OBITUARY

Death of Francis N. Daiez, Francis Nelson Daisz, son of Christo p'ier Daisz, the well-known grocer of this city, died at the residence of his parents, South Queen street near Vine about 10 o'clock last evening in the 30th year of his age. It is death resulted from consumption with which he suffered for the past nine months. He was a cigar-maker by trade but was for several years in the grocery business, first as a partner with Mr. Lawrence and subsequently as a salesman for his father. He was a man of good business qualifications and irreproachable character. He leaves a young bruised. wife but no children to mourn his untime-

Death of Abraham II. Reist. Abraham H. Reist, liquor taerchant of this city, died rather saddenly at his maidence, South Queen street near Vinc, between 1 and 2 o'clock this morning, ot congestion of the lungs, in the 57th year of his age. During the late cold spell of weather Mr. Reist took a long drive into the country, and contracted a severe cold. On Wednesday last he took his bed, and though he received the kindest nursing and the best medical attendance, he died at the time above stated. He was born near Lititz on the 18th of February, 1826. He married Miss Mary Miller, by whom he had six children, three of whom are living. For thirtcen years he was proprietor of the Washington house, at Manheim, Fourteen years ago he removed to this city, and went into the wholesale liquor trade, and carried it on till the time of his death.
