THE PLIGHT OF TIME. " My days are swifter than a weaver's shut

The bell rings out the hour of nine-An hour that was, no more is mine; The minutes worth so much Have vanished like a swallow's flight. Or as the sinner's dream of right, Or like a spirit's touch.

I cannot call an hour my own-For, when I clasp it, it has flown : What riches have I then? The little moments, ticks of time, I sit and weave them into ryhme; And now the clock strikes ten.

Two hours, and then the day is done: The day se thoughtlessly begun And lightly spent by me, Has stamped some mark, or word, or sign, On this enduring heart of mine, Which ne'er effaced can be.

Those hours have passed; the hands that play Around the clock-face all the day Are pointing heavenward now; A round of perfect work is done, Another day's swift race is run;

To heaven they pay their vow. And shall those nands upon the clock My own free hands and fingers mock, And point to heaven alone? No-1 will raise mine own and pray That that bright world of endless day May this day's sins atone.

The days go out, the days come in-They fly and whirl like tops that spin Upon the kitchen floor; Thus have they spun since Time began-Thus will they spin for boy and man, Till Time shall be no more. Jackson, Mtch., Dec. 25, 1882.

PATTISON'S POSITION.

-C. P. Eussell.

Explanations From the Governor's Friends Harrisburg Dispatch to Recort.

Some of Governor Pattison's friends feel called upon to deny some of the rumors that have been affoat regarding him and those near him during the past week. As a sample story, they instance that in which it is represented that he snubbed a reception committee at the on his arrival here and refused the tender of a carriage. So far from doing this, the governor and party looked for carriages when they got out of the cars, but there were none, and Mr. Pattison and his gentlemen friends walked, while the ladies were crowded into one of the old-fashioned om nibuses and hauled to the executive mansion. There was no snubbing of : committee. Another instance was his refusal of an escort from the Americus club. In defense of this it is urged that Governor l'attison had already, m a quiet way, refused an escort from the state fencibles, and it would have been a gratu itous insult to the national guard to scept a civilian escort after refusing the offer of the crack military organization of

A gentleman close to the governor was asked how the governor regarded the attacks made upon him by certain news | papers because of his appointment of Hon. Lewis C. Cassidy, as attorney general. "He doesn't care a snap of his finger the attacks," said the gentleman. never said he would not appoint Mr. Cassidy attorney general. I have been close to him for months, and I never heard even a hint to that effect." Having failed in their attacks on the governor, his enemies are now turning their attention to ridiculing Rev. Mr. that in presenting a communication to the Senate the latter said : "I have a message in writing from the governor." The irreverent critics forget to state that Mr. Everett added : "Of the commonwealth." A very proper proceeding, and it may be said that the governor does not take any stock in the title of "His Excellency."

. "They who cry loudest are not alway the most hurt." Kidney-Word does its work like the Good samaritan, quickly, unestentationsly, but with great/thoroughness. A New Hampshire lady writes: "Mother has been afflicted for years with kidney diseases. Last Spring she was very iil and had an abarming pain and numbness in one side, Kichey-Wort proved a great blessing and has completely cured ber."

A Baptist Minister's Experience, Lam a Bantist Minister, and before I eve thought of being a clergyman, I graduated in medicine, but left a lucrative practice for my present profession, 40 years ago. I was for present profession, 40 years ago. I was for many years a sufferer from quinsy: "Thomas' Eelectric Oil cured me." I was also troubled with hourseness, and Thomas' Eelectric Oil always relieved me. My wife and child had diphtheria, and "Thomas' Eelectric Oil cured them," and it taken in time it will care seven out of ten. I am confident it is a cure for the most obstinate cold or cough, and it any one will take a small teaspoon and halt fill it with the Oil, and then piace the end of the spoon in the Oil, and then piace the end of the spoon in one nostril and draw the Oil out of the spoon into the head by snifling as hard as they can, until the Oil falls over into the throat, and practice that twice a week, I don't care how offensive their head may be, it will clean it out and cure their catarrh. A REAL SKIN CURE.

THERE IS ONLY ONE AND THAT WITH SIMPLE NAME.

Beware of impostors, pirates, or any old irticles which now suddenly claim to be best. They have been tried and found wanting while this has been proved a remarkable success.

NO POMPOUS NAME.

This curative needs no pompous or incomprehensible title of Greek or Latin to sustain it, but its simple English name appeals directly to the common sense of the people. And the p opteare signally manifesting their sppreciation of this frankness by selecting and using Dr. Benson's SKIN CURE in preference to all other professed remedies.

Dr. C. W. Benson has long been well known as a successful physician and surgeon, and his life study has been the diseases of the neryous system and of the skin; since he has been persuaded to put his New Remedy and Favorite Prescription as a "Skin Cure" on the market, various things have sprung up into existence, or have woke up from the sleepy state in which they were before, and now claim to be The Great Skin Cure.

Beware of imitations, or the various articles which have been adve, ti-ed for years or struggled along, having no real hold or merit on the public, that now endeavor to keep head above water by advertising themselves as "The Great Skin Cure." None is genuine and reliable, except Dr. C. W. Ben son's Skin Cure. Each package and bottle bears his likeness. Internal and external remedy, two bottles in one package, Price, $1.00; get at your druggists.

Relief for all Overworked Brains.

CAUSE AND CURE. Dr. B. W. Benson's Celery and Chamomile Pills are valuable for school children who suffer from nervous headaches caused by an overworked brain in their studies, and for all classes of hard brain workers whose over tasked nervous centres need repair and sedation. Nervous tremor, weakness, and paralygivare being daily cured by these pills. They correct costiveness, but are not purgative. Price 5 cents, or six bottles for $2.50, postage free, to any address. For sale by all druggists. Depot, Baltimore, Md., where the doctor can be addressed. Letters of inquiry treely answered.

DARKER'S GINGER TONIC.

Winding Up the Clock.

When the Weary Wheels Were Almos Still, A Lucky Accident Reveals the Lost Key. "How long did you say you had it?"

"Twenty five years,"
"What I a bad cough, with occasional at acks of hemmorrhage, for twenty five years? why, it an, it's a mercy that there', a dozon rounds left of you." Abraham Orner, of Illghspire, Dauphin Abraham Orner, to Histories, training county, Fa., stack to his statement, and when the exchanations of wonder crossed, he added: "Exactly. You're right. It is a merey, lint the greatest mercy of all is that, before it actually coughed my eff out of existence, I got hold of Parker's Girger Tonic, and a tew lettles of it countries. got hold of Parker's Ginger Tonic, and a few hottles of it curred me,"

"Cured you? Relieved you, you mean?"

"I mean what I say: it cured me," said Mr Orner, simply. "I feet like another man."

Please take especial notice: Parker's cix one Tonic is not a mere escence of ginger; not a mere stomachie. The ordinary preparations of ginger are beneficial for transfent aches, but at that point their value ends. Parker's Ginger forceovers a far wider and totally different field. It attacks and dissipates calical and chronic diseases of the Lungs, Kidneys, Live and Nerves. It is as delicious to the painte as it is prompt and effective in the palate as it is prompt and effective in operation. Ginger is only one among many powerful curatives which the Toxic holds in combination. Test its virtue for that cough of yours, or for any of the ills which require an invigorant for the whole system. And, above all, do not permit yourself to be misled. Parker's Givern Toxic stands alone. Nothing else is "just the same," or "just as good." Prices 50 cents and $1. Economy in both the same of the s
