Neiman, a rather good looking man. alleat the mayor's effice and demands. Neiman's letter, and on being refused threatened to get it if had "to go to law" for it. The mayor mildly suggested that so far as the facts had been developed, "law" was just what Mr. Neiman did not want. A copy of the letter was, however, given to him, and while he was yet in conversation with the mayor Chief of Police Deichler entered with a warrant and arrested him for forging the name of A J. Myers to a note for $200. Neiman was locked up, and the York authorities were notified. This morning Constable F. M. Bahm, of York, came to Lancaster and took him away to answer the c'arge of forgery and such other charges as may be this world to relieve our necessities, not to preferred against him.

Annoyances Which Ought to be Bemedied. There is great complaint that a man on Poplar street, near Laurel, is in the habit of running after and frightening children also are returning to their homes from the cotton mills and night schools. The police have been notified and they will reend to the man's case.

The employees of the Quarryville rail road are greatly annoyed by a boy who will persist in jumping on freight trains as they pass along Water street. Boys of all ages can be seen running after or rading on every train, and it is impossible for the train men to keep them off. This morning when a shifting engine stopped at a coal yard on this street, five small boys were fourd huddled together on the cowcatcher. They ran away as soon as the train stopped, and, although the train men gave chase, they were unable to catch them. If the parents of these youngsters do not take care of them the railroad company should follow the example of the Pennsylvania railroad and arrest every boy for trespass.

Christmas at Olivet.

Olivet Baptist church had its Christmas celebration in the First Reformed church last evening in the presence of an audience that crowded the large room to its full capacity. The cetertainment was a success in every way, frequent applause attesting the excellent manner in which the several performers acquitted themselves in their respective parts of the programme, which consisted of music, recitations, dialogues and the like. Each child received a Christmas present in the shape of cakes, fruit and confections, and two of them received also special prizes for efficiency in the study of the Bible during the past year. The pastor and wife were kindly remembered by the congregation, each receiving a sum of money. Though coming late in the week the entertainment was not inferior in point of merit and enjoyment to the many that preceded it.

Election of Omcers. The following were elected as officers of Conestoga council No. 22, Jr. O. U. A. M., on Thursday evening last to serve for the ensuing year : Councillor, G. Atlee Graham ; V. Councillor, Jac. Houser; Rec. Sec., John C. Swope; A. R. Sec., George A. Wilhelm; Financial Sec., Edw. S. Smeltz; Treasurer, John C. The Arsembly.

A good many society people are on the tiptoe of expectancy in view of the grand assembly which is to take place on Monday, New Year's night, at the Stevens house. The gentlemen who have the affair in charge report indications of a large and brilliant gathering, and the liveries and hackmen are being put to the test of their fullest capacity by the orders that for reveral days have been coming in upon them engaging conveyances for the occasion. It is expected that more than one bundred couples will be present. and the response include a number of acceptance from abroad. The promenade will probably take place about nine o'clock, and the tables will be set in the corridors from ten o'cleck until midnight

Coroner's Inquest,

Deputy Coroner G. S. Fry held an inquest on the dead body of Jacob Garner, whose suicide was noticed in yesterday's INTELLIGENCER, and his jury returned a verdict that the said Jacob Garner came to his death in the barn of Henry Kessler, occupied by the said Jacob Garner, as tenant, on the 28th day of December 1882, between the hours 6 and 7 o'clock, a. m., where he was found hanging by the neck from a beam on a hitching strap, and so, as a felon of himself voluntarily hanged himself,
