WEDNESDAY EVENING, DEC. 20, 1882.

THE CERISTMAS TIME. Tir merry Christmas, with its generou its firelit hearths and gifts, and blazing trees, The pleasant voices uttering gentle words, his minial mirth attuned to sweet accords, to toly memories.

The fairest season of the passing year-The merry Christmas time is here.

The sumacs by the brook have lost their red The mill-wheel in the ice stands dumb and still. The leaves have fallen and the birds have fled The flowers we loved in summer, all are dead

And wintry winds blow chill; Yet something makes this dreariness le drear-

The merry, merry Christmas time is here. Since last the panes were hoar with Christma.

trost, Unto our lives some changes have been given;

Some of our barks have labored, tempes tossed, Some of us, too, have leved and some hav lost,

Some found their rest in heaven. So, humanly, we mingle smile and tear,

When merry Christmas time is drawing near.

Three Attempts at Self-Destruction. Mrs. Michael Maher, of Erie, received : telegram Tuesday morning from Youngs town, Ohio, stating that her sister, Laura E. Hayes, attempted suicide Monday evening by taking strychaine. This young woman undertook to commit suicide by taking laudanum in Erie about a year ago, but she was discovered by a young man who had called at her room at her request and was taken directly to a doctor's office where proper antidotes were administrated She then went to the house of her father in Union City, but returned a day later and was found almost frozen to death at the front door of her residence in West Fourth street, Eric. where she had been formerly employed as a domestic. She recovered. Afterwards she went to Sha ron where she engaged in dressmaking until Saturday last. Failing to find em ployment she desided to take poison, saying she was tired of living. This is the third attempt to take her life. Her husband deserted her a few years ago, and it is supposed her mind became affected as the result of the trouble.

MEDICAL. N. BENSON'S REMEDIES.

[From Androw's American Queen.]

CLEOPATRA,

Oueen of Sheba's Beauty

WAS BUT SKIN DEEP. The renowned Queen of Sheba, with all her oyal pomp, magnificent apparel and brilliant retinue, would never have appeared within the presence of the grandest of the monarch of the past, had she not also possessed that which is the crowning glory of the female per son—a skin unchailenged for its Oriental softness and its almost transcendental purity. Cleopatra, holding emperors at bay, and ruling empires by her word, had quickly lost her harm and power by one attack of blotches, or of pimples, or of horria tan and freckles. WOMAN RULES THE WORLD.

by her beauty, not less than by her purity of character, loveliness of disposition and unselfish devotion. Indeed, in the estimation of perhaps too many men beauty in a body takes recedence over every other consideration Brauty thus forms an important part of wo man's " working capital," without which too many (II not bankrupts in what relates to influence within the circle where they move) are powerless for great good. Hence we see not only the propriety but the duty of every lady preserving with zealous care that which to her is essential to success, and influence and usefulness in life. And since "beauty is but skin deep," the utmost care and vigilance are required to guard it against the many ills that flesh is heir to. Among the great an an noying enemies of beauty, OF EITHER SEX.

as well as of comfort, happiness and health, are those postiferous and horrid skin disease: -tetters, humors, eczema (salt rheum), rough and scaly cruptions, ulcers, pimples, and all diseases of the hair and scalp. For the cure of all these, Dr. C. W. Benson, of Baltimore, after cars of patient study and investigation devoted to diseases of the skin, at last brought forth his celebrated SKIN CURE, which has already by its marvelous cures, established it self as the great remedy for all diseases of the skin, whatever be their names or character Its success has been immense and unparalleled. All druggists have it. It is elegantly put up, two bottles in one package. Internal and external treatment. Price, $1.00.

EVERYONE PRAISES. sick headache, nervous headache, neuralgia, nervousness, paralysis, dyspepsia, sleepless ness and brain diseases, positively cared by Dr. C. W. Benson's Celery and Chamomile Pills.
