SATURDAY MISCELLANY.

FRIGHTENED BY STRANGE NOISES.

Ghostly things which led to the issuance of a writ of Habeas Corpus—Spirits Who Will Not Down.
The family of Anthony Mors, an untutored German, of Syracuse, N. P., have been frightened and disturbed for more than a month past by strange noises in their house. The noises are heard in the night, rousing them from slumber. Some times they are nothing more than gentle raps, but at other times they come in the form of thumps that shake the house and rattle the plaster down upon the floor. These noises have been heard in the street and by the neighbors.
News of the disturbance in Mors' house spread through the city, and a crowd had gathered to witness the nightfall blockade of the street, filling the doorway, and taking possession of the place. The police were called upon, and a detail has lately been sent every night to preserve the peace and protect the family. The crowd has assembled there night after night, and the police have been obliged to fire, and taking possession of the place. The police were called upon, and a detail has lately been sent every night to preserve the peace and protect the family. The crowd has assembled there night after night, and the police have been obliged to fire, and taking possession of the place.

REINE'S SUBTLE REFLECTION.

The Comment of a Chicago Girl on a Play With an Old Plot.

Chicago Tribune says: "Do you like Reine?" "No," replied Reine McCloskey, nervously pulling to pieces as she spoke a blush rose that had a moment before fallen from the stem, "he makes me tired."
Reine and her best girl friend Pansy Perkins were standing in the conservatory of Coastfield Castle this dreary November afternoon, when the skies were overcast with sullen looking clouds whose presence foretold a coming storm. They had been friends from youth, notwithstanding that Pansy had a seal skin sash two winters before, got on the right side of the wheat market, and gave one to Reine.
"There's indeed a deathless affection," "Have you seen 'Daniel Rochat'?" asked Pansy, suddenly changing the subject of conversation.
"No," replied Reine; "what is it about?"
"Oh! it's lovely. A man wants to marry a girl and she loves him terribly. They are married by the magistrate and then the girl wants to have another ceremony in the church. The man refuses because he is an infidel, but finally says he will do as she likes. Then the girl says she won't have him at all and they part very miserably."
"The girl refuses to marry him?" asks Reine in a haggard tone.
"Why, yes; she refuses utterly."
"Where is the action of this play located?"
"In Switzerland."
"Ah!" says Reine, a sigh of relief escaping her. "I thought an American girl would so far forget herself."
The kind of a Cigar He Was.
A very high-toned looking young man in exquisite moustache, loud plaid clothes, red necktie, low-crowned hat, straw-colored walking stick and a cane, walked into a tobacco shop on State street, and throwing down a half dollar on the counter, said:
"Mr. Shopkeeper, can you sell a gentleman a decent cigar?"
"Well, sir," said the cigar man meekly. "Well, then, fly around lively and do it. Don't you see that half dollar?"
"Yes, sir. What kind of a cigar do you want, sir?"
"What kind?"
"Yes, sir. Look at me, sir, a moment and see for yourself what kind of a cigar would suit me," and he drew himself up grandly and gazed down on the shopkeeper.
The shopkeeper looked and then took in the half dollar, got out a cigar, handing it to the man with forty-nine cents change and said: "I owe you half-a-cent, sir, but I can't make the change unless you take another cigar."
The man man looked at the shopkeeper and then at the cigar, and then at himself, and without a single word walked out of the shop.
"I'm a delegate in a Virginia convention," said one of our citizens, "and I don't know Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, he is so hoarse that I cannot understand him." That gentleman had undoubtedly tried this wonderful remedy.
"Men condemn in others what they practice themselves." Those who practice the use of Kidney-Wort never condemn its use by others, but commend it to all afflicted with aches, dyspepsia, constipation and all other diseases resulting from a disordered state of kidney, liver or bowels.
"Diamond Dyes are so perfect and so beautiful that it is a pleasure to use them. Equally good for dark or light colors. 10c a tin."
"SILVER'S CURE WILL immediately relieve Croup, Whooping Cough and Bronchitis. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street."
"If your sight is failing you, there is no other article that will so truly give you an eye for an eye" as the Celluloid Eye-Glasses. For sale by all leading jewelers and opticians.
"Wm. Buchanan, Wrightville, Pa., says: 'I have used Brown's Iron Bitters for dyspepsia and indigestion and feel much better.' For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street."
"Mr. J. Marsh Bank of Toronto, Ont., writes: 'Biliousness and dyspepsia seem to have grown up with me; but I have been a sufferer for years. I have tried many remedies, but with no result. I have tried your Brunner's Kidney Bitters. They have been truly a blessing to me, and I cannot speak too highly of them.' For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street."
"THE REV. GEO. H. THAYER of HORDON, ILL., says: 'Both myself and wife owe our lives to your Catarrh Remedy, which was sold by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street.'"
"Love Your Neighbor."
When your friend or neighbor is laboring under bodily affliction, biliousness, constipation, caused by impurity of blood, or other ailments of the kidneys, don't fail to recommend Brunner's Kidney Bitters, a sure and safe remedy. Price 25c. For sale by H. B. Cochran, 137 and 139 North Queen street.
"SILVER'S CATARRH REMEDY—a positive cure for Catarrh, Diphtheria and Canker Mouth. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street."
"Walnut Leaf Hair Restorer."
It is entirely different from all others. It is as clear as water, and, as its name indicates, is a perfect Vegetable Hair Restorer. It will immediately free the head from all dandruff, restore gray hair to its natural color and produce a new growth where it has fallen out. It does not hurt the scalp, and is a beautiful glossy balm. Ask your druggist for it. Each bottle is warranted. SMITH, KLINE & CO., Philadelphia, Philadelphia, and LIAISON & RUCKEL, New York. June 15, 1882.

