evening next, 6th inst. By the appointment of the Philadelphia conference missionary society, Dr. James Morrow, of Philadelphia, has appointed as a delegate to the meeting, Rev. W. P. Wilson, of Strasburg.

Methodist Missionary Meeting. A very interesting meeting is to be held in the Duke street M. E. church on Wednesday evening next, 6th inst. By the appointment of the Philadelphia conference missionary society, Dr. James Morrow, of Philadelphia, has appointed as a delegate to the meeting, Rev. W. P. Wilson, of Strasburg.

Methodist Missionary Meeting. A very interesting meeting is to be held in the Duke street M. E. church on Wednesday evening next, 6th inst. By the appointment of the Philadelphia conference missionary society, Dr. James Morrow, of Philadelphia, has appointed as a delegate to the meeting, Rev. W. P. Wilson, of Strasburg.