RICHMOND'S COMPANY.

A Show That Did Not Make Money.

Last evening the Harry G. Richmond combination appeared in the opera house ing. Mr. I. E. Hull, the t bacco sampler to a very small audience. One reason for the bad house was that it became known before the arrival of the company that they did not have a number of people they were advertising. Yesterday morning large bills were thrown around the town on which appeared, among others, the names of the following well-known people : Turner, Welsh and Harris, Yalo and Decker, James and Katie Edwards, Major Burk and Leonard and Jones. The first named team is at Tony Pastor's in New York. Yale and Decker are at the Grand Central, Philadeiphia, where they have been nearly all season, and the other people are playing with different parties. When the Richmond show arrived yesterday, it was found to contain eleven people, all told, instead of twenty. Not-withstanding the very small audience the troupe decided to appear. They opened the performance with an act entitled "A Boaquet of Cranks," which created some tun. John C. Leach followed in an act in which he attempted to personate a Chinaman. He filled the audience with disgust, and they were glad to see him disappear for the last time. The Morello brothers were next to appear in their acrobatic feats. They are excellent actors and their peformance is wonderful. It was concluded with the difficult head balancing act. Lew Baker made lots of fun in darkey specialties and received several well deserved encores. Kittie Drew is a fair song and dance artist. Sweeny and Ryland made an inamenso hit in their Irish performance. Their jokes were new, their dancing good and their acting funny. Harry Richmond was the last actor to appear in the specialty part, and it soon became apparant that his acting fell very flat. It is of a style that is not at all to:n off of it. popular here, and the wonder is that the man was not hissed from the stage. He.

however, did not seem to know that the audience were tired of him, and took advantage of the least manifestation of applause to return to the stage. After coming back over a balf dozen times he made a speech in apology for the perform ance, which was worse than his acting, and all were very sick of him when he finally left. The performance closed with an old act, entitled "Two Married Men," with Sweeny and Ryland in the principal parts.

the forger said his name was Joseph Smith, that he worked for Mr. Minnich and that he received the check in payment for wages. He was detained by the bank officials until an officer arrived and took him in custody, to answer a charge of forgery. He was locked up for a hearing before Alderman Diffenderffer. The Stevens Hou e Assembly.

A number of gentlemen well-known an ocial circles have subscribed toward a grand assembly which it is designed to hold at the Stevens house on New Year's night, Monday, January 1, 1883. If sufficient encouragement is received to warrant it, the affair will be carried forward with all the celat that has signalized previous events of this kind, and it will no doabt prove a brilliant success. The Stevens bonse assembly of two years ago which was the last of a stries that for several seasons were highly popular, is remember ed as a most delightful affair, and the prospects of their revival has awake bed a lively interest among people who incline to social diversions of this sort. THE GOOD WILL BAND.

They Serena ie Their Friends.

The Good Will band, (colored), sereladed a number of their friends last evenwho had just arrived from New York, was the just to receive their attention. The band then called at the Cooper house, the Stevens house and several other places and furnished fine music. The band is improving randly, and if drilled properly, will soon take rank as one of the best in the county. They would look much better if they were fully uniformed, and they are making efforts to secure them. Their friends should give them a lift.

"Check.'-Roland Reed will pay this city a return visit to-morrow night, and judging from the fa. or with which he was received upon his former appearance there will be a large audience. Ilis play of " Check " is an amusing one and Mr. Reed's Dick Smythe is a comedy creation of unusual merit.

The following statement of William J. Cough in, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our read ers. He says : "In the fall of 18761 was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs, followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the sum-mer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Respital. while there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half-dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctor's and medfeines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope but a triend told me of DE. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughed at my friends, thinking my case incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my sur-prises a gratification, I commenced to feel better My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to lay I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years. "I write this hoping you will publish it, so that every one afflicted with Discussed Lungs will be induced to take DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, and be convinced that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED.