MEDICAL.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS.

That is what a great many people are doing. They don't know just what is the matter, but they have a combination of pains and aches, and each month they grow worse.
The only sure remedy yet found is Brown's Iron Bitters, and this by rapid and thorough assimilation with the blood purifies and enriches it, and rich, strong blood flowing to every part of the system repairs the wasted tissues, drives out disease and gives health and strength.
This is why Brown's Iron Bitters was cured kidney and liver disease, consumption, rheumatism, neuralgia, dyspepsia, malaria, intermittent fevers, &c.
203 N. Para St. Baltimore. Nov. 29, 1881.
I was a great sufferer from Dyspepsia, and for several weeks could eat nothing and was growing weaker every day. I tried Brown's Iron Bitters, and in a few days I had a good appetite, and am getting stronger. J. W. McCRAWLEY.
Brown's Iron Bitters is not a drink and does not contain whisky. It is the only preparation of Iron that causes no injurious effects. Get the genuine. Don't be imposed on with imitations.
For sale wholesale and retail by H. B. COCHRAN, Druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster. ds1w1kw 5

DRY GOODS.

Wanamaker's.

Silk novelties innumerable and indescribable. Everything that ladies or dressmakers have occasion for in matching, decorating, combining. What we are remarkable for, more than for anything else in silks, is variety; or, at least, we are reputed so. You hear it said by everybody: "If you want to match anything, or find a rare silk, even an unexpected one, go to Wanamaker's."
The other peculiarity that everybody expects to find here is less pleasant to speak of; lower prices. We put it second, because there are people who don't credit us with lower prices. Still, we imagine that if one should assert the contrary, almost everybody in Philadelphia would believe it.
Often we speak of other aspects of our trade; aspects less obvious or less recognized. It is well occasionally to give old news.
Warm skirts for ladies, and leggings for ladies, girls and little girls. The warm skirts are satin, satin-and-cloth, satin-and-felt, satin-and-Italian-cloth, and Italian, all quilted; cloth, flannel and felt prettily trimmed, not quilted, warm enough without. The leggings are all sorts; one very useful and fairly pretty sort, woven, at two-thirds value, 25 to 65 cents.
West of south entrance to main building.
Furs have to be thought of. We're busy enough as it is making. If we advertise at all, we ought to say what will not oppress us with too much making. Perhaps this is. A great many seal coats and fur-lined circulars are ready-made. More sizes are ready-made here than anybody expects; especially the unexpected sizes. Ready-made work we can make in July. Why shouldn't we make all the shapes and sizes ready-made? 1203 Chestnut.
Black satin rhademas and satin de Lyons, 25 to 35 cents below our own recent prices, of all grades from $1 to $2; and we guess our prices haven't been very high; have they?
Wool serge embroidered with silk dots that ought to sell for $1.50—no that isn't the way to put it; it ought to sell according to our theory, for just as little as we can afford; and that is 75 cents.
Look out for such now. It's time for over-buying and all sorts of mistakes to show themselves. We try to keep ready to turn other folk's mistakes to account for ourselves and for you.
