OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE. Events Along the Susquehanna—Items of Interest in and Around the Borough.

Picked Up by the Sentinel. Mr. Frank Shuman, of Pittsburgh, returned home this morning.

Mr. Wm. Parr, of York, is the guest of friends in this place.

Miss Mary Keller has gone to Philadelphia and Washington on a visit to friends.

Albert Studly was united in the bonds of matrimony to Mary A. Shukley yesterday by Judge Frank. Both the parties are residents of Manor township.

Winter is here now. Before the ground is hidden under the snow, a walk should be laid along the avenue of the institute.

Those who witnessed the performance of Niles Evans, Bryant and Hoy's "Metors," last night do not go in for a recitation over it.

The Board of Directors having given permission to Mrs. George Bandell to close her school this morning at 10 o'clock to enable the pupils to make preparations for holding a fair to raise money to purchase an organ for use in the school.

The musical held its recital here last evening at Dr. J. K. Lineaweaver's residence.

At last night's meeting of Columbia Lodge, No. 283, of the following officers were elected: J. W. Youcum, W. M.; A. G. Guiles, S. W.; S. C. Camp, J. W.; J. A. Myers, Treasurer; A. J. Kaufman, secretary; H. Wilson, George Crane and Milton Wiley, trustees; A. J. Kaufman, representative to grand lodge.

There seems to be some misunderstanding regarding the ball which is to be held on the 12th of December, in the armory, for charitable purposes.

Over one hundred persons assembled at the residence of Messrs. F. B. Clepper and Taylor Gable, last evening, and marched from those places to the residence of Mr. B. F. Dean, on Locust street, where they designed to hold a party.

Mrs. Julia A. Schell died at her residence on Locust street yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

A GOOD CONCERT.

Musical and Literary Entertainment at the First Reformed Church.

The young ladies connected with the First Reformed church gave a musical and literary entertainment in the lecture room of the church last evening.

"Behind the Scenes," a dialogue, was read with spirit by Misses Mary Knapp, Martha Grove, Ada Smaling, Maggie Trout and Mr. George Hambricht.

"Scandal on the Brain," was fitted rendered by Eva and Lulu Stamm. Ella Shirk, Nellie King and Annie Zimm, a solo and quartette.

The Professor at Home, was finely sung by Mr. W. A. Heintish, bass, who took the solo part, John A. Heintish, tenor, Miss Elia Muser, soprano, and Miss Clara Eichel, alto.

An interesting recitation, was given by Miss L. L. Lefler, each of whom recited a piece of the month of the year.

The Scotch song, "Bonnie Sweet Bessie," and the Misses Loecher rendered with fine effect "Something else to do."

The School Girls Want an Organ. The board of directors having given permission to Mrs. George Bandell to close her school this morning at 10 o'clock to enable the pupils to make preparations for holding a fair to raise money to purchase an organ for use in the school.

Change of Mind.

I declined to insert your advertisement of Hop Bitters last year, because I then thought they might not be promotive of the cause of Temperance, but find they are, and a very valuable medicine, myself and wife having been greatly benefited by them, and I take great pleasure in making them known.

Editor Home Sentinel, Afton, N. Y. Samuel Adams, Lancaster, Pa. says "Brown's Iron Bitters thoroughly cured me of a bilious attack." For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street.

A COUGH, COLD OR SORE THROAT should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an incurable Lung Inflammation or Consumption. Brown's Bronchial Trochocid does not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but acts directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, giving relief to Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to.

For thirty years Brown's Bronchial Trochocid has been recommended by physicians, and always gives perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wife and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-earned rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold at 25 cents a box everywhere. my-11wtdw&fiv

Will you suffer with Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint? Sufferers are invited to send for a copy of our new book, "Wells' Health Renewer," to you. For sale by H. B. Cochran, 137 and 139 North Queen street. my-11wtdw&fiv

Now is the time to treat Catarrh of long standing. Elys' Cream Balm reaches old and obstinate cases, where all other remedies fail. Do not neglect procuring a bottle, as it fits the relief you seek. Apply to nostrils with little finger.

A gentleman from Oreville, Pa., called my attention to Elys' Cream Balm as a remedy for Catarrh. He says he used it on his nose in asserting it to be a positive cure (himself having been cured by it) that I purchased a stock. The Balm has already effected a number of cures. P. F. HYATT, M.D., Jordanstown, N.J.

