

LANCASTER INTELLIGENCER.

TUESDAY EVENING, DEC. 19, 1882.

UNUSUAL DOINGS.

Steadily Defeat Marital Matters. Our carnal fever rages unabated. A breath of it is fatal, and great numbers fall before it. Following are a few of the unfortunate victims.

Mr. Edwin Bookmyer, of Lancaster, who last week was grinning at the new house of Mr. David Weddley, Fairfield, slipped on the ice near his boarding house and hurt his ankle seriously. Dr. Glacken was called in and found one of the small bones broken.

Mr. Lukens Penrose also met with a bad accident last week. While cutting wood, by some misstroke he cut his foot very badly indeed, and will likely feel the bad effects of it the remainder of his life.

Mr. C. Hilton, who has been keeping store at Peach Bottom, has bought the store property at Mechanic's Grove, from Mr. J. L. Acheson, and will move there in the spring.

Our community will have to do less marrying or build more houses. The demand exceeds the supply. But little tobacco is stripped, the weather having been, and being, too dry to handle it.

Queer Wild Ducks Caught Alive. Havre-de-Grace Republican. During the storm of Wednesday John Suter, while gunning near Watson Island, saw a pair of strange ducks on land and went ashore to give them chase and one of them catching its wing in the bushes, was easily captured. Its mate flew around the island several times, but would not stay away from its captured companion.

Coming closer to Mr. Suter it was struck with an air and caught. The pair were purchased by Mr. W. A. Hill, of the City hotel, for $10, who has them now confined in an outhouse. They are of a dark bronze color, with slightly reddish breasts, and when in the sunlight present a beautiful appearance. These ducks have been seen by visitors and sportsmen from Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, as well as our duckers generally, none of whom know their names or have ever seen the kind before. The pair will weigh sixteen or eighteen pounds.

The Thirteen Club. The "Thirteen Club" dined on Wednesday evening (the 13th) at Knickerbocker Cottage, No. 434 (which added makes 13) Sixth avenue, New York. Thirteen men walked up thirteen steps and passed under a ladder containing thirteen rounds, and then sat down to a repast of thirteen courses, accompanied with thirteen kinds of liquor and wines. It is said each one of the thirteen perpetrated a beautiful appearance. These ducks have been seen by visitors and sportsmen from Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, as well as our duckers generally, none of whom know their names or have ever seen the kind before. The pair will weigh sixteen or eighteen pounds.

Don't Throw Up the Sponge. When an infertile man is entering the harvest of his life, and his wife is in general debility, they are too often inclined to throw up the sponge and resign themselves to fate. We say, don't do it. Take Bartlett's Blood Purifier, the infallible remedy. Price $1. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen St.

From Emporium. Geo. Dodge, Jr., a well-known citizen of Emporium, writes that once his man (Sam Lewis) while working in the woods so severely sprained his ankle, he could scarcely get home, but after one or two applications of Thomas' Electric Oil, he was able to go to work next day. Address: H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street.

BENSON'S POROUS PLASTERS. Back Ache. POSITIVELY CURED BY Benson's Caprine Porous Plasters.
