

COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE. Events Along the Susquehanna—Items of Interest in and Around the Borough Picked Up by the Intelligence Reporter.

Mrs. Abram Mellinger lost a cameo scarf pin yesterday. Mr. Charles Grob fell on the ice yesterday and received an ugly gash above the left eye.

A runaway accident occurred yesterday on Fifth street. The wagon was broken and the horse seriously injured by the broken shaft sticking to its side.

Last year 7,350 tons of iron and 2 grades of pig iron were made at the Henry Clay furnace. The present founder at the furnace, Mr. George Dannelly, has been there a number of years.

While grinding a guide at the Susquehanna rolling mill, Chas. Mischeimer almost had one of his hands cut off by slipping and throwing his hand against some machinery.

Last night Mr. Archie Snavely's hen coop on Poplar street, was robbed of its entire contents. It is reported that their late owner might desire a memento of his stolen property, the head of one of the chickens was cut off and laid on the door step of the house.

Thomas Swinger won the pair of prize ducks at the shooting match which was held at the gas house yesterday. A large crowd of spectators was drawn to the spot to see the sport.

The same afternoon a raffle match was held at John Schlegel's for a pig. It was won by Peter Eitzer, who made a throw of 48 points.

The Shawnee Trial. The fire boys were out in force yesterday to see a trial of the Shawnee engine. The cold weather has evidently frozen the firemen of the other companies in their engine houses, as they have not had a test of their engines for some time.

For the benefit of a "pinking" mind we will state that the term "pinking" used by us yesterday in referring to a sport, for the enjoyment of which a skid and two iron tipped sticks are necessary, is of Norwegian origin. In Norway this mode of travel is a very common one.

The Car Movement. The following is the car movement of the Pennsylvania railroad at this place for December, 1882: Eastward, loaded, 39,841; empty, 41,311. Westward, loaded, 10,229; empty, 39,054; total, 40,282. Grand total, 81,529. December against November, 81.

Personal Mention. Miss Ella Frey, on Union street, is entertaining her friend Miss Ella Heath, of Philadelphia.

Miss Annie Beckins has returned home from Philadelphia where she had been visiting friends.

Mr. James Devine has returned to this place from Pittsburgh for the purpose of removing his family to the new house.

Dr. E. W. Gerke returned to day to his post of duty on the eastern shore of Virginia, where he is chief engineer of a new line of railroad which is being constructed.

New Year's Day passed off pleasantly here. There was little drunkenness and no fighting. The river was crowded with skaters all day, many of whom were from Lancaster and York.

The entertainment at the Methodist church in the evening was a success. The program of the programme being particularly favored by the audience, which was a large one.

In the evening the Columbia fire company also held its annual New Year's ball in Old Fellows' hall. The hall was crowded to its utmost, the acts all being jammed into the smallest possible space.

The dancing was kept up until after 1 o'clock this morning. The management deserves much credit for the manner in which affairs were conducted.

Horse, Buggy and Harness stolen. Last night a horse, buggy and a set of harness were stolen from the barn of Martin Witmer, near Lampeter Square.

The animal is a bay near 15 hands high, 20 years old, with one white hind foot and no shoes. The buggy is a piano box and the harness are common black mounted.

The team was traced to Witmer's bridge, across the Conestoga, just east of the city and it is believed to have been brought to this city.

Last night thieves broke into the stable of James B. Frey, at the corner of North Queen street and stole a double set of carriage harness.

The Seventh Day Baptists. The Seventh Day Baptists of Ephrata held their regular election for trustees yesterday. Owing to a feud of long standing, which has resulted in much litigation, some trouble was feared at the election; but the "new version" or David Long party, who hold the keys of the church building under an injunction from Judge Patterson, allowed the so-called "True Church" party to enter the church.

Two sets of trustees were elected, voting being done at two separate boxes. T. K. Konigsmacher, A. F. Madlem and J. J. R. Sciergoss, were elected by the True Church party, and Lorenz Noke, Wm. Madlem, and Henry Shaeffer by the other faction, which claims to be the "real" ones.

The last named party polled 24 votes, the other 17.

DEATH FROM GAS. A Man Found Dead at a Home Here. Henry Ross, aged about 45 years, residing at Bellefonte, was found dead this morning at the lime kilns of Milton Eaby, near that place.

He had been drinking for some time and it is supposed that while under the influence of liquor he laid down by the fire on the top of the kiln to keep warm. His death was undoubtedly caused by gas from the kiln.

Why Do people Have...

They don't shed arms and legs to get new ones. Teeth are indispensable, and the creator gives two chances. When one uses SOZODONT, even young babies, it preserves the "delicious teeth," and helps to strengthen the permanent.

SECOND EDITION.

TUESDAY EVENING JAN. 2, 1883. AT HARRISBURG. MEETING OF THE NEW LEGISLATURE.

Keyburn Elected President Pro. Tem. of the Senate—Organization of the House—Clerks Offices.

Special Dispatch to the INTELLIGENCER. HARRISBURG, Jan. 2.—The Senate has organized by the election of Keyburn, president pro tem, and Cochran chief clerk.

The Democratic caucus nominees of last evening and this morning, so far as agreed upon, have been elected in the House. The committee appointed last night to report what offices can be dispensed with report that the following are unnecessary: two assistant sergeants-at-arms; two assistant doorkeepers, two messengers, assistant postmaster, five pasters and folders, janitor of the basement and janitor of wash room.

The caucus last night only completed the nominations of Fauca for speaker, Meek for chief clerk, C. Ben Johnson for reading clerk, Elbridge McConkey for resident clerk, T. B. Gregory, of Clarion, and G. Morris Eccles, of Cumberland, for transcribing clerks. This morning Hagan, of Allegheny, was nominated for doorkeeper and Boland, of Schuylkill, for sergeant-at-arms.

