How Mount Joy Has Recently Suffered from Late on Wednesday afternoon a thiel visited the residence of Josiah D. Good, in Mount Joy borough. He entered the steeping room on the first floor and took therefrom a full suit of Mr. Good's clothing. Several hours after the theft was committed, he discovered his loss. That evening the thief was traced as far west as Florin, where, night setting in, Mr. Good gave up the pursuit. The next even ing he took the early train for Elizabethtown, and on arriving there, started for Mt. Joy on the Harrisburg pike. At Rheem's station he met his man, and after a forced search he found his vest in the thief's satchel. The trousers and coat the thief was wearing underneath his clothes. Ni. Good forced the tramp to go with i.m. to Edzabethtown, where he had becar rested. 'Squire J. R. Decker, et al a place, sent the prisoner, who have ats name as John Myers, occupation, ambacha mender, to jail. A valuable Red Men's badge attached to the vest Mr. Good re

At the postoffice the door was ferged open, and after ransac'. ing the office the burglars left, but to 'c nothing with them. At Mooney's salarn they entered through the door and trota the money drawer took about $6 in coins. A stranger duped several citizens of stount Joy, on Thursday forenoon. He came to the Red Lion hotel at two o c ock on Thursday morning, having been put off the train. He said he was on his way from Kansas to Newark, N. J., on a visit to his brother. His money was gone and tot having a ticket the conductor would not carry him any further. He claimed that he had been a school teacher until a year ago. At that time on account of hard study, he became blind. He inquired for a Prysbyterian elergyman or an elder | 5 of that church. Thefe he saw during the morning, and besides them, Auctioneer L. D. Gallagher. He wanted Mr. Gallagher to sell his baggage, two good valises. This the auctioneer refused to do, but he undertook to collect the fare to Newark, $1.85. More than this was collected in a short time. He was escorted to the train at noon that day. At the ticket office he had his change converted into a five dellar note, refusing to buy a ticket. He told the agent that he expected to get half rates from the conductor. To the conductor he refused to pay his fare, and on arriving at Landisville he was put off the selegates Chosen to the General Conference Afternoon session. - The electoral college re-assembled at 2 o'clock and opened with devotional exercises.

Referring to the unexpectedly small attendance of delegates, F. P. Main, of Zion mission said he attributed it to the change of time made by Bishop Brown, who had originally fixed the 19th of Deccember for the meeting of the college and then at very short notice changed the date to the 21st. This had, no doubt, interfered with the arrangements previously made by some of the delegates and thus many of the churches were left unrepresented. He moved the passage of a resolution requesting the bishop to make some explanation of his action. The resolution was adopted.

Next a resolution was adopted that nominations of delegates to the general conference be made in open session justead of by committee, as had been the custom herotofere. The resolution was adopted. F. P. Main comminated Israel C. Wears. of Philadelphia, and made a complimentary speech in his favor.

Rev. Robert Boston nominated F. P. The nomination was seconded by G. W. Gibbs, and I. C. Wears; complimentary speeches as to the character and fitness of the candidate were made. A vote being taken Messrs. Wears and Main were unanimously elected to represent the college as lay delegates in the general conference. F. P. Main suggested that it would be advisable to select the alternates from different sections of the conference than that from which the delegates had been The convention having so decided, Mr. Main nominated G. W. Gibbs, of Chester, and Mr. Wears nominated G. W. Hamilton of Wilmington, Delaware, both of whom were unanimously elected. A resolution was passed tendering a vote of thanks to Rev. W. R. Norris, pastor of the Lancaster church, for the efficient manner in which he had prepared for the meeting of the college, and the kind attention and hospitality shown the delegates. After the passage of a resolution of thanks to the president and secretary, I.C. Wears made an address on the social, moral and intellectual condition of the colored people.

At the close of Mr. Wear's address the college rejourned.
