The Organization of the House.

The Democratic members of the Pennsylvania House, constituting its responsible majority, seem to be approaching their work with that gravity which the situation demands.

Tempered. It would ruin the party undertaking it.

The Examiner says: The INTELLIGENCER we suppose, after it gets through scolding the paper and folder question for the Senate and House, and the worthless legislative Record, will next turn its attention to the abolition of a lot of useless clerkships in the office of secretary of internal affairs and other departments.

The Democratic secretary of internal affairs does not take his seat until May. The Legislature meets next Tuesday. The immediate concern of the public is with the nearer of these events.

THE ALLEGHENY CITY STORY.

School Girl Days—The Object of Alleged Recent Movements of Dukes.

A Pittsburgh Evening Telegraph reporter made a discovery which, it is stated, throws new light on the tragedy at Uniontown. What led to the murder is known in a general way, and everyone believes that it was the unfortunate intimacy of Mr. Dukes and Miss Nutt, which was the prime cause.

It was thought by Mr. Dukes' friends that his reason for not marrying Miss Nutt was because he did not believe her to be chaste. It now looks as though there was an entirely different cause for Dukes' refusal to become the husband of Miss Nutt, and that, in Allegheny, on one of the quiet streets in the lower part of the city, lives a pretty little lady, twenty-seven years old.

Dukes left the college and went to Princeton, and the intimacy went the way of school time loves and hates, and each apparently forgot the other. Miss Ella became a young lady, met a Pittsburgh merchant whom she liked well enough to marry and she became Mrs. —.

Mr. DUKES has recovered from his attack of bronchitis. PRINCE ARISUGAWA and suit left Washington yesterday morning for San Francisco.

REPRESENTATIVE KASSON, of Iowa, will be a candidate for United States senator to succeed Mr. Allison.

V. D. STOCKBRIDGE, assistant commissioner of patents, has resigned, his resignation being accepted by the secretary.

MR. NICHOLS made the tour of China town, San Francisco, visiting the theatres, restaurants and joss houses.

LOT M. MORRIS is reported by telegram from Augusta to be gradually failing. All hope of his recovery was given up several weeks ago.

MR. GLADSTONE has had a slight attack of cough, owing to a chill consequent upon exposure while felling a tree on Tuesday. He was much improved last evening.

HON. SILAS M. CLARK, supreme judge of Pennsylvania, was tendered a reception by the members of the bar of Indiana and Armstrong counties at Indiana on Wednesday.

GENERAL C. H. GROSVENOR, of Ohio, has declined to accept the recent allowance made to him of $4,679 as arrears of pensions, saying he does not need it, and only pressed the application to vindicate the honesty of the claim after an open and bitter enemy had falsely alleged that the claim was a false one and ought not to be granted.
