WEDNESDAY EVENING JAN. 24, 1883.

THE TWO GLASSES.

There sat two glasses, filled to the brim,
On a rich man's table, rim to rim;
One was ruddy and red as blood.
And one as clear as the crystal flood.
Said the glass of wine to the paler brother,
"Let us tell the tales of the past to each other,
I can tell of banquet and revel and mirth,
And the proudest and grandest souls on earth
Fell under my touch, as though struck by blight,
Where I was a king for I ruled in might.
From the heads of kings I have torn the crown,
From the heights of fame I have hurled men down;
I have blasted many an honored name;
I have taken virtue and given shame;
I have tempted the youth with a sip, a taste,
That has made his future a barren waste.
Far greater than a king am I,
Or than any army beneath the sky;
I have made the arm of the driver fail,
And sent the train from the iron rail
I have made good ships go down at sea,
And the shrieks of the lost were sweet to me.
For they said, 'Behold, how great you be,
Fame, strength, wealth, genius, before you fall,
For your might and power are over all.
"Ho! ho! pale brother," laughed the wine,
"Can you boast of deeds as great as mine?"
Said the water glass, "I cannot boast
Of a king dethroned or a murdered host,
But I can tell of a heart, once sad,
By my crystal drops made light and glad—
Of thirsts I've quenched, of brows I've laved
Of hands I have cooled and souls I have saved;
I have leaped through the valley, dashed down the mountain,
Flowed the river and played in the fountain,
Slept in the sun-line and dropped from the sky,
And everywhere gladdened the landscape and eye;
I have eased the hot forehead of fever and pain
I have made the parched meadow grow fertile with grain;
I can tell of the powerful wheel of the mill
That ground out flour an I turned at my will;
I can tell of manhood debased by you
That I lifted up and crowned anew
I cheer, I help, I strengthen and aid;
I gladden the heart of man and maid;
I set the chain-wine captive free
And all are better for knowing me."
These are the tastes they told each other—
The glass of wine and paler brother—
As they sat together, filled to the brim,
On the rich man's table rim to rim.

DRESSED BEEF OF THE WEST.

The Effect of Its Introduction into Eastern Markets.

Correspondence of Farmers' Friend and Grange Advocate.

I was surprised to see in a recent issue of the Farmers' Friend an article favoring the opening of our markets to the "dressed beef" of the West. I don't think you realize the tremendous consequences which would attend the success of that experiment. One of the first would be the total destruction of one of the most profitable industries left to the small farmer in the East,—that is, cattle feeding. Cheap through rates on Western grain have about ruined him in that department of production, and beef slaughtered in the West, and marketed here, will destroy his last remaining resource. These are long steps down grade to that sorry level where the alternative is emigration or serfdom.

Again, the dressed beef business will ultimately result in another gigantic monopoly, and, controlling the food supply of the people, it will be one of the worst that ever existed. The killing establishments at Chicago are now immense affairs, concentrated in few hands, and with success they will grow larger and fall into fewer hands still. The small dealers and butchers of the East will be crushed out, like cattle feeders, and we will depend for our meat upon the great monopolists of the West, with their millions of capital, and they will give us good food or poison, as they like, and charge us whatever they please. Is this a state of affairs to be desired? Or is it one to which our people can look forward without feeling that the wheel upon which they are being broken by the contrivance of capital massed together in many forms has been given another and a most deadly turn?

You will say that the old way of transporting live cattle is barbarous to the animal and dangerous to the health of the meat consumer; and that the losses by death, bruising and shrinkage in weight are immense. And this is true. But because one system is bad, shall we fly to another which is infinitely worse? This is generally, indeed almost always, the way that monopoly, by seeming to meet some great public want, manages to get its fangs inserted. The real remedy—the remedy which preserves the industry of the farmer—the avocation of the stock man and the butcher, and saves the public from the danger of tainted meats and the exactions of a great monopoly, situated beyond the control of our laws, is an improved cattle car, which will receive the steer from his pasture, West or East, and carry him in safety and comfort to his destination, feeding and watering him, protecting him alike from prodding, horning, and trampling. Put these cars in fast trains, and you have this service performed in the best manner that can be imagined.

Please pardon the length to which my pen has run. But I felt that the article mentioned must have been published under a misapprehension, and that you would be pleased to correct it. The Grange surely cannot look upon the growth of such a threatening enterprise as this Chicago dressed beef business without serious apprehension.

 Old birds are not caught with chaff." Therefore seek and find the pure golden grains of health in Kidney-Wort. Women, young or old, married or single, if out of health, will be greatly benefited by taking Kidney-Wort.

A REMARKABLE DISCOVERY.

[From the Home Journal]

A REAL SKIN CURE.

THERE IS ONLY ONE

AND THAT WITH SIMPLE NAME.

Beware of impostors, pirates, or any old articles which now suddenly claim to be best. They have been tried and found wanting, while this has been proved a remarkable success.

NO POMPOUS NAME.

This curative needs no pompous or incomprehensible title of Greek or Latin to sustain it, but its simple English name appeals directly to the common sense of the people. And the people are signally manifesting their appreciation of this frankness by selecting and using Dr. Benson's SKIN CURE in preference to all other professed remedies.

Dr. C. W. Benson has long been well known as a successful physician and surgeon, and his life study has been the diseases of the nervous system and of the skin; since he has been persuaded to put his New Remedy and Favorite Prescription as a "Skin Cure" on the market, various things have sprung up into existence, or have woke up from the sleepy state in which they were before, and now claim to be The Great Skin Cure.

☞ Beware of imitations, or the various articles which have been advertised for years or struggled along, having no real hold or merit on the public, that now endeavor to keep head above water by advertising themselves as "The Great Skin Cure." None is genuine and reliable, except Dr. C. W. Benson's Skin Cure. Each package and bottle bears his likeness. Internal and external remedy two bottles in one package. Price, $1.00; of all your druggists.

Relief for all Overworked Brains.

CAUSE AND CURE.

Dr. B. W. Benson's Celery and Chamomile Pills are valuable for school children who suffer from nervous headaches caused by an overworked brain in their studies, and for all classes of hard brain workers whose over tasked nervous centres need repair and solution. Nervous tremor, weakness, and paralysis are being daily cured by these pills. They correct costiveness, but are not purgative. Price 5 cents, or six bottles for $2.50, postage free, to any address. For sale by all druggists. Depot, Baltimore, Md., where the doctor can be address ed. Letters of inquiry freely answered.

C. N. Crittenton, of New York, is wholesale agent for Dr. C. W. Benson's remedies.
