CENTRAL DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA. Lines On Which It Is Proposed to Divide It.

The committee appointed at the last diocesan convention of Central Pennsylvania, on motion of Hon. S. H. Reynolds, of this city, to ascertain and report to the next annual convention these lines upon one of which the diocese of Central Pennsylvania may be divided, met at the Episcopal residence in Reading, yesterday at 10:30 a. m.

The committee consists of Right Rev. M. D. Wolf, Howe, chairman; Rev. Jones, of Wilkesbarre; Hewitt, of Bellefonte; Tolman, of Mauch Chunk; Leventer, of Carlisle; and Messrs. S. H. Reynolds, of Lancaster; R. C. E. Mercur, of Leaning; Henry C. Leckie, of Reading; and Dr. Bloomberg, of Pottsville. After a protracted session and much discussion the committee decided to report the lines as follows:

First. The new diocese to be composed of the Williamsport and Harrisburg conventions with Lebanon county (now attached to the Reading convention) and the Williamsport and Northampton conventions. This proposed division is known among churchmen to the east and west line.

Second. The new diocese to be composed of all territory now embraced within the limits of the Central Pennsylvania diocese, lying west of the Susquehanna river and extending from the point where the river enters Pennsylvania to the point where it enters Maryland.

The Harrisburg Convention. The sessions of the Harrisburg convocation of the Episcopal church were continued yesterday and today in St. James church, this city, the topic under consideration being the work of the diocese. Last evening there was public service held, in which earnest missionary addresses were made by Rev. Easton and Dean Platt.

This morning the services were continued by the dean and Rev. Baker. This evening at 7:30 the closing session of the convocation will be held. There will be an evening church service followed by a sermon.

U. P. Church Councils. The sessions of the presbytery of Philadelphia of the United Presbyterian church, were concluded on Tuesday. Rev. J. Q. A. McDowell, moderator. Rev. Dr. D. W. Collins was received from the presidency of Canaanagh. Mr. Patton, student of theology, presented trial sermons for homology. Mr. Joseph D. M. Goo presented the cause of the quarterly tentorial fund, and a resolution was adopted approving the plan. The Twelfth congregation was commended to the churches for further support. Delegates to the general assembly of the U. P. church, to be held in Pittsburg, Pa., May next, were then elected, as follows: Messrs. R. W. James Price, A. H. Crosby, J. T. Wright, alternates, Revs. Dr. Platte, T. W. Anderson, J. Q. A. McDowell, Elders—Thomas Stinson, J. C. Kerr, W. K. Carson; alternates, John P. Scott, John Spratt, and James D. Ferguson.

Next meeting of the presbytery will be held in Otterdale, Bart township, Lancaster county, on May 7th. The extensive repairs of the Oxford United Presbyterian church having been completed, the reopening with a dedicatory service took place on Sunday last. There was present at 11 a. m. a large congregation, notwithstanding the unpleasant weather and the icy and slippery condition of the streets. Rev. T. W. Anderson, of Baltimore, preached the dedicatory sermon, from Isaiah 60: "The glory of this house shall be greater than the former."

Police Cases. This morning two drunks were sent to jail by Mayor MacGonigle for terms, ranging from 5 to 30 days. One was sent to the workhouse for 30 days and four others were discharged.

Two drunks were sent out for a hearing by Alderman Samson and one got 3 days from Alderman Barr. Alderman Samson committed to the county jail for drunken and disorderly conduct Thomas Welch for six days. Wm. Money for five days and Frank Lee for thirty days. The last named was found lying in the snow on the Harrisburg place near the subway on Saturday last. He had frozen to death but it has not been picked up. He was quite helpless and had to be taken to the station house on a sled.

Special Train to Harrisburg. The Pennsylvania railroad company has issued a circular setting forth that the company will run a special excursion to Harrisburg on next Tuesday (to-morrow) day. It will leave at 9 a. m. at 9:30 a. m. and arrive at Harrisburg at 10:50, going via Columbia; returning it will leave Harrisburg at 4:50 p. m. The fare from here will be $1.41, and from intermediate points in proportion. Persons going up on the special train of next Tuesday will be taken by regular trains will be the same, and the excursion tickets sold Jan. 15 and 16 will be good to return until the 17th, inclusive.

Surprise Donation Party. The members of the Second Evangelical church, together with their friends, gave their pastor, Rev. J. C. Krause, a surprise and donation last evening. Many gifts of a substantial character in groceries, meats and dry goods, were presented. After enjoying the surprise and spending a pleasant time together, they at an early hour departed to their homes, taking with them their light baskets and leaving behind them light hearts.
