COUNTY FINANCES. Mr. Pullan Makes Some Explanations.

Ex County Solicitor Hugh R. Fulton, esq., in answer to our editorial in last evening's paper, states that of the seventy three claims made against the county for land damages during his three years' term of office in only one case did ke have asso ciate counsel for the county, and for that a fee of $20 was paid by the commissioners, a difference of over $1,100 less than was paid special counsel for the previous 3 years. Mr. Fulton further states that the county barn and Binkley's bridge are not a loss to the county as alleged, but that the almshouse barn was insured for as large an insurance as could be placed on it, and that the county is not liable for the loss of Binkley's bridge, the New Holland turnpike company being liable to rebuil1 it by a special act of Assembly, and that the company had it insured.

OBITTARY.

Sudden Death of An Aged Lady, Mrs. Martha Shenk, wife of John

Shenk, residing on the Marietta pike near Wheatland, died very suddenly last night. She ate a hearty supper and was in excellent health. During the night her husband was awakened by moans, and about half-past cleven o'clock she was dead. Apoplexy is supposed to have been the cause of her death. Deceased was in her 67th year; she had been married to Mr. Shenk for about 13 years. She was formerly the wife of John Bassler, and leaves two grown children, viz : Mrs. Samuel Landis and John S. Bassler, of Manheim

Duprez & Benedict's Ministrels,-On Tuesday evening next, this large organization, said to consist of forty of the best known artists in the burnt cork line, will be in Full in opera house. The Worcester (Ma-s.) Times, speaking of the show in that city, says: "The performance developed the fact that Mr. Duprez has lost none of the brilliancy he has always exhibited in presenting to the people the very best minstrel talent that can be found in the country. In the thirty years of his managerial life in the minstrelsy business, at no time did he ever bring together a more select and

Gus. Williams .- There is scarcely a betterknown comedian on the American stage today than Mr. Gus Williams. His dialect eccentricities have given him the widest celebrity and he seems to be adding to his tame with his new play, "One of the Finest," which will be given here on Wednesday evening next. The St. Louis Past-Dispatch says : " in the roll of John Mishler, the German policeman, he has every opportunity to display his great ability as a specialty actor and he succeeded admirably in entertaining the vast audience from the rise to the fall of the curtain. The play abounds in humorous situations; it is furnished with a brisk dialogue, and the song and dance element is liberally

No error in the conduct of physical life can be greater, or of more serious consequence, than to suppose that pains in the back and loins, fluttering of the heart, and disturbances of the urinary system are trivial, and will "go as they came." To neglect such symptoms is a sure way to incur serious and often fatal diseases. The true cure for them is Hunt's Remedy, the great kidney and liver medicine. This medicine is never taken without benefit. It nervous about your kidneys, bladder, liver, or urinary organs, use Hunt's Remedy.