For several years I have been troubled with Catarrh; have tried many remedies. Elys' Cream Balm has proved to be the article desired. I believe it is the only cure. J. B. COCHRAN, Towanda, Pa. dr-2wtdw&fiv

That Husband of Mine. Is there time the man he was before he began using "Wells' Health Renewer." St. Druggists.

THIRD EDITION.

LONDON'S GREAT FIRE LAST NIGHT. The Loss More Than Three Billion Pounds.—Destruction wrought by the Flames in Other Places.

LONDON, Dec. 8.—The fire at Foster, Porter & Co.'s, last night, is the greatest in London since the famous Toulsey street fire. The loss is estimated at upwards of £1,000,000, the stock of silk alone being valued at £600,000.

Fires at Other Places. BALISTON, N. Y., Dec. 8.—Fire at Barkersville, last night, destroyed the store and postoffice kept by Nicholas Shauler and wooden works of W. W. Monro, together with other buildings. Loss about $10,000.

JAMESTOWN, Va., Dec. 8.—The theatre here burned last night. No lives lost. Loss, $8,000.

BATH, Me., Dec. 8.—The upper part of Torr's brass foundry burned last night. Loss, $10,000.

ROCHESTER, Dec. 8.—A dispatch from Londonville says the vegetable soup works of F. C. Fero were burned last night. The adjoining buildings were saved by the fire use of cider taken from tanks near by.

CONGRESS. Both Branches Down to Work. WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—The House at 12:20 went into a committee of the whole on the private calendar.

In the Senate a number of petitions of tobacco dealers were presented, asking that in case of the reduction of tax on tobacco a corresponding rebate may be allowed.

Mr. Cameron (Pa.) presented a petition for the abolition of the tobacco tax. Mr. Beck's political assessment investigation resolution was called up and he criticized the substitute offered by Mr. Hale.

THE COLD SNOW. Thirty-seven below zero. MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 8.—The thermometer this morning at Winnipeg was thirty degrees below zero; at Esplanade, D. T., thirty seven below; Lake City, thirty below and fifteen to twenty eight below at other places in this region.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Dec. 8.—The severity of the cold weather has perceptibly abated here. The lowest point of the mercury at the city is about thirty degrees below zero.

EASTON, Dec. 8.—Two mills have shut down here in consequence of low water in the Delaware, that river now being lower than ever before.

VICTIMS OF SAVAGE FURY. The recent Indian massacre a horrible affair—seventy-five persons butchered by Indians in Cases Grandes.

CHIHUAHUA, Mex., Dec. 7.—The recent massacre by Indians in Cases Grandes proves to have been a horrible affair. Five hundred Apaches began an indiscriminate massacre of the little town.

THE READING RAILROAD'S NEW LOAN. Denying that the Coupons are Gowen's Property. PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 8.—In reply to the statement that the coupons of the new consolidated five per cent. bonds of the Philadelphia & Reading railroad have been paid and thus given preference over the interests in the general mortgage loan, the assistant treasurer of the company says that the interest on the new loan is being paid.

Men Blown to Pieces by Gunpowder. PORTLAND, Oregon, Dec. 8.—An explosion of gun powder yesterday in a tunnel on the Oregon & California railroad, twenty miles from Riddle, killed four Chinamen, dangerously injured four others, and blew a number of them out of the tunnel.

Fatally Burned While Playing with Matches. ST. ALBANS, Vt., Dec. 8.—Mrs. Bailey, of East Fairfield, yesterday left her two children, aged two and five years, in the care of a neighbor for a few minutes. They played with fire during her absence and the eldest child was burned to death and the other received fatal injuries.

Closing the Schockkill Canal. PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 8.—Orders have been given for the closing of the Schockkill river for the season on Saturday next. The canal is practically closed now, but more coal will be sent down from Schockkill Haven if the weather should permit.

A Drunken Man Frozen to Death. PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 8.—A man who was seen wandering about under the influence of liquor last night was found in the street this morning frozen to death. He has not yet been identified.

Two Cent Postage. WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—The House committee on postoffices to-day unanimously agreed to report favorably Representative Anderson's bill, fixing the rate of letter postage at two cents.

Motion Makers Arrested and Fined. NEW LEXINGTON, O., Dec. 8.—Eleven of the riotous mopers at Buckingham, were arrested and fined yesterday. It is thought this will end the trouble.

A Big List of Failures. NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—The business failures of the last seven days were 193, the largest number reported in any one week this year.

Weather Insulations.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—For the Middle Atlantic States, colder, fair weather, westerly winds, higher barometer.
