On New Year's day it mysteriously disappeared, and nothing more two ago when it returned home, with a than in any other play she has essayed, has is at a loss to know how the dog came into pessession of the chain and collar. The dog bears a good reputation for honesty, and never committed a larceny, as far as is known. Mr. Roehm has no use for the collar or the chain and the owner of them can have them by calling at the North Pole. If it should appear that the dog stole them Billy will "lick" the dog; and if, on the other hand, it should appear that the dog was stolen and tied up by the owner of the chain then Billy will lick him. In either event an interview is desirable.

P. S .- The " North Pole" referred to is not the one that DeLong and Melville and other cranks went in search of; but is a beer saloon away up North Queen street.

STAMERS COLLIDE IN THE CHANNEL The City of Brussels Cut in Two by another Vessel-Some of the Crew and Two Passengers Drowned.

Intelligence has just reached Cork that the Inman line steamer City of Brussels, Captain Land, from New York December 28 for Liverpool, was run down in the channel by a Glasgow steamer, during a fog, and that ten persons were drowned. Two of those drowned were passengers. LONDON, Jan. 8 .- The main compart ment of the City of Brussels was cut right in two. After the collision the fog thickened and it was dangerous even for the boats to move around. boy was however taken from the rigging in a half drowned condition The two Italian passengers who were drowned seem to bave lost their wits from terror and jumped overboard without waiting to see what could be done for their safety. Mr. Connor, quartermaster, and Mr. Cochran, steward of the steamer, are among those lost. Neither the passengers nor the crew were able to save anything, and many persons were obliged to leave the ship with the buest articles of clothing. Those saved were taken to Woodside by the steamer Kirby Hall, which ran down the City of Brussels, and were afterwards taken to Liverpool. One man was found by the boats dead in the rigging. The passengers of the City of Brussels have drawn up a memorial in which they express their gratitude and admiration of the courage and coolness of the captain and other officers of the ill fated vessel.

THE READING ROAD. Annua! Meeting of the Stockholder -- Presi-

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 8 .- The opening proceedings of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad company were devoid of interest, there being no more than 200 persons present when the meeting was called to order. E. S. Whelen was called to preside, and Albert Foster, secretary of the company, read the proceedings of last year's meeting. President Gowen then read his annual report, which was briefer than usual. It states that the sum of $7,605,491.30 has been paid in cash on the deferred income bonds, of which $6,643,505 was paid in England and the remainder in America. The plan of financial reorganization as already made public was discussed at length. The receivers during the three years of their control have expended $5,448,179.15 in new equipment and other expenses. In order to termin to the receivership, an attempt has been made to negotiate for $13,000,000 of the five per cent. consols, only $730,000 of which have been sold. The report closes by saying that application will be made this week to dissolve the receivership. Mr. Gowen likewise read the receive, s' report and their recommendations favoring a dissolution of the receivership. At the conclusion of the reading of the two eports, which occupied considerable time, resolutions were offered approving of the reports and referring them to the in coming board of managers for consideration