Postmaster, superintendent of folding rooms and messenger will be named at 8 o'clock this evening when the caucus reconvenes. At the same time a committee of fifteen will be announced to "suggest" (not to "fill") the other offices. But before that committee gets to work the caucus will have to act upon the report of the other committee designating the superfluous offices. The reform sentiment is strong; so is the clamor for place.

In the Senate. HARRISBURG, Jan. 2.—The Senate has chosen John E. Keyburn for its president by the following vote: Keyburn 26, Hall 20, Lee 5.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 2.—The anticipated trouble in the Senate did not take place. That body was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Stone, and after prayer the newly elected members were sworn in. Messrs. Keyburn, Lee and Hall were placed in nomination for president of the Senate pro tem. The first ballot resulted as follows: Keyburn 23, Hall 20, Lee 7.

A second ballot was then taken and resulted as follows: Keyburn 26, Hall 20, Lee 4. Stewart, Emery, Agnew and McFarland voted for Lee.

Thomas B. Cochran was unanimously chosen chief clerk. George Pearson was selected as reading clerk, and E. W. Smith as journal clerk. The Senate then at 2 p. m., took a recess until 3 o'clock.

In the House. HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 2.—The Legislature assembled this afternoon with a large attendance in both Houses, and the ironical oath was administered to members. Among the absentees members of the House was N. L. Dales, who was recently shot and killed. A. C. Nutt, cashier of the treasury, Fauca was elected speaker on first ballot by a vote of 111 to 88. The other Democratic caucus nominees were also elected.

The House Republican Caucus. HARRISBURG, Jan. 2.—At a caucus of the Republican members of the House, to-day Jerome B. Niles, of Tioga, received the nomination for speaker, the contestants being Landis, of Lancaster, and Brown, of Erie. All the officers of 1882 were re-nominated. The Democratic majority of the House these nominations are of course merely honorary.

THE SUPREME BENCH. Sharewood Retires and Clark Goes On. PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 2.—In the state supreme court to-day Hon. George Sharswood formally retired from the office of chief justice, and Hon. Ulysses McCard, was inducted into office as his successor. The proceedings were also marked by the seating upon the bench of Hon. Silas M. Clark, who was recently elected to serve in that court.

Jarvis Assailants Have a Hearing. PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 2.—Policeman Jarvis, who was stabbed by the Rusk brothers, being pronounced out of danger, John Glenn, alias Burdick, J. Willeim, and Charles W. Miller, were arraigned at Stollenberger, who were arrested for being concerned in the murderous assault, Glenn and Willeim were identified and were held in $5,000 bail each, but the others were discharged.

Fatal Exchange of Shots. NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—Roundsman John Delaney, of the Tombs police court, went about noon to day to arrest Patrick McGowan, at No. 124 Hester street. As the officer was about to capture McGowan the latter drew a revolver and shot Delaney in the eye. The roundsman then shot the ruffian dead. Delaney was placed in custody.

Freight Depot and Other Buildings Destroyed. WHITE RIVER JUNCTION, Vermont, Jan. 2.—The Union freight depot, at this place, was destroyed by fire this morning, together with French's wholesale store and Hinckley & Sons' warehouse. The Woodstock railroad depot and Daniel Tilden's stock of flour were also burned. Loss not yet estimated.

Killed by a Fall of Earth. ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 2.—Nimrod Owens (colored), Michael Tongevine and Matthew Hasset, laborers, were killed to-day by the caving in of earth upon them, while cutting down a high bank for a new street. Another man lost his life in the same way at the same place a few weeks ago.

Noters at Reading. READING, Pa., Jan. 2.—The strikers at the Tupton furnace last night endeavored to prevent new men from taking their places and a riot ensued. Two of the ring leaders were arrested and held in $500 bail and the new employees to day went to work.

A Yale Professor's Serious Loss. NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 2.—The house of Prof. Miller, of Yale college, burned this morning. It contained a valuable library and choice pictures and statuary. Loss estimated at from $10,000 to $15,000.

Governor Cleveland's Message. ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 2.—The Legislature convened to-day and the message of Governor Cleveland was read. He continues himself to state matters entirely and does not touch upon national affairs.

Suspension of a British Firm. ST. JOHN, N. B., Jan. 2.—Carroll, McKeach & Co., lumber dealers, etc., of the branch house of Carroll & Sons, of Liverpool, who failed recently, have suspended. Liabilities, $150,000.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 2.—The Republican legislative caucus last night nominated Loren Fletcher for speaker of the House. He is friendly to Windom's election to the United States Senate.

Grief at the Death of a Student. PARIS, Jan. 2.—It is estimated that 3,000 people visited Gaudin's studio in evidence yesterday to view the remains. His friends seem utterly beside themselves with grief.

Valuable Pictures Burned. NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—A fire at Miss Gibson's art gallery last night destroyed pictures to the value of $40,000.

WEATHER INDICATIONS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—For the Middle Atlantic states, colder fair weather, south-west veering to north-west wind, higher pressure.

Marshall McMichael's Deputy. WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—J. B. Fasset, of New York, was to day appointed deputy United States marshal by Marshall McMichael.

The Debt Decrease. WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—The debt statement, issued to-day, shows the decrease of the public debt during the month of December to be $15,413,232.

The New York Speaker. ALBANY, Jan. 2.—Alfred C. Chapin, of Brooklyn, was chosen speaker of the House.

Philadelphia Market. Philadelphia, Jan. 2.—Flour quiet, but receipts 52,000 bushels; Southern, 45 to 65; Penn's Family, $4 00 to 4 25. Rye flour at 75.
