The Hackmens' Supper

The hackmen of this city had a big supper at Kepperling's hotel, Neffsville, last evening. Sunday is the only day that these men, who work hard all week, can get away, so they concluded to have their feed yesterday. The supper was gotten up in Johnny Kepperling's best style and it was a jolly crowd that sat down and did ample justice to it.

An Indispensable Instrument.

The value of an article is almost always indicated by its price, and for years the people were content to pay $3.00 for a genuine Livermore Stylographic Pen, and the same pens are yet doing good service. The success of these penaled persons to get up imitations, which they offered at such low prices that many persons not understanding the difference, were induced to buy them. The Livermore company therefore, cut down the price of their short plain Pens to $2.00, and short gold mount CIBRISTMAS GOODS. ed to $2.59 each, to give everybody a chance to have the best article of the kind. You can buy them for that money by remitting the amount to Louis E. DUNLAP, Manager Stylegraphic Pen Co., 299 Washington street, Boston; the pen together with a package of superior lnk will be sent by return and, and the money will be at once refunded if they do not prove to be perfect and satisfactory in every respect. There is nothing more appropriate than a Stylograph, as a gift to a lady or gentleman Itd

Amusements. " Hazet Kirke " To Night .- The beautiful play of " Hazel Kirke," now pas: its two hundreath consecutive representation will be given at the opera house to-night. It is one of the lavorites of the American stage and is a standard attraction in this city, Miss Belle Mackenzie, now known as Belle Archer, will play the title role; she has many friends here. Emma Abbott.-Lovers of grand opera await with pleasure the production of Bellini's immortal work, " La Sonnambula," which will take place to-morrow evening, when the distinguished American prima donna, Miss Emma Abbott, and her large, company, will present it with all the accessories that have given this presentation of the opera its wide reputation. Miss Abbott is a great Laucaster favorite, and her role of Amina in "Sonnam bula" is one of the strongest in her brilliant repertcire. The company supporting her is claimed to be the largest organization of the kind in existence, and numbers fifty artists chosen from the best musical talent available. The sale of tickets is proceeding rapidly and gives promise of a large audience.

The Florences.-Those popular comedians, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Florence, will beat Fulton opera house on next Wednesday evening, when our people will no doubt gladly avail themselves of the opportunity of renewing their acquaintance with the Hon. Bardwell Slo'r and Mrs. Gen 1. Gilflory, two of the cleverest of comedy creations, as respectively im-personated by Mr. and Mrs. Florence, in their play of "The Mighty Dollar."

"My Partner."-Of the play of "My Partner," to be given at Fulton opera house nest Thursday evening .y the celebrated Aldrich & Parsloe, the New York Sun says : "There have been a great many dramas written, of which the material has been more or less Calitornian in its origin ; but the new play, produced last evening at the Union Square theatre, is probably the best effort that has yet been made in that direction."

The president then recommends early nine per cent. and in four months of Mr. on of such modifications of our to be demanded by the interests of our people, and again invites the attention of Congress to the lawlessness which prevailed on the Mexican frontier. With regard to South American affairs the presi ent recapitulates the situation between Chili and Peru. Our offers of mediation have been rejected, and to enforce them would need employment of our army and navy and ultimately a protectorate. This would be utterly at odds with our past policy, and full of embarrassments for the future. The pres-ident deplores the fact that Chili exacts such rigorous conditions of peace and is ready to support any measure which the wisdom of Congress may devise for pro motion of the peace of this continent and throughout the world. Dorsey, and his counsel is authority for Finance.

In reviewing the report of the secretary of the treasury the president sees nothing to alter and much to confirm the sentiments to which he gave expression last year regarding the coinage of silver dollars and the retirement of silver certificates.

The present rapid extinguishment of our national debt is by no means a cause for congratulation, but rather for serious apprehension. Last year the president recommended the abolition of all internal revenue taxes except those on tobacco and distilled and fermented liquors. He ventures now to suggest that all internal taxes except those which relate to distilled spirits, can be prudently abrogated. Such a course would diminish the cost of collections at least two millions and a half dollars, and retire from office from fifteen hundred to two thousand persons. The secretary's recommendation of im mediate and extensive reduction in the unnual revenues of the government is heartily approved. All taxes are burdensome, however wisely and prudently imposed, and although there are wide differences in sentiment as to the best method of raising revenue, there is substantial accord in the doctrine that only such taxes ought to be levied as are necessary for an economical administration of the government.

The present excise tax should be abolished as soon as it is safe to do so. So sweeping a measure as total abolition of internal taxes would for the present be an unwise step, as it is doubtful if sufficient revenue could then be made, and the prcsident recommends the retention for the present of that portion of the system of internal revenue which is least objectior able to the people.

The Tariff.

The present tariff system is in many respects unjust, making unequal distribu-tion of its burdens and its benefits. While ecommending reductions, the president is far from advising the abandonment of a policy of so discriminating in the adjustment of details as to afford aid and protection to domestic labor. He recommends an enlargement of the free list so as to include the numerous articles which yield inconsiderable revenue ; a simplificaion of the complex and inconsistent schedule of duties upon certain manufactures, particularly cotton, iron and steel; and a substantial reduction of duties on those articles, and on sugar, molasses, silk, wool and woolen goods. Our Defenses and Militia.

Our fortifications are notoriously inade quate to the defense of our harbors and cities. The attention of Congress is invited to the propriety of making more adequate provisions for arming and equip-ping the militia. The laws regarding the retirement of officers should be amended, as the existing laws seem to conflict.

Protesting Against River and Harbor Steals The motives that compelled the president to veto the river and harbor bill which became a law last session prompts Garfield's adm inistration ) removal reciprocity treaty with Hawaii, as seems were 89 or 22.7 per cent. Precisely the same number of removals-89-has taken place in the fifteen months since then. Political Assessments Denounced. In the concluding portion of his message COMBIN the president calls attention to the collection of assessments for political pur-Christn poses, and asserts that such practice hould be forbidden by law. THE SECOND TRIAL BEGUN.

Trying to Get a Jury in the Star Route WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.-There was good attendance in the criminal court today to witness the beginning of the second trial of the Star Route cases. All of the defendants were present except ex Senator

the statement that he is seriously ill and is unable to leave his home. The petit jury panel was called, and then before it had been compiled, members of the panel began to give excuses. Seven members of the panel were excused, and the clerk was directed to draw from the box a sufficient number of names to complete the panel. The court then adjourned until tomorrow. INDICATIONS. WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.-For the Middle Atlantic states, warm south to west winds, fair weather, in southern portions,
